These two charts demonstrate the stark reality of one’s probable quality of life that we will experience relative to our personal calibration as per the Map of Consciousness developed by Dr David Hawkins. This calibration level is essentially set for life by the time we reach the age of six (6) years.

The overall consciousness of humanity remained at 190 on Dr David R Hawkins' Map of Consciousness (MoC) scale for around 1,700 years up until the mid 1900s. It has only recently begun to rise due to a few people realising that living feelings first, that is, embracing our feelings, our soul based feelings which are always in truth, and having our minds to follow in implementing what our feelings are guiding us to do, that we can break free of the shackles of mind-centric living. This revelation has had a profound positive impact. Through living feelings first we can heal ourselves of our childhood suppression which is imposed upon us from the moment of conception through to the age of six years by our parents and those close to us – there are and have been no exceptions – we all have and are subjected to childhood suppression.

While we live mind-centric we cannot progress beyond 499 on Hawkins' Map of Consciousness. That is the glass ceiling we are to break through now, and remove the restrictiveness of mind-centricity from our lives. For 200,000 years, we have been misguided to worship our minds and now we are free to choose THE NEW WAY – to live through our feelings, to live feelings first, and as we grow to do so, then the glass ceiling will be dissolved for ever for those who embrace their feelings over their mind.

War between nations, war between people will continue until we heal ourselves of our childhood suppression through embracing our feelings, our soul based feelings of truth. Disease and illness of all kinds will continue to plague us until we heal ourselves of our childhood suppression. All social ailments are of the consequence of our childhood suppression. This is the greatest time in the history of humanity because we now have been shown how to heal ourselves of our childhood suppression. This has now been achieved. It has never occurred in prior times throughout the history of humanity.

Of the past 3,400 years, humans have been entirely at peace for only 268 of them, or just 8% of recorded history. War has prevailed 92% of modern history. How many people have died in war? At least 108 million people were killed in wars in the twentieth century. Conflict and violence are currently on the rise, with many conflicts today waged between non-state actors such as political militias, criminal and international terrorist groups.

Earth's humanity is presently experiencing 'rolling' disruptions that commenced on 22 March 2017 and are likely to continue unfolding relentlessly for around three decades. Nothing and none of the systems that came about during the 200,000 era of the Rebellion and Default are going to be allowed to continue. Nothing will remain the same. We are not going to be allowed to continue with our old ways without great difficulty. We are being encouraged to seek a new way. For those who steadfastly hold onto the old ways, their lives will be very difficult. For those who seek the new way and begin to embrace the new way, they will find life significantly easier.

WE'VE BEEN SCREWED BY LUCIFER REBELLION

Lucifer and his soul partner, with his assistant Satan and soul partner, brought about the Rebellion 200,000 years ago, and through his deputies, Caligastia and Daligastia, and their soul partners, they brought about the default by Adam and Eve of their mission on Earth more than 38,000 years ago.

REBELLION & DEFAULT

On the 31 January 2018, the formal ending of the Rebellion and Default took place, now the out working of the Rebellion is to unfold.

The earthing of the Law of Compensation commenced to quicken on 22 May 2017 and may be fully earthed when the Avonal bestowal pair complete their mission on Earth. The Avonal Pair are to introduce the coming Avonal Age of 1,000 years during which time all of Earth's humanity will be progressively be introduced to Feeling Healing, Living through our Feelings, Living Feelings First and the way to heal ourselves of what we have each taken on of the Rebellion and Default, mostly through our Childhood Suppression commencing at the moment of conception and completing when we are six years of age.

END OF THE LINE

LAW OF COMPENSATION

Through the earthing of the Law of Compensation, in the way it is applied throughout the spirit Mansion Worlds, is why it has been said that a 1,000 years of peace will unfold after the third and final world war.

Insanity Of Humanity

Presently, all of humanity is functioning in one form or another of a stupor, living zombie like, never responding intuitively with any form of spontaneity. The insanity of humanity is visible to all. It will only be when individuals heal themselves of their childhood suppression and begin to fully live through their soul based feelings, having their minds following in executing what our feelings are guiding us to embrace, will the depth of our retardation become obvious to each of us.

The New Way – Feeling Healing

TALK IT OUT

We are to express our feelings, both good and bad, and nothing is sacrosanct or to be withheld.

All that's wrong and untrue within us has to be expressed out of us, each of us, it all has to come to light for us to see the truth of. We have to know the truth of ourselves and the truth of our family relationships.

Everything needs to be expressed, to come out into the open.

What enters emotionally has to be expressed emotionally – it has to come out emotionally – leave us emotionally!

However, we are not to act upon what we are feeling emotionally! We are not to act it out! But, we are to go on and long to know the truth of what is behind our feelings, why we are having these feelings and experiences.

Long to the Mother and Father for Their Divine Love, and ask Them to help you see the truth through your feelings – that which They want you to know. Long and ask; long and pray. Pray to see, know and BE the truth, the truth of you – of all of it!

MIND vs FEELINGS

Mind vs Feelings – Your Choice.

And now is an appropriate Time To Make this Choice!

Everyone is to choose: The Mind Way; or The New Feelings Way.

Which way of living do you choose: Mind Way?

or the Feelings Way of living?

Do you continue in your Mind Way?

or do you embrace The New Feelings Way?

Do you choose the Dead End Mind Way?

or the Eternal Happiness Feelings Way?

Times up for the Mind Way;

the Feelings Way is taking over.

False Spirituality – The Mind Way;

True Spirituality – The Feeling Way.

The End Times and Final Judgement; or Paradise – the choice is yours to make:

Continue in your soul-destroying feeling and truth denying Mind Way;

or embracing The New Feelings Way
by doing your Spiritual Healing;

Maintaining the mind's imposed façade of a robotic, retarded individual, in a stupor, perpetrating the errors of generations gone by;

or The Feeling Way which is the discovery pathway to releasing your true, vibrant personality

The Mind Way – rejecting the truth of yourself by denying feelings, restricted forever to the mind Mansion Worlds;

or The Feeling Way – uncovering the truth of your feelings and ascending to Paradise.

PERSONALITY TRAITS:

Less than two dozen people on planet Earth.

Would not pick up a weapon let alone use it. These people gravitate to the health industry and humanitarian programs.

Debate and implement resolutions without argument and delay. 470

Debate and implement resolutions in due course. 440

Debate and implement resolutions with some degree of follow up generally needed. 410

Management supervision is generally necessary.

Politics become the hope for man's salvation.

Cause no harm to others starts to emerge. Power overrides force.

Illness is developed by those man erroneous emotions that calibrate 200 and lower.

Armies around the world function on pride. Force is now dominant, not power.

Harm of others prevails, self-interest prevails.

Totally self-reliant, not God reliant.

Fear dominates all motivation.

Suicide is possible and probable.

At these levels, seriously harming others for even trivial events appears to be justifiable.

Poverty, unemployment, illness, etc., this is living hell on Earth.

OUR FORMING YEARS are MOST DYNAMIC and TRAUMATIC:

Age-group	Age
Gestation	conception to birth
Newborn	0 days to 1 month
Infant	1 month to 1 year
Toddler	1 to 3 years
Preschool	3 to 6 years
School age child	6 to 12 years
Adolescent	12 to 18 years

Our childhood formative years are from conception through to age of 6 years. Commencing at conception, we begin to take on all of the injuries and errors of belief of our parents and carers. We capitulate to adopting the 'personality' that our physical parents impose upon us, to the detriment of our true personality.

Somehow, we go on smiling and laughing...

The Drama of Life:

'I had a pretty good upbringing' in comparison to other people!

- Parents have NO understanding of Love.
- Parents have NO understanding of Law of Free Will.
- Parents have NO understanding of blocking emotions.
- Parents have NO understanding of causal / core emotions.

EMOTIONAL ABUSE from PARENTS

We, as parents, were born into the Rebellion and Default, having no idea it existed or what it was about. The Rebellion and Default formally ended on 31 January 2018. We now understand that through suppressing our children's true personality, having them live through their minds rather than through their soul-based feelings, this suppression and repression practiced world-wide has induced universal depression. Only through Feeling Healing, longing for the truth behind all feelings, both good and bad, and expressing all that comes to us, will we free ourselves of these errors and heal ourselves. Vibrancy and truth is our destiny!

Suppression & Repression = Universal Depression

CONSCIOUSNESS and EMOTIONS:

Consciousness = Soul Condition. One's Soul Condition is the compilation of all of the held emotions. Soul condition is the sum total of all of the different emotions, desires, passions, etc., all wrapped up together in terms of how much love there is in every one of those.

The Map of Consciousness (MoC) table is based on the common log of 10. It is not a numeric table.
 A calibration increase of 1 point is in fact a 10 fold increase in energy.
 A calibration increase of 10 points is in fact a 10,000,000,000 fold increase in energy.
 Thus the energy differentials are in fact enormous!

NATURAL LOVE or HUMANITY's EMOTIONS:

Our soul, being our real self, is an emotional being. Our soul, though a thought of God, does not possess anything of the divine within it. It existed in a state of bliss, in a natural love state, pending individualisation which is achieved at conception, incarnation being 16 days later when our heart commences to pump blood. Our soul is endowed with natural love emotions, both positive and negative for us to experience through our free will.

Humanity's erroneous emotions are those calibrating below 200 on the Map of Consciousness. The environment around a newly conceived child progressively degrades the condition of that child's soul. When the child reaches about the age of 6, the child's soul condition will reflect the parent's condition. These negative emotions are like a crust around the always pure soul.

Amazingly, the political systems imposed upon every nation retard the potential of for leadership. Political nominees and systems continue to be orchestrated to suppress the potential and growth of the people for the benefit of the few hidden controllers. The feudal systems of years gone by imposed hereditary ego-centric leadership that was assured generation after generation without any regard for the advancement of the people. Monarchist leaders may appear to be informed, educated, but were mostly shows of concentration of wealth that should have been shared amongst the population. Now, we have gatherings of elected representatives that are focused upon ‘what is in it for me’ – the kings and queens of kickbacks! Governmental systems are nothing more than the rebadging of centralising of control, power and wealth for the few, whilst the many are enslaved to their power corruption and greed. Inferior political appointees of inadequate consciousness development are eventually entrapped into the manipulations of hidden controllers.

hidden controllers

Constituents from within electorate areas ‘nominate’ candidates without comprehending the candidates inadequacies – morally and professionally. Candidates are split into opposing parties. The winning majority then have these incapables elect from within themselves their inner circle, being a cabinet who are said to be the elite from within amongst the inadequate. Then the cabinet elects a leader who essentially is the dictator of the nation until the people wake-up and elect a different group of incapables. Meanwhile, the nation stagnates and the cycle goes around once more. Consideration can embrace the need for no party allegiances after selecting highly professional candidates in the same manner that corporations appoint high level executives while only considering those whose Map of Consciousness (MoC) calibration being above 440.

Pathway Forward

To liberate one's real self, one's will, driven by one's soul, moves one to embrace Feeling Healing, so as to clear emotional injuries and errors. With the Divine Love, then one is also Soul Healing. We are to feel our feelings, identify what they are, accept and fully acknowledge that we're feeling them, express them fully, all whilst longing for the truth they are to show us.

The Golden rule is: Never interfere with another's will.

Golden Rule: that one must always honour another's will as one honours one's own.

New Feelings Way: learning how to live true to ourselves by living true to our feelings.

We are to express our feelings, both good and bad, at all times, and to long for the truth of them.

By living true to ourselves true to our feelings, we are living true to God. It's that simple.

