NON –ALIGNMENT:

All the descriptions of the Ultimate Reality by enlightened beings throughout history have been identical. There is only one Supreme Reality.

Love is not a ‘quality’ of God but is God’s very essence.

Conflict may arise because of religious or group loyalties, or ethnic or family traditions, but the loyalty of the committed spiritual seeker is only to God.

God brings beauty, love, joy, forgiveness, compassion, peace, harmony, music, and freedom.

Simply one is to follow the original teachings of the founding masters. Truth is always the same throughout history. No group has an exclusive or inside track.

There is no conflict among the world’s highest teachers. There is not a single organisation that has an exclusive possession of the truth.

The spiritual seeker learns to observe and become aware without judgement. One position is not better than another but merely represents a different contextualisation. God is not limited by any positionality or ascribable qualities and is not subject to the duality of either / or, which would have to be the basis of any favouritism.

Krishna said that those who are pure in their devotion and intention are equally loved by God. God has no given name; Divinity is not deceived. Those who truly long for God are embraced by that Infinite Presence which is beyond all religions.

Spirituality and truth unite; falsity begets factionalism and conflict. Religion divides and is based on secular power, whereas spirituality unites and has no worldly organisation. Any translation of the original teachings of the great avatars that teaches anything other than peace or love is an error.

Purely spiritual organisations lack authoritarian structure, own no buildings or edifices, have no officers, treasuries, goods or monies, and they avoid expressing any views and remain uninvolved with outside issues. Intrinsically, spiritual organisations make no public statements and operate solely out of voluntary adherence to spiritual principles.

The Buddha extolled the wisdom of ‘The Middle Way’. Moderation is therefore the most workable position. Factionalism is transcended as spiritual evolution progresses. Devotional nonduality is the way of radical truth.

Enlightenment is merely the emergence of truth when the obstructions to the realisation of that truth have been removed.

Spirituality merely constitutes all of the known human virtues.

All the great avatars (such as Christ, Buddha, Krishna) calibrate at or near 1,000. At these levels, there are no arguments. Each teacher, however, had a different style and taught in a different period of history to a different culture and geographic group. These windows of God radiate the power and compassion of God to encompass all mankind to reenergise its spiritual aliveness and bring new hope and joy.

Kinesiology is the 'wormhole' between two universes – the physical world and the world of the mind and spirit – an interface between dimensions. Here is a tool to recover and demonstrate for all to see that lost connection with the higher reality. One can now, for the first time in history, tell truth from falsehood about anything anywhere in time or space, within seconds. The kinesiologic test of truth versus falsehood is the first discovery of its kind to guide the seeker toward the light.

The database of consciousness, now accessible via kinesiology, is truth.

Human consciousness has advanced very slowly through history. It will probably speed up and spirituality will prevail more commonly. Even the world of business will discover that the inclusion of spiritual values is very profitable as reflected by a healthier bottom line.

Prosperity is measured not only in dollars but also in the joy of participation. Spiritual values are nondenominational and merely an affirmation of the obvious; for example, we should protect our workers because we care for them, not because the failure to do so would be a violation and bring a fine from the appropriate authority.

The world of business needs human warmth, human presence, cordiality, and caring.

Spirituality merely constitutes all the known human virtues.

Kind heartedness and concern for others and their welfare is the best business practice there is.

Choose to be easygoing, benign, forgiving, compassionate and unconditionally loving towards all life in all its expressions without exception, including oneself.

Every improvement we make in our private world improves the world at large for everyone. Simple kindness to one's self and all that lives is the most powerful transformational force of all.

If our life is dedicated to enhancing everyone we contact, our lives can never lose meaning.