Mostly, the elected representatives are not of the consciousness level of the people overall. The leadership of a country is typically put in the hands of those who do not even have the capabilities of the population overall. And as you look further into the inner circle of the leadership, the situation deteriorates. If elected leaders do show initiative and capability in their elected portfolio then they are shifted to new portfolios so that they may fail and not threaten the inner sanctums of control.

In application to international relations, it is important to realise there is often a wide disparity between a country's populace, its leaders, its actual government operations, and its diplomatic representatives. Adequate research and diagnosis of international situations can prevent the repetition of catastrophes of the past that cost the lives of millions of people. This is glaringly obvious when you understand that for decades USA through NATO has been coercing and militarising Ukraine to be the frontline and bridge into Russia, that China will move to consume Taiwan having done so with Hong Kong, that Iran will seek to obliterate Israel. Little is understood of President Donald Trump endeavours to fund North Korea into economic prosperity in return for it becoming a confrontational front to China for the USA.

Leadership is best to be bestowed upon those who calibrate 470 or over on the Map of Consciousness (MoC). Coincidentally, the financial viability of the most progressive corporations and the most employee friendly work environments are those with leadership calibrating well above 400 on the MoC – these are few and far between. Consequently, it is those countries that have their leader's calibration at 440 MoC, if not higher, these are the most vibrant, progressive and stable. Further, political candidates need to qualify for preselection only if they are calibrating well over 400 before standing for election. If they do not calibrate within the zone of Reason on the MoC (400 – 499), it is pointless to consider candidates who calibrate below. The process of calibration takes only a few moments and multiple people can carry out the calibration of each candidate to confirm accuracy.

Adolf Hitler calibrated at 430 MoC throughout his early political career. Adolph Hitler assembled the greatest military machine the world had ever seen. On the simple level of force, his military was unbeatable; yet he could not defeat a tiny island nation across the English Channel because the power expressed by Winston Churchill, who unified the will of his people through principles of freedom and selfless sacrifice. Churchill stood for power, Hitler for force. When the two meet, power always eventually succeeds; in the long run, if it is deeply founded in the will of the people, power is immune to force. Winston Churchill calibrated at 510 MoC. When Hitler suicided at the end of World War II, his consciousness level had degraded to 40 MoC. (Truth vs Falsehood and Power vs Force, both by Dr David R Hawkins).

Interestingly, similar circumstances are unfolding now, in March 2022, with President Vladimir Putin (MoC 360), having commenced invasion of Ukraine on 24 February 2022, is applying force upon the people of Ukraine which is led by President Volodymyr Zelenskyy (MoC 400) who is responding through his people with power. Interestingly, research of a number of wars and the leadership of both sides, it has been the leader calibrating the highest that has always prevailed – eventually!

How is it that we are each so retarded?

Wayward high level leadership of Earth's humanity has cleverly crafted and institutionalised systems that impede every aspect of our living. This has been so for the past 200,000 years.

We were firstly guided, influenced to embrace living mind-centric. That is, we now believe that through our minds that we may achieve all of our goals, we can become almost everything we want, that we can become powerful and prosperous and progress to the greatest heights imaginable. We are to live suppressing our feelings, we are taught by our parents to suppress our true personality and to embrace the personality they want us to be – like them – deluded!

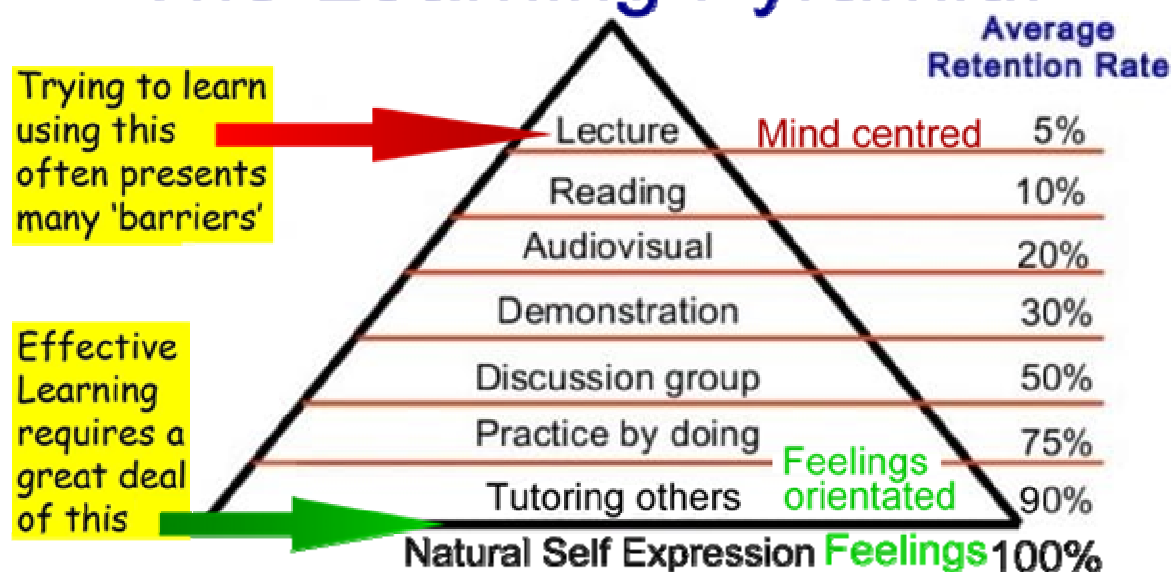

As women are closer to their feelings than men, these high level wayward leaders guided men to subordinate women. Thus, these past 200,000 years, women have been subjected to suppression by men because as women embrace their feelings and begin to express their feelings, which are always in truth, women will expose the folly of mind superiority. We are to live feelings first and have our minds follow in the process of implementing what our feelings are leading us to embrace. Not the other way round as it now is – mind first and feelings suppressed.

Our minds are wonderful and all part of our progression – when in support of our feelings. Our minds cannot discern truth from falsehood and are addicted to untruth, our minds are addicted to control of the environment and other people. Our thoughts are mind generated, when we say; ‘I think’, we begin to express and assumption generated by our mind – assumptions are around 98% in error, the other 2% are flukes. Our feelings are always in truth. We are fully self-contained, all we need to know is self-contained, we have all we need within ourselves, all we need to do is allow our feelings to surface and embrace them, having our minds to follow in implementing our feeling’s guidance.

Education

All education platforms, worldwide, are predominantly mind-centric. There is no feeling orientation and embracement in the way we are to live within education platforms. In fact, education is a tiresome, boring process of lectures. A lecturer delivering a tirade of words from the front of a room is the most ineffective teaching and learning device imaginable – it is also the most commonly employed teaching process.

The Learning Pyramid:

Once the core subject material is introduced, students tutoring each other in small groups of around 12 people is the most superior learning process – yet seldom provided for. Practice by doing, tutoring others flows into natural self expression, achieves comprehensive knowledge of any core subject – and it is permanent learning. Our whole life is about experiences and the feelings that come from such experiences. As feelings arise we are to long to know the truth behind what those feelings are endeavouring to reveal to us. We are truth seekers! And we are to be feelings expressive!

By being mind centric, we cannot progress up Dr David R Hawkins’ Map of Consciousness (MoC) scale beyond 499. On the MoC, 400-499 is the field of ‘Reason’ – the pinnacle of science!

Universally, all sectors of education, pre-school, primary school, high school, craft centres, technical and further education, university, etc., are all mind centric platforms that retards one's freedom of expression and closes down evolutionary growth potential. The PhD – Doctor of Philosophy – is the extreme of feelings suppression with total immersion into one's mind.

Health

Are there really 10,000 diseases and just 500 'cures'?

“Regulators, scientists, clinicians and patient advocacy groups often cite ~7,000 as the number of rare diseases, or between 5,000 and 8,000 depending on the source. While this consensus process is still ongoing, USA National Institutes of Health currently estimate the number of rare diseases to be more than 10,000. An estimate published by the University of Michigan Medical School that “there are roughly 10,000 diseases afflicting humans, and most of these diseases are considered ‘rare’ or ‘orphan’ diseases.”

“There are other estimates, as well. The German government lists 30,000 diseases, of which it says 7,000 are rare, though it cannot be determined how that figure was calculated. Anderson noted that the 10th revision of the International Statistical Classification of Diseases and Related Health Problems (known as ICD-10) has nearly 70,000 codes, which would be an upper-bound estimate.

“The focus is really on rare diseases, but a credible case can be made that there are at least 10,000 diseases in the world, though there is likely more. And there are a bit over 500 treatments. So, as far as round numbers go, 10,000 diseases / 500 treatments works as a talking point.”

However, NO ONE comprehends what is the underlying cause of disease! Our health carers, our doctors and nurses never discuss or outline why we have a discomfort, pain, illness or disease. Kindly ask yourself, when was the last time your medical practitioner outlined to you why you have a particular health issues that you presented yourself with to him or her? There is ONE cause – CHILDHOOD SUPPRESSION.

Childhood Suppression is the elephant in the room!

The underlying generator of all discomfort, pain, disease and illness is Childhood Suppression and ongoing Repression.

Feeling Healing is our only recovery and soul growth pathway.

It is that simple!

Living Feelings First growth potential is

Our Feelings are our Supreme Guide! Truth is found through our feelings, we are to long for the truth about what our feelings draw our attention to. Our soul based feelings are always in truth. We are fully self-contained. This simple fact has been hidden from us for 200,000 years while our hidden controllers, the evil ones, kept us under their selfish controlling agenda.

Living through our feelings first with our minds to follow in assisting with what our feelings guide us to consider is a rewarding, freeing and vibrant life. Whereas we all have been retarded through living mind centric.

Living through our Feelings First, the New Way, and longing for truth of what they are to reveal, expressing what we feel, both good and bad, will enable us to progress through the Feeling Healing Mansion Worlds while living on Earth. With Divine Love we will be fit to enter the Celestial Heavens and progressively then through all the Celestial Heavens of our local Universe of Nebadon and then onwards to Havana and Paradise, the home of our Heavenly Mother and Father.

Not only will we progress beyond 1,000 MoC when transitioning into the 1st of the Celestial Heavens, by the time we reach Paradise we will have progressed to what could only be described as infinity – well not quite – but we will be truly awesome in our evolution and development.

Living mind-centric limits growth to 499 MoC

We all live through our minds! We all suppress and ignore our feelings. This has been how we have been led to live by high level spirits who had ambitions of self glorification to our detriment. These wayward spirits had allusions of expansionary empowerment and they needed Earth's humanity as their foot soldiers! Through their deceit, we would continue to live in spirit as we do on Earth without any prospect of progressing out of the spirit mind Mansion Worlds.

Should we continue with aspirations in the perfecting of our mind then we can progress from the 1st spirit Mansion World to the 2nd mind spirit Mansion World, then 4th and finally 6th mind spirit Mansion World to a dead end. In these higher worlds we may appear to be guru type personalities but we have gone further away from God – we have then perfected our evilness!

The mind can even stave off the time when the Law of Compensation is addressed.

A U-Turn is required and then one would commence embracing their feelings and progress through the Feeling Healing Mansion Worlds 3, 5 and 7. With Divine Love then on completion of the 7th spirit healing Mansion World process we transition to the 1st of the Celestial Heavens.

While we suppress and ignore our feelings we are living in hell and putting ourselves through untold misery, pain and suffering when we can achieve healing to the level that we are living as Celestials while in the physical on Earth!!!

GLASS CEILING BARRIER REMOVAL

Until we each embrace our feelings, begin to live feelings first, express our feelings both good and bad, long to know the truth of that which our feelings are drawing our attention to, we will continue to remain constrained and susceptible to overt control by the few hidden controllers.

We will remain in our ignorant stupor and lethargic state that is deplorable compared to the potential that exists within each of us.

While we remain living mind-centric and suppressing our feelings of truth then we are continuing to live in the Rebellion and Default that has been imposed upon us these past 200,000 years being of the Rebellion and the Default of some 38,000 years ago.

We will continue to stumble from one war to another with about 8% of the time living in some relative degree of peace. We believe we have excelled in technology development whereas we have no understanding as to the cause of any disease, our vaccines may be killing more people than the disease is for which the vaccines have been developed (coronavirus Covid-19), we have poisoned most of our food through chemical fertilisers and pesticides, our food crops are DNA mutated thus threatening our physical health, our vaccines are now interfering directly with our DNA which is a hazard for generations to come, we have developed weapons of mass destruction, not to mention nuclear weapons, that can destroy Earth's humanity and the planet's viability to support life. We think our capacity to enter space is amazing when we are only barely able to leave the planet by sitting in a tin can that is riding on an exploding bomb, while Earth's civilisation of thousands of years ago travelled to the Moon using gravity and magnetism without such clumsiness.

We are wonderfully progressed. We murder around 50 million babies each year through abortion – that indicates that two out of every three of us who grow into being adults are eventually involved in aborting a child. A similar number miscarry, not being born, due to our emotional injuries which we impress upon the newly forming child while they are in the womb. Because we do not heal ourselves of our childhood suppression, which is what we take on of the Rebellion and Default that our own parents impose upon us, we impose deformities and childhood illnesses upon our own children before they are born. The newly forming child is always perfect – until we impose our will and injuries upon them!

A few salient observations of our wonderfully advanced society:

Globally, 785 million people lack access to clean drinking water.

Every day, over 800 children die from dirty water, due to diarrhoea caused by poor water, sanitation and hygiene and scarce or unreliable water and sanitation facilities in many communities around the world. Without clean, easily accessible water, families and their communities become locked in poverty for generations. Children drop out of school and parents struggle to make a living.

Women and children are worst affected – children because they are more vulnerable to disease of dirty water and women and girls because they often bear the burden of carrying water and women and girls because they often bear the burden of carrying water for their families for an estimated 200 million hours each day.

Access to clean water changes everything; it's a stepping stone to development.

Access to clean water and sanitation is possibly the most urgent health crisis facing communities today. One in every nine people on this planet lack daily access to safe water, and one in every three have no toilet.

The world produces enough food to feed everyone on the planet, yet 16.6% of the world's population is undernourished. 957 million people worldwide do not have enough to eat on a regular basis.

Out of the eight billion people on the planet, a striking one billion are living in extreme poverty. Extreme poverty does more than deprive people of necessary food—it also robs them of safe drinking water, sanitation, education, shelter, etc. In fact, more than a billion people live on less than US$1.25 a day, which isn't even enough to buy one gallon of milk at market price.

As many as 1.6 billion people lack adequate housing. That is 20% of the world's people.

About 2% of the world's population is homeless. Two percent — it doesn't sound like much, but when you do the math, that's nearly 154 million people living on the street, in temporary dwellings, at refugee camps, and in other transitory and often dangerous conditions.

Globally, the number of people without access to electricity was 759 million in 2019.

In total, 3.7 billion people have no internet access. That is 40% of the world's population.

Now in 2022, 9.2% of the world survives on less than US$1.90 a day, about 689 million people live in extreme poverty, compared to nearly 36% in 1990.

Although countries impacted by fragility, crises, and violence are home to about 10% of the world's population, they account for more than 40% of people living in extreme poverty. By 2030, an estimated 67% of the world's poor will live in fragile contexts.

About 70% of people older than 15 who live in extreme poverty have no schooling or only some basic education.

A lack of trained teachers, inadequate learning materials, makeshift classes and poor sanitation facilities make learning difficult for many children. Others come to school too hungry, sick or exhausted from work or household tasks to benefit from their lessons.

The consequences are grave: An estimated 617 million children and adolescents around the world are unable to reach minimum proficiency levels in reading and mathematics, even though two thirds of them are in school.

This learning crisis is the greatest global challenge to preparing children and adolescents for life, work and active citizenship.

11% of primary-school-aged children and 20% of lower-secondary-aged children are not in school at all.

Schooling does not always lead to learning. Worldwide, there are more non-learners in school than out of school.

Children and adolescents are excluded from education for many reasons. Poverty remains one of the most obstinate barriers, with children from the poorest households almost five times more likely to be out of primary school than those from the richest.

Children with disabilities and from ethnic minorities are also more likely to be left behind.

For girls in some parts of the world, education opportunities can be especially limited. Only 49% of countries have achieved gender parity in primary education. Harmful gender norms can have severe effects for boys, too.

Location also keeps children from school. Children from rural areas are more than twice as likely to be out of primary school than their urban peers. In conflict zones, 27 million children are out of school.

There are still 58 million primary-aged children worldwide (9%) and 63 million adolescents (18%) who are "out of school". Furthermore, girls are less likely to attend school than boys.

As a whole, the global literacy rate is high. The literacy rate for all males and females that are at least 15 years old is 86.3%. Males aged 15 and over have a literacy rate of 90%, while females lag only slightly behind at 82.7%.

1.3 billion people in 107 developing countries, which account for 22% of the world's population, live in multidimensional poverty. About 84.3% of multidimensionally poor live in sub-Saharan Africa and South Asia. 644 million children are experiencing multidimensional poverty.

Health Care Costs push a Staggering Number of People into Extreme Poverty.

Another 800 million people are spending at least 10% of their household budget on health care. And 3.5 billion people — accounting for more than half of the world's population — are simply forced to go without most essential services. (Aizenman, 12/14).

Half the world lacks access to essential health services – UN Report. World Bank and WHO: Half the world lacks access to essential health services, 100 million still pushed into extreme poverty because of health expenses

Worldwide GDP for 2021 was US$95 Trillion of which 5.3% was spent on education or US$5 Trillion.

Humanitarian expenditure worldwide did not reach US$50 Billion in 2021.

Total military expenditure worldwide in 2021 was US$2 Trillion.

Debt Enslavement

Financial debt enslavement has been imposed upon Earth's humanity by our hidden controllers by stealth, and mostly throughout the fifty years from 1970 to 2020.

During the 1970s, to finance the acquisition of a home, we needed to provide a 20% cash deposit plus stamp duty and other acquisition costs, banks would fund to the level equivalent being 80% of an independent professional valuation. At that time, in Australia, the average home was 120m<sup>2</sup>.

Following on from that time was the introduction of home loan mortgage insurance which protects the funder and not the borrower – all at the borrower's expense. Loans to acquire homes generally became available to 90% of valuation and even 95% of valuation. Also, the features of homes expanded as did their overall size, now averaging above 280m<sup>2</sup>. Debt levels on homes have dramatically increased.

Also around the 1970s, motor vehicle purchase could be financed through hire purchase arrangements if you have a 20% cash deposit and proof of income to support loan repayments. Then lease finance became available on zero deposit.

Consumer loans were available on strict credit criteria and then credit cards were introduced under varying conditions with interest rates of around 20% interest per annum for those who do not discharge the balance on the account at the end of each month. Merchandisers pay a fee for each transaction in the meantime. Credit limits appear to escalate without any regard to income or financial circumstances with many finding themselves in dire straits.

Then education loans have been imposed. Higher education was essentially free with the costs associated with an accounting degree mainly associated with the costs of the books required. Now in 2022, an accounting degree could result in an education loan debt of AU$140,000 or more.

Housing prices require that a couple to be both working to manage the mortgage obligations, thus child care costs are treacherous. Childhood Education and Care (2017) from the Australian Bureau of Statistics can provide an overview on costs in Australia. Long day care (child care centre) AU$70-$188 per day, pre-school AU$45-$80 per day, family day care AU$7.50-$16.80 per hour, outside of school hours care AU$15-$30 per morning session, AU$25-$45 per afternoon session. And with childcare, the child is separated from its parents!

If you cannot accumulate a sufficient deposit then the rent on your home or unit is most likely to commence at around AU$500 a week (2022) being the medium around Australia, thus with child care expense and education loans and motor vehicle finance you may find yourself locked into wage slavery for the whole of your life without the capacity to free yourself of debt and then being dependant on government pensions when in retirement.

This is essentially the work of the hidden controllers of the global financial system. He who controls the cash, the cheque book, controls the government – until the Law of Compensation is fully earthed and as this unfolds there will be continuous unfolding disruptions to all facets of living – including the financial systems of the world.

What Is an Oligarchy? Definition and Examples

<https://www.thoughtco.com/oligarchy-definition-4776084>

Oligarchy (from Greek ὀλιγαρχία (oligarkhía); from ὀλίγος (olígos) 'few', and ἄρχω (arkho) 'to rule or to command') is a form of power structure in which power rests with a small number of people. These people may or may not be distinguished by one or several characteristics, such as nobility, fame, wealth, education, or corporate, religious, political or military control.

Throughout history, oligarchies have often been tyrannical, relying on public obedience or oppression to exist. Aristotle pioneered the use of the term as meaning rule by the rich, for which another term commonly used today is plutocracy. In the early 20th century Robert Michels developed the theory that democracies, like all large organisations, tend to turn into oligarchies. In his "Iron law of oligarchy" he suggests that the necessary division of labour in large organisations leads to the establishment of a ruling class mostly concerned with protecting their own power. It is all the consequence from our addictions for control, control over our environment and control over others through living mind-centric.

An oligarchy is a power structure made up of a few elite individuals, families, or corporations that are allowed to control a country or organisation. In fact, hidden controllers pull the puppet strings on the administration of the world's education, health and financial systems – they are the funders of 'false flag' events that trigger conflicts and wars that they go on lending money to both sides! Here we examine the characteristics of oligarchies, their evolution, and how common they are today.

Key Takeaways: What Is an Oligarchy?

- An oligarchy is a power structure under which a small group of elite individuals, families, or corporations control a country, even multiple countries, and global institutionalised systems.
- The people who hold the power in an oligarchy are called "oligarchs" and are related by characteristics such as wealth, family, nobility, corporate interests, religion, politics, or military power.
- Oligarchies can control all forms of government, including constitutional democracies.
- The theoretical "iron law of oligarchy" holds that all political systems eventually evolve into oligarchies.

Oligarchy Definition

All forms of government, including democracies, theocracies, and monarchies can be controlled by an oligarchy. The presence of a constitution or similar formative charter does not preclude the possibility of an oligarchy holding actual control. Under the theoretical "iron law of oligarchy," all political systems eventually evolve into oligarchies. In democracies, oligarchs use their wealth to influence elected officials. In monarchies, oligarchs use their military power or wealth to influence the king or queen. In general, leaders of oligarchies work to build their own power with little or no regard for the needs of society.

The terms oligarchy and plutocracy are often confused. The leaders of a plutocracy are always wealthy, while the leaders of an oligarchy need not be rich to command control. Thus, plutocracies are always oligarchies, but oligarchies are not always plutocracies.

Oligarchies date back the 600s BCE when the Greek city-states of Sparta and Athens were ruled by an elite group of educated aristocrats. During the 14th century, the city-state of Venice was controlled by rich nobles called "patricians." More recently, South Africa while under white apartheid rule until 1994, was a classic example of a country ruled by a racially-based oligarchy.