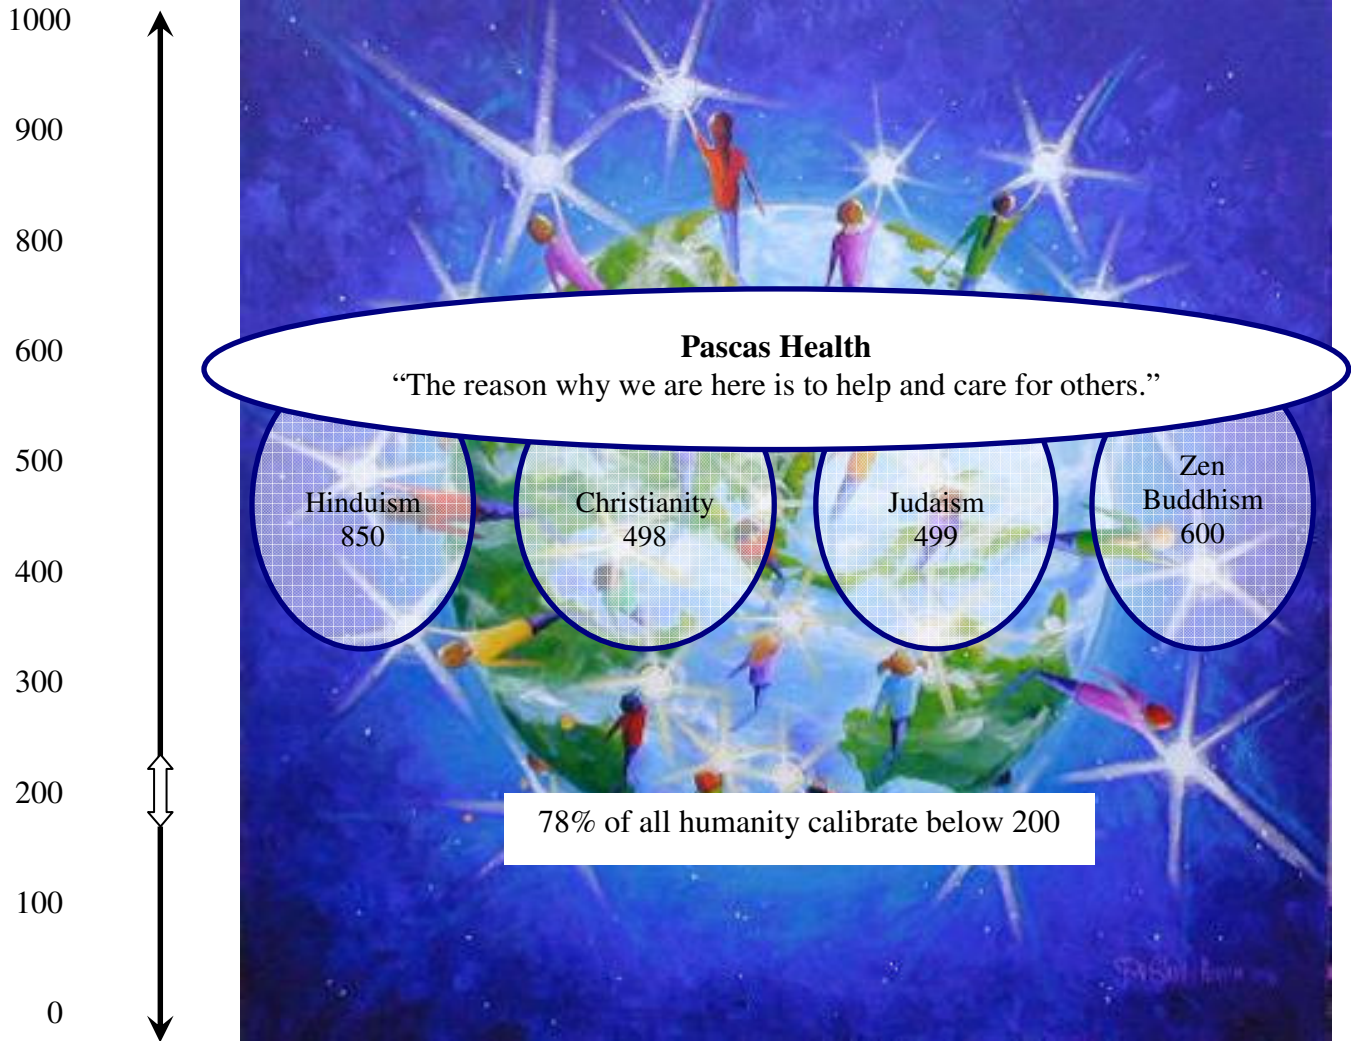

The spiritual devotee has only to discover ... that which he knows ... that God is within us all.

To live with care and kindness is all that is necessary; the rest reveals itself in due time. The commonplace and God are not distinct.