Modern Oligarchy Examples

A few examples of modern oligarchies are Russia, China, Iran, and perhaps the United States.

Russia

Though Russian President Vladimir Putin denies it, he functions as part of a wealth-based ruling oligarchy that had its beginnings in the 1400s. In Russia, as in many essentially anti-capitalist countries, accumulating personal wealth requires contacts inside the government. As a result, the Russian government tacitly allows the billionaire oligarchs to invest in democratic countries where the rule of law protects their property.

In January 2018, the U.S. Treasury Department released a list of some 200 Russian oligarchs, companies, and senior Russian government officials including Prime Minister Dimitry Medvedev. “The Russian government operates for the disproportionate benefit of oligarchs and government elites,” said Treasury Secretary Steven T. Mnuchin.

China

The religion-based Chinese oligarchy regained control after the death of Mao Tse-Tung in 1976. Claiming to be descendants of Taoism’s “Eight Immortals,” members of the so-called “Shanghai gang” oligarchs control most state-owned corporations, consult on and profit from business deals, and intermarry in order to maintain their relationship to the Immortals.

Saudi Arabia

The reigning monarch of Saudi Arabia is required to share his power with the descendants of the 44 sons and 17 wives of the country’s founder and first monarch, King Abd al-Aziz al-Sa’ud (1853-1953). The current king, Salman bin Abdulaziz has appointed his son, Prince Mohammed bin Salman as defence minister and overseer of Saudi Aramco, the powerful state-owned oil monopoly.

Iran

Despite having a popularly elected president, Iran is controlled by a religion-based oligarchy of Islamic clerics and their relatives and friends. The Iranian constitution states that “the One God (Allah)” holds “exclusive sovereignty” over the country. The Islamic oligarchs took power after the death of Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini in 1989. His replacement, Ayatollah Ali Khamenei, has placed his family and allies into high government posts and controls the elected president.

The United States

Many economists contend that the United States is now or is becoming an oligarchy. In saying this, they point to the country’s worsening income inequality and social stratification, two of the main characteristics of a wealth-based oligarchy. Between 1979 and 2005, the incomes of the top 1% of U.S. workers rose by 400%. According to a 2104 study by political scientists Martin Gilens and Benjamin Page, the U.S. Congress passes legislation benefiting the wealthiest 10% of Americans more often than measures benefiting the poorest 50%.

Pros and Cons of Oligarchies

While oligarchies are often criticised, they do have some positive aspects.

Pros of Oligarchies

Oligarchies usually work efficiently. Power is placed in the hands of a few people whose expertise enables them to quickly make and apply decisions. In this way, oligarchies are more efficient than ruling systems in which many people must make all decisions in all cases.

As an outgrowth of efficiency, oligarchies allow most of the people to disregard issues that concern society and spend more time on their day-to-day lives. By trusting the wisdom of ruling oligarchs, the people are free to focus on their careers, families, and pastimes. In this manner, oligarchies can also allow more time for technological innovation.

Since one of the main objectives of an oligarchy is social stability—preserving the status quo—the oligarchs' decisions tend to be conservative in nature. As a result, people are less likely to be harmed by extreme and potentially dangerous changes in policy.

Cons of an Oligarchy

Oligarchies typically increase income inequality. Having grown used to their lavish, privileged lifestyles, the oligarchs and their close associates often pocket a disproportionately large share of the country's wealth.

Oligarchies can become stagnant. Oligarchs tend to be clannish, associating only with people who share their values. While this may provide stability, it also prevents people with new ideas and perspectives from entering the ruling class.

Oligarchies that gain too much power can harm the people by restricting the free market. With unlimited power, the oligarchs can agree among themselves to fix prices, deny certain benefits to lower classes or limit the quantities of goods available to the general population. These violations of the laws of supply and demand can have a devastating effect on society.

Oligarchies can cause social upheaval. When people realise they have no hope of ever joining the ruling class, they may feel frustrated and even resort to violence. Attempts to overthrow the oligarchy disrupt the economy, harming everyone in the society.

Hidden Controllers being Faceless Men

There are secret consortiums of very wealthy families. They say that they only have altruistic goals! Their leaders have numerous names, somehow they have fitted themselves with multiple legal names to hide their family connections and create power through invisibility.

Their collective wealth is so staggering that they could take Africa out of poverty with a single program to develop their economies and markets. West Africa has a population of 300 million people, if that economy was developed then that market alone could evolve into a consumer market as large as USA. One of these two wealthy family consortiums could do this; however, they do not even consider investing within Africa.

What they do?

The activities of these righteous aging men is said to be for the 'greater good'.

The art of manipulation is at its finest here. The word stooge comes into prominence. Ambitious and emerging executives are invariably compromised. This entrapment is without limits. Most senior bankers appear to be uniformly compromised. Politicians are snared. Courts are compromised. Legal firms appear to be unaware of ethical treatment of humanity, it is a game of manipulating the laws that they first of all created.

What does this lead to?

When a pool of funds emerge from successful activities by those outside of these family's communities, from activities that they consider to be of their own domain, then they set about to achieve the following:

- a. To take control of the funds – by any means, or
- b. Prevent the payout of the funds and leverage off them for their own purpose, or
- c. Stall the payouts indefinitely, stalling tactics being week by week then day by day.

Mostly, they are successful as most rightful owners of the funds do not have the knowledge, resources, networks, funds and perseverance to fight for their rights. Legal action will most likely cost US$10million to implement – and still loose!

Honey Tongue or Silver Tongue

These pillars of society, and yes they typically are, knights, barons, eminent people, pontificate on the virtues of their endeavours while devouring huge communities.

Two opposing family groups exist within this powerful network. One group's attitude is to take care of the family and their workers, and associates, benefit everyone, privilege has responsibility. The other group's attitude is privilege begets privilege, no such responsibility to community and family. The predominance of manipulation for greed prevails.

The structure is that of a top tier consisting of little more than a dozen families with a single figurehead or chairman, being for the long term. The middle tier (medium term) mainly European and consisting of more than two dozen families. Then the lower tier (short term) of maybe more than one hundred and twenty families from North America and Europe and publicly known as the Bilderberg Club. <http://www.bilderbergmeetings.org/index.php>

These men control the money of the world and consequently the governments.

POLE REVERSAL of EARTH is CYCLICAL at around every 12,500 YEARS

7 Super Universes rotate around Paradise, the home of our Heavenly Parents:
 Each of the 7 super universes have 100,000 local universes
 Earth is within the local universe of Nebadon which has 3,840,101 inhabited worlds.

Sun ejects its material shell between every 12,000 and 13,000 years. This nova heatwave hits one side of Earth, evaporating oceans and lowering their levels by around 400 feet (120 metres).

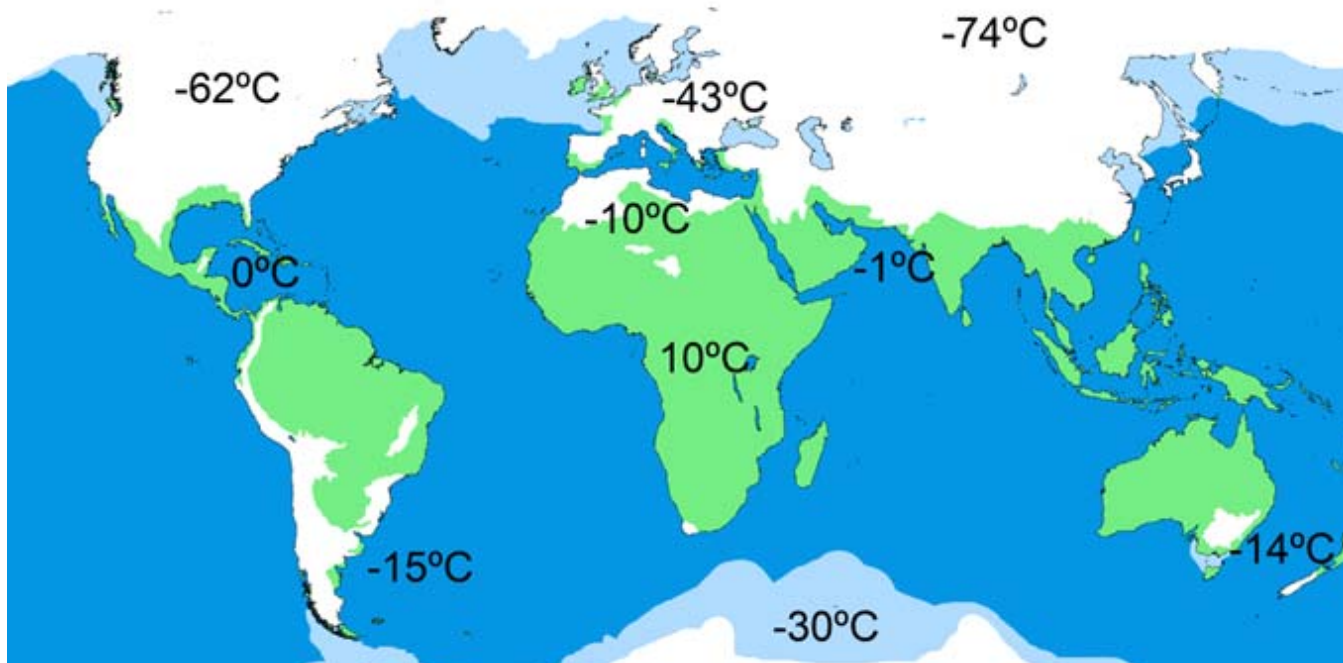

The ejected material shell arrives raining tektites / meteors upon Earth on the far side from the heat wave.

While the material shell rebuilds around the Sun, there is no warmth generated during these 11 to 22 years. The massive amount of moisture in Earth's atmosphere generates an instant ice-age. The regions between the tropics, or  $15^{\circ}$  -  $28^{\circ}$  degrees latitude either side of the equator, away from earthquake zones, are possible survival regions.

Later this century, or sometime, "mini" ice age prediction / expectation:

This is the “global warming” that scientists and governments are ignoring. It is a cyclical earth change event that typically unfolds around every 12,500 years. The increased energy within Earth’s core is increasing core rotation and surface changes on Earth that is resulting in extreme events unfolding.

ANGELS CONVERSING

Saturday, 12 March 2022

James: Zarrion?

Zarrion: I'm here James.

James: Following what you were telling me yesterday, more about the Pole Shift, would you mind if we write it out together?

Zarrion: Not at all. You ask the questions and I'll tell you what I can.

James: I was thinking about so many people dying at one time, and wondering how the existing Arrival Rooms in the first spirit Mansion World would cope with the sudden influx of such a great number of spirits, when they have to be woken up immediately upon their deaths, rather than for example being put into a 'suspended' sleep state for some years as the backlog of new arrivals are worked through.

Zarrion: It is as you say, everyone is to be woken from their 'death sleep' as has been through this last two thousand years of Mary's and Jesus' Age, so all what amounts to being immediately. And so how we're going to cope with such large numbers of people dying roughly at the same time, is by establishing temporary Arrival Stations in the Nature spirit and our Angelic Earth planes. People will be 'bulk awakened' by their Angels, which means, it won't be a one on one situation as it is currently in the Mansion Worlds, where we Angels take a person and reawaken them with the spirit arrival attendant, each in a separate arrival room, and where a loved one or friend of the new arrival might meet them, welcoming them into their new spirit life. People will be woken in groups simultaneously in areas designated for their arrival in these Earth planes. If you imagine a crude example of a football field full of people suddenly arriving and awake, standing or lying down as if they are suddenly awakening from sleep. Then they will be attended to by visiting Celestial spirits who will have been granted access and authority to enter those Earth planes where usually no spirit is allowed to go, they being specifically for us Angels and the Nature spirits. The Celestials will inform the people about their death and reawakening, and then guide them to the portals for the first Mansion World, there to be welcomed and met by family and friends or other helping spirits. So, areas for these arriving spirits will be established in the first world with the spirits informed as to where to go to meet their arriving family and friends. Some people will still die using the regular Arrival Rooms, these being people who are more highly advanced in truth.

So, as I was showing you in your mind yesterday, an area on the Earth like a desert that is sparsely populated could potentially receive a lot of reawakened spirits in the equivalent desert area in the Nature spirit and Angel Earth planes, these places in our planes not being affected by the physical Earth and environment changes taking place. All the effects of the Sun in Nova only apply to the physical world, such effects don't penetrate into the earth planes of the Earth or Mansion Worlds. The spirit light that causes physical suns to nova, also affects all the levels of spirit in Nebadon, however not with such catastrophic results. There is a Pulse of Light that moves out from Paradise washing through all Creation, it causing an up-stepping or overall increased vibration of Light, this being how Creation advances in Light. And its impact on the material level is seen by the suns going into an advanced light state, which you call Nova or micro-nova. There are always pulses of light of varying degrees, which means of time and space duration, coming out of Paradise and affecting the whole of Creation, with all of these pulses affecting the material planes over the cyclic time frames some of your more observant scientists are observing.

Seven Spirit Earth Planes

Each of the seven Earth spirit planes co-exist in the same space as we do in the physical. We of the physical world are of the coarsest and densest material. Starting with the 1st plane, the material within each plane becomes finer, more refined and of greater luminosity. Those within the lower planes cannot see or discern the presence of those in higher planes. Those of the higher planes can move about those in lower planes without them being aware of being present unless they wish to reveal themselves.

Each plane is predominantly for one group of spirit or angel personalities. However, there are sectors within planes where visitors from higher planes can move about freely. No harm or disturbance can be caused by any spirit personality upon another, not even those within the physical Earth existence.

5th Earth Plane being for visitors from the Celestial Heavens and higher angels and spirits from other parts of Creation, including Finaliters.

1st Earth Plane – the darkest ‘Sphere of Isolation’ and closest to Earth. A plane allowing spirits to live in their state of hell because of their grievous inclination to cause harm to others.

The relative quick frequency of the pulses of light that affect all the earths of Nebadon, is required to ensure evolution of the world and its life forms continues according to the plans and patterns of the Life Carriers. It needs to be quite a devastating and dramatic change to the world so as create the environment for specification and other adjustments that allow for life on the world to continue. It might seem counterproductive, but for life to continue as you know it, has required, and still requires, a long series of cyclic novas. The after effects of the nova blast and how it affects species, means all life is receptive to the higher vibration of spiritual light, which means that life can then live through the next age between novas. There is always continual advancement. And as apart of that advance, during some novas, species die out and others are brought into being. It doesn't always happen like how it did during your last nova event on Earth with many of the larger mammals dying out, and even if no species end or new ones begin, all species are affected by the increase in spirit light. And this might then cause subtle mutations and specie adjustment within the specie, yet not enough to create a new specie. New species are all created first by us Angels in league with the Nature spirits, all in accordance with the Life Carriers plans of specification for a world, and when a new specie is ready to be 'awakened' on the world, so we Angels materialise it during one of the designated nova events.

It just happens, there is not a long slow evolution of one specie giving rise to another. The long slow evolution observed by you on Earth can happen within a specie as it adapts to new environmental conditions, and even to the point where your observations of it might qualify it as a separate specie, however, from our point of view, how we Angels and Nature spirits determine species, it is still the same specie. We determine a specie on the spiritual level, which your scientists are not aware of as yet, you looking at only the material or physical result of the spiritual. So, your classification relative to your needs is what suits you, but it's not a true spirit specie classification.

James: I understand. And so you're saying when the time comes, you Angels will put people to sleep and then they will die in their sleep, then to reawaken in the earth planes 3 and 4, the Nature spirit and Angel earth planes.

Zarrion: Yes. Before the full impact of the devastation hits the world, people will be put to sleep by us, as you say, so they will not suffer any undue physical pain. They will be stressed and feeling very scared and anxious should they be aware of the impending nova, or they might be drugged or drunk trying to deal with the horror, but on a physical level they will be spared any great pain of the destruction of their physical body. We Angels will cut their silver cord that connects their spirit body with their physical body, just as we do upon any death, having first put the person to sleep. The cutting of the 'astral cord' signals technical death, and we 'inshrine' or enclose the rest of the personality along with the person's spirit body, taking it to where it will be reawakened in the spirit body. So, if families are altogether at the moment we put them to sleep, they will all wake up at the same time together. They will be dazed and disorientated to a small degree, knowing something major has taken place and no longer being in their home, if that is where they died, but soon will become swept up in the hubbub of their awakening realisations that they have died and yet are still alive. The Celestial spirits, those who have finished their Healing, will know how to cope with them, and so will look after their immediate needs.

There will only be the Celestial spirits seen by the people reawakening as spirits. They will not see us Angels. The Celestials, if required, will be able to see us Angels, however mostly we will remain invisible during the awakening and thereafter until all the people from Earth have left our two earth planes. Those awakening in the Nature spirit plane won't see the Nature spirits, and unless told, the reawakening people won't know they are in either of the two earth planes. They will be told to follow the Celestials who will guide them through the established portals taking them from the earth planes into their designated arrival place in the first Mansion World. The whole procedure will take a few hours at most for most people.

Answering the question in your mind James, you are right in thinking that those people who need more care and attention by the Angels, such as people with physical deformities and severe mental and emotional problems, will be reawakened in special places where their Angels will perfect their bodies, mind, emotional and spiritual systems through regular means, as what happens currently upon such a person's death. So, everyone can start their new spirit life in a regular and perfect state of mind and spirit body. And I when I say perfect, I mean just functioning perfectly, with everyone still remaining in their level and condition of the Rebellion and Default they were in at their time of death. So, on a soul level you retain your imperfection, that being so until you've completed your Spiritual Healing, but on the physical and mind levels, you are granted perfection so you can live your imperfect soul level without interference from any physical or mental disability.

James: Yes, I understand what you're saying. There is no getting away from our rebellious state just because we might suddenly die in a nova, or just when we die. We carry our imperfect fucked up state of mind and will into our spirit lives, unless we start doing our Healing before we die.

CORONA SHELL of the SUN – SUN NOVA event:

The Sun's corona is the outermost part of the Sun's atmosphere. Our Sun is surrounded by a jacket of gases called an atmosphere. The corona is the outermost part of the Sun's atmosphere.

The corona reaches extremely high temperatures. The Sun is around  $6,000^{\circ}\text{C}$  whereas the corona, the outermost shell of the Sun is around  $1,000,000^{\circ}\text{Celsius}$ .

You could consider this outdoor gas heater with the blue light coming from the inner burner ring as the Sun at  $6,000^{\circ}\text{C}$  whereas the out shell being that for the Sun is  $1,000,000^{\circ}\text{C}$ .

Typically, when the pole shift cycle unfolds throughout a solar system, the corona around the Sun may be 'blown' off.

Such a nova event by the Sun showers the side of Earth facing it with Tektites. As such pole shift events unfold cyclically around every 12,500 years, there are many regions of Earth that Tektites can be found.

I still feel Doug Vogt's time is relevant, and I still feel the nova is a real event.

Zarrion: Which is all you are to feel at your present time, which as you know, because you've not as yet completed your Healing, is still represented by your imperfect mind and will state. And it won't be until you are fully Healed that you'll be able to feel 100% whether or not all I am telling you, and all the spirits have told you, is true.

James: Yes.

You were saying how people within the Sanctuaries who have come together by the time of the nova wanting to live doing their Healing will be protected on Earth from the severity of all what's going to happen, and that those Sanctuaries in my mind were specific places 'put aside' for people to live in, like communes set up away from the mainstream cities and being off grid and self-sufficient, in readiness for the Aftertimes, but recently you've added how, for example, if such a Sanctuary was established on the Gold Coast for example, that the whole Gold Coast area might be protected by you Angels, so the Sanctuary as well as a large number of people who are not prepared for the Aftertimes, they still being of their mind's rebelliousness. Which when released from your protected enclosure, would mean those people in the Sanctuary would not only have to deal with being wholly on their own in the Aftertimes, difficult adjustments having to be made I would imagine, and then also with the helpless and lost other people who live in their normal houses being totally unprepared materially and psychologically for such a major life change. Wouldn't that stress even more those people of the Sanctuary having to deal with the people not of the Sanctuary, even just in terms of having to grow enough food for them?

Zarrion: Yes, all you say is correct, however it will be an individual situation by individual situation. Not all Sanctuaries might be nice self-contained sanctuaries with people working in preparing for life in the Aftertimes. There won't be much time for people to learn all about the Healing whilst having to deal with the preparations before the nova. Just deciding where to live and what to take with them will be difficult enough. And so in such situations, that's all going to be apart of what all the people involved will need to deal with. Some Sanctuaries will be more isolated, some will have adjoining non-sanctuary people they'll have to accommodate, it's just what all souls will need.

James: So it might not be anything of a blessing surviving the nova and starting life in the Aftertimes? The blessing might be dying during the nova and waking up for your new easier life in the spirit worlds.

Zarrion: Yes, that's right. No one says it's a blessing surviving the nova. It will just be a new way of life on Earth. And there will be many difficulties to overcome, endure, work through, and simply accept. However, life will not be all that bad. For those people who want to be free of the overall heavy controlling governments, free of having to own land, free of having to go to work to make money to survive; free to do essentially as they please by living a simpler life of growing their own food, hunting, living closer to nature, living on a purified world with no expectations, setting out with the challenge of making life and a new way of living that might prevent all the revolting old controlling ways from developing all over again, will be a thrill. Challenging yes, but all in a good way. And then for those people to live within a spiritual structure as The New Way that is being revealed, as their basis on how to grow in their own truth through their own feelings, and knowing that that truth will guide them as to live in a true way, and that way being no longer of the Rebellion and Default, that they can do their Healing uninterrupted by the ignorant mind-controlled world as it stands now, will be their blessing.

Not all people might want such a simplified existence and without all their usual feel-good toys to keep them entertained, however they will be broken down in their mind, and either suffer accordingly, or change and adjust to the new way of things.

And similarly, people of the old mind way, suddenly finding that their way of life is no longer able to be lived, will no doubt willingly and thankfully embrace the support of a nearby Sanctuary, even possibly being willing and able to embrace the ideas and understanding of The New Way, having suffered through what will amount to a complete mental and possibly emotional breakdown as they come to understand the world as they knew it has ended.

And then possibly there will be those renegades who will want to maintain their rebellious way of mind-controlled life, and they might cause some minor problems, but because of the Law of Compensation being activated on Earth before the nova, they won't be able to do too much damage, knowing that they can't hurt or interfere with anyone because of suffering immediately all the pain they will cause in the one they are hurting, so will remain in their own isolated existence, which won't be much, until they slowly develop life in harmony with how it is in the first Mansion World. And with them, even, potentially being helped by those who want to live The New Way.