Positive zones

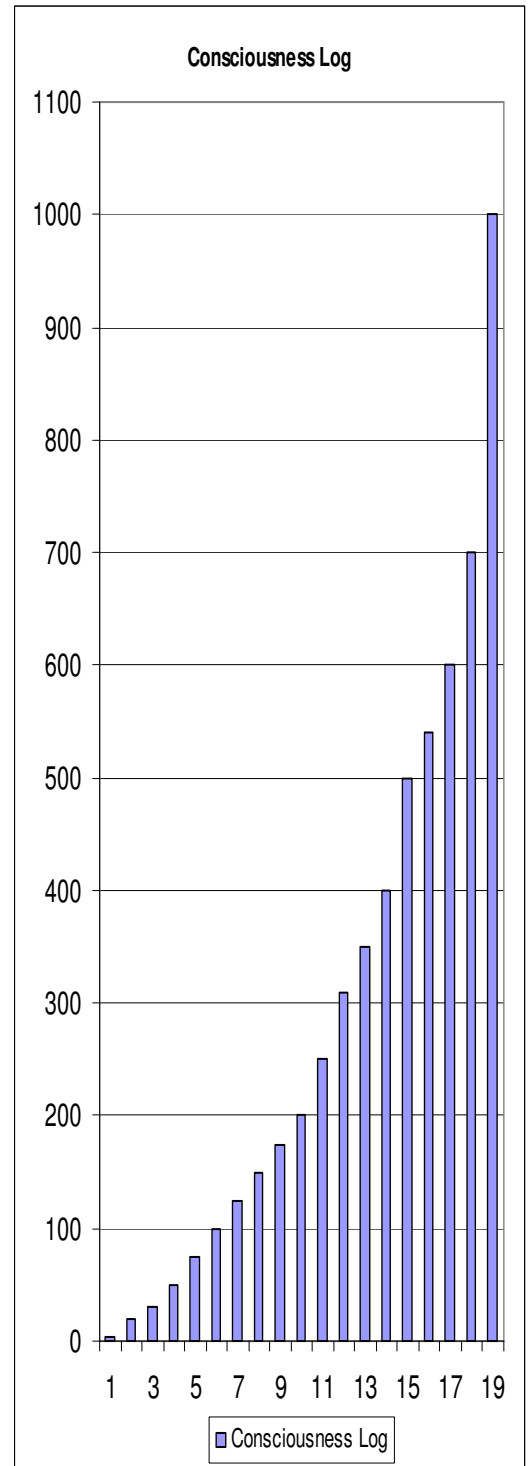

Negative zones

- 1 Avatar counter balances the negativity of all mankind (being those below 200)
 - 12 individuals at level 700 equal 1 Avatar
 - 1 individuals at level 700 counter balances 70 million below 200
 - 1 individuals at level 600 counter balances 10 million below 200
 - 1 individuals at level 500 counter balances 750,000 below 200
 - 1 individuals at level 400 counter balances 400,000 below 200
 - 1 individuals at level 300 counter balances 90,000 below 200
- Humanity calibrated for centuries at 190 until 1986 when it jumped to 207.

78% of humanity calibrates below 200 - before 1986 it was 85%.

Currently 22 people on the planet calibrate at 700+.

Scale is based on energy calibration of an individual.

The SEARCH for TRUTH:

We are in a pivotal position to provide an agenda to serve humanity. To enhance its enlightenment and raise the consciousness of mankind as part of our spiritual evolution.

To this end, we transcend all negative aspects of our species to the positive aspirations of unconditional love, compassion, understanding and tolerance in an environment of harmony and kindness to all (without fear or judgement) and thereby engender the human spirit.

In so doing, we will collectively change the world (as it currently exists in dense vibration) by how we change the ~processes~ of societal forms among people and nations.

The resultant consequences are what humanity will become. This spiritual awakening will occur and enter mankind into a new realm of vibrational consciousness that now very definitely beckons.

Our motivation will be to `achieve the highest that humanity can become`, and connect into the purity of the divine God essence in all of us through this noblest of endeavours that knows no boundaries.

Notations by Gregory Sheehy.

When we look at the decline of the level of truth of the world's great religions, we notice that those that are the most "yin" have remained relatively pure through the ages, whereas those that are more "yang" (involved in worldly affairs) have degraded markedly, until the militant extremist faction of the most aggressive religion has actually sunk below the critical level of integrity at 200. The more dualistic the creed, the greater seems to be its vulnerability to misinterpretation. Dualism promotes a split between belief and action and the disorientation of levels of truth. When this occurs, the spiritual essence can be confused in translation into physical expression. Thus, the conceptual Christian Soldier (of the spirit) becomes, through a distorted "literal" translation, a self-justified battlefield killer.

The Hindus did not fall into the error of confusing levels of interpretation; the battle described in the opening of the Bhagavad-Gita was never misinterpreted to suggest Lord Krishna teaches that believers are to engage in actual warfare. The Buddha's view – that the cause of all pain and suffering is ignorance, which he saw as the only "sin" possible, and that one's duty is to be compassionate toward others and pray for them – is hardly susceptible to such distortion.

The initial effect of taking responsibility for the truth of one's life is to raise lower energy levels to 200, the critical level at which power first appears and the stepping stone to all the higher levels. The Courage to face truth leads eventually to Acceptance, where greater power arises at the level of 350. Here there is sufficient energy to solve the majority of man's social problems. This, in turn, leads to the yet greater power available at 500, the level of Love. Knowing our own and everyone else's human foibles gives rise to forgiveness, and thence to compassion. Compassion is the doorway to grace and to the final realisation of who we are and why we are here, and of the ultimate source of all existence.

All spiritual truth is contained in every spiritual concept; it is only necessary to totally understand one single concept to understand them all, and arrive at the realisation of the Real.

To live with care and kindness is all that is necessary.