The point being, EVERYTHING will be COMPLETELY different to how it was. It will in effect be a New World, and so New Ways of life will be lived on it. And those of The New Way will grow in truth and so avoid all the pitfalls and limitations of the Old Way as you live it now. And those people persisting on living and re-establishing the Old Ways will be free to do so within the Law of Compensation. And with its presence, it will mean the complete rebuilding and re-establishing of the Old Ways won't be able to happen, for they are to end. Your current rebellious way of life ends one way or another with the nova and the beginning of the next Spiritual Age, the two happening together.

Technically the new Spiritual Age will commence before the nova, however as far as humanity will be concerned, they will happen both at the same time.

James: I was reading how in America they are about to release into the wild genetically modified mosquitos to try and eradicate the bad ones. That sort of thing, together with all the genetically modified seeds we use for food, and including all the vile vaccines for Covid-19, we're screwing up the genetics of many species, and so you Angels will have a lot of work to do correcting all our yuk.

Zarrion: We will, and we're looking forward to it. Only very occasionally can we Angels act in such a massive way looking after a humanity and the world they are living on. And by the time the next Age starts, and together with the nova, we'll be ready to make all the necessary alterations bringing the natural world back into a pure state – those parts of it that we protect from the ravages of the nova blast.

So, all of nature that we enclose in our protective barriers of light, whilst enclosed, all imperfection within the environment will be corrected. So, the people in the Aftertimes will know all their food, air and water will be organic, pure and natural, and even more organic pure and natural than what you call organic, as will their bodies being able to survive on such purity. Your bodies have adjusted to some degree with our help, to adjust to your corrupt and polluted food, water and air, and all the drugs you fill them with. So people of the Aftertimes need perfect bodies to deal with the perfect environment. Currently the whole of Earth and its surrounding space, and even penetrating underground as far you have gone, all the oceans and ocean floors, is impure, polluted, and so in a way unnatural. So all of the natural environment protected by us Angels will be purified, so for example, including all the actual earth those in the Sanctuaries use to grow their food in.

James: So how do you remove the tiniest pollutants, say all the micro-plastics we are pouring into ourselves and the environment, let alone all the other micro things and genetic tampering?

Zarrion: It's very easy for us to do. We know what is the perfect natural environment. Certain Angels along with the Nature spirits can look at a piece of dirt for example, and know within themselves what elements are right and which are invasive and wrong. We have the templates or patterns of the perfect world as given to us by the Life Carriers. So, we apply the perfect templates and patterns to the world, and then all that is rubbish, unwanted, pollutants and so on, simply disappears, we dematerialise it. It all happens with us Angels applying higher vibrations of light to a given area, and an area can be as big as the whole world. And within these higher vibrations is all the acceptable lower vibrations of light, and so they remain, and all the other stuff that is unacceptable vibrations of light, is removed. To it we add a higher light vibration that causes all the unwanted pollutants and wrongness to transmute into their elemental component parts, or we just dematerialise it.

All that is dematerialised is in a way ‘carried into spirit’, it being removed to a higher vibration, within which we can then manipulate it if required, then to lower the vibration and deposit the result in perhaps the air as dust or even for it to be added to the existing soil or put into the seas and oceans to be used as fertiliser by the micro organisms. All within the Earth is a closed system. Some of what is of Earth is lost through the nova and other material is gained, and some is gained daily as incoming cosmic dust or in the likes of meteorites and other cosmic rays, but one way or another, once it’s officially a part of the Earth, then we can move it around, change it, dematerialise and re-materialise it, according to the designs of the Life Carriers, but it all remains as a part of the Earth. We Angels can’t do it of ourselves, or for ourselves, we can only respond to the instructions given to us by the Life Carriers, the spirits who oversee the plan for Earth and how all species, including humanity, are to evolve and outwork the primordial Life Plasm through the Ages.

So, in the Aftertimes, there will be pure water and earth, the ground and seas will all be purified, all man-made genetic disruptions, if we’re not to use them for the good of humanity and the natural environment, will be corrected and removed. So, genetically modified plants will either cease to be, or we’ll change them to adjust back into being perfect for the needs of nature and humanity.

And as to all the debris of humanity, all the concrete and steel for example, the same will apply, we’re to dematerialise it if that’s what’s to happen. It might be that some of it is left for humanity of the Aftertimes to be able to recycle and reuse, however the majority of your mess we Angels will clean up for you, so removing all the unwanted plastic and everything else, including all nuclear radiation and the waste of your nuclear power plants.

James: So one big massive clean up job – how long does it take you Angels to do such things?

Zarrion: It depends on how quickly the job needs to be done and how many Angels are employed. It’s not just us Angels that do it, it involves a host of other mind beings that you’re not aware of that exist, some having been revealed to you in The Urantia Book. The goings on, on Earth, in one very small physical planet, can be overseen in a moment if need be by such vast mind beings. I won’t call them spirits James, because they are not like you with a soul and personality, they are beings of Mind creation that don’t have a separate personality as such, so you can’t get to know them, and they get to know you, they are more akin to machines but are still a being, a mind creation in their own right. And so the higher Angels enlist their help, these beings are told what to do by these higher Super Angels, who then act and can for example purify your world in an instant. And then other Angels of my order might be required to enact specific adjustments within creatures and plants or within humanity, collectively or individually.

Zarria and I are wholly assigned to you James, so we won’t be partaking in such affairs that we’re speaking about. We would only adjust within your physical and spiritual systems that which is required by your soul. So other Angels are required to enact all we’re talking about.

As you understand from The Urantia Book (written 1925-1935), lesser evolved humanity, which still comprises the bulk of humanity on Earth, has one pair of Angels per 1,000 people, but when the nova happens, that pair of Angels can only deal with taking one person across the threshold into the holding areas within the Angel and Nature spirit planes, so another 999 Angels are needed to deal with all the other people of their group, assuming they will all die at that time. So that accounts for much of the large influx of Angels coming to Earth, they all being resident in the unseen Angel earth plane from where we do our work with you. And then even more Angels are required to orchestrate the changing of the Age, so the ending of Mary's and Jesus' current Age, and the new Avonal Spiritual Age. The work the Avonal Pair will do, so what they will ask of us Angels, will involve a great many Angels, many of who will work with the Avonal Pair and then move to their assigned mortal at the time of the nova.

Then with the vast reduction in the population of Earth for the Aftertimes, those Angels will be redeployed on other universal assignments.

James: But what about all the suns in Nebadon going into nova, are there enough Angels to cope?

Zarrion: Yes, and if need be, more are created. As you understand, not all the suns nova at the exact same time. The Wave of Light moves through affecting the worlds in a fashion that enables the Angels to keep up with what needs to happen. So, a great part of our Angelic training involves servicing the material worlds during their sun's nova. Some solar systems have numerous worlds in them with humanity living in various state of evolution on the different worlds, and so when those systems sun novas, there is often an even bigger need for the number of attending angels. Earth is one such world in a system with only one inhabitable planet with life on it, so all we Angels will need to do, the bulk of the work by the extra ones will be over and done with in a day, week and few months. Other ongoing adjustments for hundreds and thousands of years will be required to completely deal with the impact of the nova, however lesser numbers of Angels are required.

The majority of Angels that are assigned to people will move their focus to attending to those people who become spirits living in the Mansion Worlds, with fewer Angels being focused on Earth because of their being fewer people. So, those spirit focused Angels will leave the Angel earth plane to move into the planes of the corresponding Mansion World that their subject will be living in.

James: So does that mean many of your Angel friends will leave for the Mansion World Angel planes?

Zarrion: No, it won't affect us, because our Angel friends by that time will all be associated with you and people who survive the nova remaining on Earth in the Sanctuaries. Because of our relationship with you and Marion, we'll be dealing with the Angels of people who want to do their Healing, they being our 'friends'. We Angels don't actually have friends as you have them, we have Angels we work with, and by working with them we develop a degree of what might be called friendship, however we don't visit each other during our free time. Once our work together is complete, that's it, and we might never see each other again, and we don't feel sad or any of the emotions you feel because of such a loss, as we feel very exhilarated in having completed our work, or mission, successfully, assuming it was a success, which it always is, unless we've been subjected to a Rebellion. Then such fallen Angels have to make other adjustments within themselves so they can be successful at being fallen, so working to successfully help the rebellious spirits. Something we are not naturally created to do, yet can do under certain circumstances.

And to answer your question; no, Zarrion and I have never had the experience of being fallen. And as we're working with you James specifically, together with Marion and her Angel pair, being this close to your soul perfection, we won't ever be called upon to submit to a Rebellion, and so to experience being one of the Fallen. Angels who are newly created are usually given the experience of falling, if such a Rebellion is occurring. Experienced Angels like us are required for assignments requiring higher experience, we always moving to advance our mind with each assignment. For Zarrion and I, having to fall, would certainly be an experience, yet one that would now be detrimental to the advancement of our mind. So it would be too stressful to experience, possibly ruining ourselves as being Angels. So newly created Angels without much experience can deal with falling from grace.

There are 100,000 MICHAEL soulmate pairs as REGENTS throughout our SUPER-UNIVERSE:

One of these 100,000 dots represents Nebadon, our local universe, consisting of 100 constellations with each constellation containing 100 systems which in turn have 1,000 worlds. The system in which Earth is within is called Satania.

Nebadon has some 10,000,000 physical planets, of which 3,840,101 are inhabited. The regents of Nebadon are the soulmate pair being the Paradise Creator pair, Mary and Jesus.

This structure is repeated throughout our super-universe, called Orvoton, 100,000 times. There are some 100,000 Regent pairs, equivalent to Mary and Jesus, throughout our super-universe.

There are 7 super-universes that rotate around the Isle of Paradise which is the home of our Heavenly Parents, our Mother and Father. Thus, there are some 700,000 Regent pairs equivalent to Mary and Jesus.

When we progress beyond the spirit Mansion Worlds, we enter the first of the three Celestial spheres, the home city being Jerusem, this is also the home city for all 1,000 physical worlds in Satania. From there we will progress to Salvington being the head quarters for Nebadon and the home of Mary and Jesus. Then we progress to Paradise.

Earth

As you are going to end writing now James, I will add that everyone who is 'saved' the severe effects of the nova, destined to carry humanity through into its next Age, be they people of rebellious minds still wanting to expand their negative state, or people wanting to lessen and eventually end being rebellious by doing their Healing, have been specifically chosen for the 'good of humanity' in the long term. And so all those people will be in the right place at the right time so as to position them for their time in the Angelic protective enclosures. So it might not be everyone gravitating toward a Sanctuary, however once the Aftertime begins, they might need to find out the truth of The New Way, and so start doing their Healing.

As you understand, how the Mansion Worlds are currently set up is to come to Earth, so there will be people living The New Way alongside people of the Old Way. They of the two differing ways might be living in the same town, village or city when the population grows, or they might live very separately from each other, even on different continents or parts of the country. The world how it is currently configured is set to drastically change. There will not be the countries that there are now, all that will go, with most of the world being swept clean, a clean slate for nature to reclaim then followed by humanity of the Old or New Ways.

And no, I'm sorry, but at this time I can't tell you how many people will survive the nova, nor what sort of technology will work afterwards, or how quickly the Old Way will try and rebuild, nor how those of The New Way will decide how they'll want to live expressing the truth of themselves. You'll be told more of that later on.

So I will go now. It was again nice to write with you James, speak to you when you next feel the need. Zarrion.

Later:

James: Zarrion, I was thinking over what you say earlier, and I was wondering if you can please say more about how you Angels deal with all the genetic corruption within us and nature. Like for all those people who got vaccinated for coronavirus Covid-19 and the corruption of their genetic structure. And the genetically changed plants and animals.

Zarrion: For the plants and animals it's relatively straightforward. The Nature spirits know which microbes, plants and animals have been genetically interfered with by your humans, either on purpose by you, or indirectly as a result of your interference with the environment, with much of such genetic interference you're unaware of.

It's all done by introducing the higher light vibrations, we apply the correct vibrational resonance to the area of land or the whole world, in which the specific specie that's been negatively affected by you, either to make that specie cease existing altogether, or to change its genetic structure back to its original natural coding. We can make it happen within specific individuals, or within breeding pairs resulting in their offspring being brought back to a natural state. However, you must remember that the natural state, having been altered artificially by people, no longer exists for such altered specimens, so they would no longer be able to exist within the environment they first came from. So, we might have to make other adjustments to their natural environment to deal with them in their natural state as the original natural environment might no longer exist either. So all of that is taken care of during the nova time with the increase in natural radiation and cosmic rays.

The greatest amount of genetic manipulation to occur this nova will be in the species that humanity has altered. So for example, people living in the Afterlife if they grow corn from old seed or find new wild seed, won't have to worry about whether or not the seed is contaminated from the previous Age, it all being 'rendered new' by us Angels during the crossing over of the Ages and during the early times of the Aftertimes.

Some of the protected people will remain in their ‘enclosures’, their Sanctuaries, for many years before the world about them becomes habitable again because of the life-destroying effects of the nova. Some of people in the Angel enclosures will fall asleep at the time of the nova, then wake up the next day, and a lot of time will have passed outside the enclosures, so months, years, ten, to hundreds, and even in some extreme cases, a thousand plus years. And also some time might have passed inside the enclosure itself, say days, weeks, a month or two, we don’t anticipate anymore time, it all depending on what adjustments need to be done on the people and nature enclosed.

As for human genetic manipulation for the people surviving into the Aftertimes, those of the Old Way will be made right, so any negative results from like the vaccines they will have taken, will be erased and adjusted out of the genome by us Angels in accordance with the pattern of such people’s soul. We are able to work on the higher spiritual genetic levels, within the genes of your spirit body, which in turn is synchronised with adjustments on the will level of your personality, so your will, under the direction of your soul, shall will into being the new altered and perfect spirit body genes, which then affects the auric state of you, which then results in your physical body making the necessary genetic purifying adjustments. Simply the next lot of cells grown will reflect the new state, with the old cells being broken down and recycled and the poisons either naturally passed out by the body or removed by us – dematerialised.

As for those people of The New Way, as many of them will be in varying stages of their Healing, so we will use such inner genetic disturbance to enhance their Healing. All in all the same purification will occur, only it might not happen all at once, it might be staggered so as to allow those people to have memories of their old life that will make them feel bad compared to their new life. So, for them to feel how polluted they are on deep fundamental levels compared to the purity of the world and environment about them, all so as to help them get more in touch with their past childhoods being of the Old Way.

However, having some of their remaining damaged genetic structure will not hurt their overall body function, nor their children, it’s all only for the more subtle levels of reality and to help them get more in touch with how wrong their Old Way of life was. And once they are fully Healed, once they understand how wrong and bad their Old Way was, including feeling it within themselves down to a genetic level, they will be completely made anew when they are Born Anew.

If such people doing their Healing, and so with some of their corrupt genes have children, those children being of the Aftertimes will be conceived and so born free of any of their parents genetic problems coming into life, as will children of those parents who persist in the Old Ways.

And when I say Old Ways, those living in the Aftertimes who are of the Old Way, that being of their mind-controlling ways and who refuse to do their Healing, or at least understand the need to do it, will try to recreate some of how they used to live, but as things will be so different, their Old Way will become also a new way, but new ways more in keeping with the mind spirits and how they live. So, if you want to gain some idea about those people in the Aftertimes who want to remain rebellious will live, look at your writings James with the spirits who’ve told you how the spirits of the mind Mansion Worlds live, which as you understand, is vastly different to how you currently live on Earth. So those of the mind-controlling ways will draw upon their memories of the Old Way, but owing to the influence of the Law of Compensation and the underlying Avonal’s Spirits of Truth, they will create a new old way, if I can put it like that, and one more in keeping with the ways of the mind worlds. And so they won’t interfere with or bother those people of The New Way, with many of The New Way even living with those of the new old way as possibly being part of their Healing.

The people of the new old way will continue their religions and other so-called spiritual beliefs, but many will find these failing them because the conditions of life in which they lived their religious beliefs before the nova will no longer exist, so such people might be open to understanding about The New Way. So, there will be continual 'bleeding' from these people of the new old way to living The New Way, just as there is in the mind Mansion Worlds who are continually losing spirits to the Healing worlds who are living The New Way, as they understand about living rebelliously and want to set about giving it up within themselves.

The unseen spiritual pressure that is to be continually exerted on the world through the next 1,000 years of the Avonal Age, will keep the pressure on people who persist in living with their rebellious minds in control. Life will generally be harder for them, they will have to use their minds more to maintain their feeling and truth denying state. Whereas for those people wanting to do their Healing, life will support them and get easier as they come to terms with their rebelliousness and eventually Heal themselves of it.

OLD WAY to transition to THE NEW WAY

ANGELS SPEAKING:

Sunday, 13 March 2022

James: Zarrion?

Zarrion: No, it's me today James.

James: Hi Zarrion, I do love speaking with the both of you. I've not felt like doing it for a couple of months, it's like the light is not there and I'm too preoccupied with all my yuk, but then yesterday and today I want to talk with you both again.

yuk

Zarrion: You can't be fully connected with us all the time because you're not like that with anyone. You should be with yourself and then Marion, but because of your rebellious state, you're still largely disconnected. You have made gains in lessening it, as you've become more aware of just how disconnected you are, but still you remain bound in your negative state. So with us you come and go, with months on and months off, whereas it used to be years. We are fully connected with you as you know, and you can feel this always now, so it's your side that determines our relationship, which is really how it has always been.

James: Yes, I understand that.

I was wanting to ask you about coronavirus Covid-19 and the vaccines everyone has taken, and now with so many bad side effects coming. The restrictions have largely been eased, I think everyone was tired of it more than anything else, and the authorities were forced into having to ease up on their control because everyone could see it was only a mild to bad cold or flu, but nothing is said about the people now suffering because of the side effects. And so are these problems going to persist?

Zarrion: Yes, they will James, just as those people said they would who studied the vaccines. However, they will continue to be pushed further away because the government is not going to want to be shown up for making a catastrophic blunder in their assessment of the problem and in their overdoing it with the Lockdowns and making everyone take the vaccine, which as you know, doesn't work and causes all the other problems.

It's absurd to think that by injecting anything foreign into your body is not going to have some negative consequences. Food, water and air are all you should take into your body, and these are bad enough for you as to how you've badly polluted everything, but to then take your medicines, some of which the body can deal with without a problem, yet others that cause problems, shows again the sad state you're all in.

LAW OF COMPENSATION

As you know, and as more information comes to light, the whole Covid and vaccine introduction was a well crafted plan by some of the power people, to make a lot of money and to assert their hidden agenda. And as that's how everything happens on your world, like the war now in Ukraine, with Russia wanting to cleanse it of the negative influences. All the hidden power controllers trying to assert their hidden agendas. And this is how it's always been for humanity throughout the Rebellion, not that many people have understood it. When the Rebellion ends (the Rebellion commenced 200,000 years ago through Lucifer's influence, whereas Adam and Eve's Default was more than 38,000 years ago), the guiding influence will be from the Celestials, and they will ensure that everything they are doing is revealed, and it will give humanity a chance to come clean, as such hidden power controllers will no longer be able to have their way subjecting people to mass fear like with the Covid-19 and now the war in Ukraine, all for their own gain. People being able to use other people as if they don't matter or have any value other than being used for their own selfish gain, is all to end, that happening with the introduction of the Law of Compensation.

James: So you are planning for the Law's introduction? You are definite about that?

Zarria: Yes. And as definite as we can with you. I know you worry James that we say things to you like that and they won't actually happen, however that's all a part of what you have to keep going through, all the uncertainty, being told things and you don't know if you can trust us, it all again, and as you know, being how you were parented. So, everything we do with you is to help you feel more bad feelings, and even if what we say is right, how you relate to it will cause you more bad feelings because you are not right in yourself. When you've finished your Healing and all of you will be right, then you'll know within yourself what else is right that we are telling you. So until then, we will keep saying such things to you, and you'll keep feeling unsure and scared about what if you're wrong in believing us and we're leading you astray and nothing will end up happening because nothing ever did for you; and every other bad part of you that you're more familiar with now, all as you work your way to become fully cognisant of your untruth, fully connected with it. And when you are fully connected with all how wrong and rebellious you are, then you'll be fully connected with yourself, and so then being fully connected, you'll be able to work out for yourself through your feeling what is right and what is wrong. And so the wrong you'll be able to let go, as you move with the right, thereby moving yourself out of your rebellious state.

HIDDEN CONTROLLERS

Concerning the Covid-19 vaccines, the hidden controllers will keep trying to afflict such horrors on people, they don't care how much damage they do to people's lives because it's all money in the bank for them. And as they have so much control, no one is able to stand up to them. Putin's Russia is trying to do something about it in Ukraine, however he's discovering that it's a bit harder than what he anticipated. He will regroup and reassess and have a better go at it in the future. But really, as you understand how well entrenched the evilness is, it's going to be the Law of Compensation that sorts out all the wrongness. Really there is no other way. Even with the Nova, humanity that survives will in time just rebuild the world back to such a horrid controlled state, so it's going to be a combined effort between you and the truth you reveal, your's and Marion's Spirits of Truth that will empower those people wanting to be true, and the Divine Minister and her adjusting of the mind circuits through such means as the Law of Compensation, that will free humanity of such over control.

(On the eve of 24 February 2022, "President Vladimir V. Putin of Russia declared the start of a "special military operation" in Ukraine, pledging he would seek to demilitarise but not occupy the country. Mr. Putin said the operation would aim for the "demilitarisation and denazification of Ukraine," referring to the Kremlin's contention that Ukraine's military threatens Russia and that it is run by neo-Nazis.")

The playing field needs to be levelled so everyone has an equal chance of living how they want to live, even in their rebelliousness. Many people aren't free to fully express their wrongness because of the limitations imposed on them by the controllers. And when I say that, your mind immediately thinks if everyone were free to be as evil as they wanted to be, what hell would break loose on the world, it being even worse than it is now, so perhaps having the over control that limits such freedom of being evil is a good thing, however you see evil in the wrong light. So, I will help you make an adjustment with your mind.

Being evil doesn't necessarily mean everyone being suddenly let off the leash will go out committing all the worst crimes against everyone else that they can. The majority of people want to be 'nice' and 'respectful' and even 'loving' to other people, they want to do the right thing as they understand it to be, they don't want to hurt other people, and don't want people to hurt them, they don't want to do all the bad things, and yet such people are just as evil in their 'goodness' as are those more obvious people in their badness.

The Golden rule is: Never interfere with another's will.

So, when I say people aren't able to freely express all their wrongness, I mean because of the monetary constraints imposed, and because only a few have so much of the power and control which they impose over the many, these people are limiting the many from being able to live life as they'd want to live more fully in their wrong state. And so you can see how most people want to live by looking at the mind spirits. Yes, they have to abide by the Law of Compensation, but this really is only there to keep the very bad in line, and to stop the power seekers from having such over control. The majority of mind spirits want to be free to do as they please, not to have to worry about making money to survive, being free to have their mind way of life exactly as they please, with most of them wanting to enjoy themselves, being happy, not feeling scared and threatened, willingly complying within the Law so it never affects them. All so they are free to be as evil and rebellious as they want to be. And so that's what is to happen on Earth, with the Law of Compensation present, the real criminals and power hungry controllers would cease to be, having to do hell time for all the bad they've committed, and then everyone else who wants to be good and do good within their wrongness, will be free to live their lives without all the worry and fear and always having to comply with the demands of the state and the controlling authorities.

LAW OF COMPENSATION

There will be no wars, no fighting, no conscription, no drug companies pushing their poisons, no drug cartels, no controlling government agencies and so on. All of that would go, and everyone would live peacefully together. And for the majority, that would suit them much better than their current lives they have to live within such overbearing power regimes. And so within the 'good' of the evil, peace would come to Earth, just as it exists in the mind worlds. People would still have their little false power, but only enough to get along with everyone else, and not enough to control and dominate others. So the whole focus, as it is in the mind worlds, would be on bettering yourself by using your mind, which is all still wrong and evil and being part of the Rebellion, however at least everyone would be free to do that.

So, the arts and creative aspects of humanity would flourish, and people would work because they wanted to help make the whole world work together for the benefit of all, and not just for the few greedy power controllers. And humanity would quickly see that there would be more than enough resources for everyone, and everyone could live in their little bit of land if they wanted, or coming together to enjoy larger community living, yet all without the focus on trying to make as much money as you can so as to have some power and be able to survive within the power structures. Remove all such power structures and the power controllers who run them, all under the 'care' of the Law of Compensation, and you have a far greater equality of life, and for many, even a utopia within their rebelliousness as so many mind spirits love about their spirit lives, even though it's all still within the Rebellion.

So, how you live the Rebellion on Earth is in a very limited way, with the majority of people not being free to explore and express all their evilness, like those spirits of the mind worlds do. So to introduce the Law of Compensation to Earth, means people are then free to move on and progress in their rebelliousness the right way, rather than in some distorted and heavily perverted wrong way as now currently exists.

And so humanity on Earth remaining after the Nova is to be given the chance of living freely in their rebelliousness, like the mind spirits do; or free to want to end it by doing their Healing.

(The global warming is not the event that the population of the world is being told about by its governments. Humanity is not the main driver of the environmental changes unfolding. This is a cyclical event that unfolds at around 12,500 years and it is essentially due to increased energy flow from deep within the universe that is absorbed into our Sun before being transmitted onto the centre of planets in the solar system, including Earth. No, the drivers to the Earth Changes are not up there, but from within the core of Earth. The cycle typically culminates with a pole reversal for Earth and a Sun nova event! )

James: Yes, I see what you're saying, and I do have to adjust my mind to what you're saying. We've all been programmed to think that if there was no over control, complete anarchy would result, leading to Mad Max type of societies where only the strongest most brutal survive. But as you say, most people want to be good and accepting of others, as best they can within their wrongness, wanting to get on and enjoy life and without hurting anyone or even being very controlling, which is why the controllers can and do dominate us all so easily, because few people want to fight back and resist, that being seen by how willingly people the world over did what the governments told them to by wearing the stupid and useless face-masks, enduring Lockdowns and having to get vaccinated for Covid-19, which only ends up hurting more people than Covid-19 did.

Yes, so I see what you mean, so with the Law of Compensation like it is in the mind worlds allowing everyone to express their wrongness as fully as they want. And so really that's even a greater trap, that everyone is rebellious together 'nicely' respecting everyone's wrongness, and everyone agreeing to get on peacefully together, all so it becomes even harder to see that you are living against yourself. At least how we are now on Earth with such heavy over-control, you know things are fucked, but those spirits in the mind worlds are even more blind to the Rebellion.

REBELLION

Zarria: People under your heavier dominated power regimes are just as blind to themselves being part of the Rebellion. It's no different James, you're aware of it now, that's all, some other people feel bad in it because they can't assert themselves gaining all the power they might want, but few people understand humanity is suffering under the weight of the Rebellion and Default that's imposed on them by their parents through their childhood.

Childhood Suppression

Your current 'version' of the Rebellion and Default is limited in its expression of the wrongness, and so it has been for all these years on Earth through the Rebellion. And so people of the future need to be free to express their rebelliousness fully, and as you are living it by default, that means most people will want to do what they consider the right thing by another person, with themselves being treated the right way, all so they can be happy to get on in what seems like a peaceful and equitable way of living together.

The Evil Ones, the high Spirit Controllers, didn't want humanity becoming like Mad Max, with everyone fighting everyone else for control, with no one 'loving' and 'respecting' each other and living peacefully. That way would mean humanity is destroying itself too much. Without the Law of Compensation, the deep inclination is to use and abuse each other, because you are lawless renegades in the Rebellion. However, the Evil Ones wanted some civility because they wanted humanity to grow in numbers through relatively peaceful means, so that they could come and be amongst the people as the Great Ones, being lovingly admired for the great life they are allowing everyone to live. The Evil Ones didn't want to come back to Earth having to sit on a power-throne ruling the world with an iron fist. They wanted everyone to 'love' them, not fear and hate them. They wanted everyone to 'lovingly' work and do all they want, everyone seemingly to be in a blissful nirvana state of happiness and love, all which in their mind is a much better and more utopian way of living, better than what Mary and Jesus and the Mother and Father can offer people; a way of life in which everyone is free to please themselves, to do whatever they want, and yet for everyone to be able to do that and be happy, it all having to be done with false love, kindness and friendship. The only trouble the Evil Ones had, was that they couldn't introduce the Law of Compensation on the Earth, nor on any of the other rebellious worlds (total of 37 such worlds). So the best they could do was work with how humanity is, thereby trying to instigate what the current controllers call The New World Order, a feudal system that covers the whole world in which they can control everything and thereby bring about a 'peace' and so-called 'utopia' for the remaining masses after the nova. But the trouble is, humanity has got too big and is getting more difficult to control, especially as the Evil Ones are no longer present, so greater fear has to be introduced (in 2019) like what happened with Covid-19 quickly bringing the masses into line.

REBELLION & DEFAULT

James: Okay, my mind is catching up with what you're saying. So humanity still has to be given the ability to outwork freely the Rebellion, which will occur through the next Age and then after that when the Divine Love is withdrawn... and so why wait so long for this phase to happen, why not introduce the Law of Compensation years ago?

Zarria: Because the Mother and Father, along with Mary and Jesus, wanted humanity in its gross evilness to use and abuse Them, to use and abuse all the truth Mary and Jesus revealed, which has been what's happened these past two thousand years, all of what has resulted in your 'advanced' civilisation and all the distorted power and control of the few over the many you're living with. The way humanity has been living the Rebellion without the Law of Compensation was to be allowed to come to a head, for it to be fully outworked, which took all of these two hundred thousand years, and with the capstone being the wholesale denial of Mary and Jesus which has resulted in the absurdity of the Christian Church along with the other meaningless religions. It's been the Christian world that represented using and abusing Mary and Jesus the most, and which has led the world to be as it is now, by allowing the Jews to control the Christians and so manipulate the whole world. The Jews killed Jesus and forced Mary to remain a non-event, and they have then manipulated the Christian religions for their own ends, further controlling Jesus and Mary in a sense. Which they've been able to do because the Christian Churches are so false and absurd. Make a parody of a religion that says it honours Jesus (Mary is not even given a look in, put Jesus' Mother in her place), distort all Jesus said whilst claiming to be living true to what Jesus said, and then in such falseness, completely allow yourself to be dominated and controlled by the Jews, thereby bringing the world to the state it's currently in, and the End Times conclusion of these past two thousand years of the Rebellion.

And so now that ‘version’ or manifestation of the Rebellion, which at its end includes the complete abuse of Mary and Jesus, is to end, and with another version, that which is actually truer to the Rebellion and Default, to be instigated by earthing the Law of Compensation. Mary and Jesus upon their deaths caused the Divine Minister to activate the Law of Compensation in the Mansion Worlds, so those worlds have had two thousand years expressing their rebelliousness more truly under the umbrella of it. Prior to Mary and Jesus, how the Mansion World spirits conducted themselves, was in the same way as people are conducting themselves currently on Earth, so the Mansion Worlds were structured more along the lines of power spirits controlling the masses, but Mary and Jesus changed that into how it is now. And so you James and Marion are to change the Earth bringing into alignment with the Mansion Worlds.

LAW OF COMPENSATION

James: I see. So there has been the phase of outworking the Rebellion and Default without the Law of Compensation; and now there's to be the phase of it being present.

Zarria: Yes. And so it's going to take a long time with humanity expressing its evilness within the Law of Compensation, as it deals with the Divine Love being present, which represents Mary and Jesus; and then without it, without them, as it works to do its Feeling-Healing by choosing to completely end its rebelliousness, the complete end of the Rebellion and Default with everyone having done their Healing.

James: Okay. So really I should be saying that currently it's the end of one phase of the Rebellion and Default, not the complete end of it because the Evil Ones have gone.

Zarria: Technically, that's right, however for your purposes saying it's the End is what people will want to hear. And it is the End of the phase with the Evil Ones in control, and the start of the phase with humanity at least in control of its own destiny, that which you are to also help people awaken to: Do you want to keep the Rebellion going within yourself, and as a whole; or do you want to end it in yourself and end your part in it. People need to be given the choice, and although few will want to start doing their Healing, enough will so as to gain a foothold in the Aftertimes, because as you understand, the two ways, The New Way and the Old Way, which will be modified into a New Old Way because of the influence of the Law of Compensation as Zarrion was telling you yesterday, are to be lived together on Earth as they are in the Mansion Worlds.

James: Ok. So humanity going it alone in the Rebellion and Default without the overarching Evil Ones, is to live it within the 'protection' of the Law of Compensation, all to ensure that people and the mind spirits have the ability to live their rebelliousness freely, and not heavily conditioned and controlled by a few people or spirits.

Zarria: Yes. So as the world currently is, as you said, the Rebellion and Default are really the expression of a few, they are dictating the state of affairs with everyone else having to comply with them, which is how it was with the Evil Ones. But now with the Evil Ones gone and with the hidden controllers soon to be gone because of the effects of the Law of Compensation, humanity, each individual person, will be free to live the rebellion on their own terms. And yes, admittedly, they will still get a bit of a helping hand, having to comply within the boundaries of the Law, but still will be freer to largely do as they please, which will be for the good of all in their rebelliousness, so people will be free to express their negative state however they want.

Most people have to pay for their education, being burdened with debt, so imagine if all education was free, people could go and learn whatever they wanted, be in university their whole lives if that's what they enjoyed doing, and without the pressure of having to make money from their degree to pay off their debt. Imagine if people were free not to work, to completely indulge in the earthly equivalent of Sex World in the first Mansion World. Imagine if people were free to pursue their creative and artist desires without the need of having to work another job to make ends meet, or trying to be a successful artist as defined by making money to live from your art. Imagine being free to play music in bands forevermore and without any need to make money, so taking money out of the equation of how you live life. People growing food and helping each other build houses and whatever is needed, freely, willingly, because they wanted to do that, and not because they or someone has to do it. That being, as you understand, how it is in the Mansion Worlds, only the spirits don't have to worry about growing food for survival.

So people being free to be on perpetual holiday if that's what they want, free to do as they please. And you might think everyone would selfishly suit themselves, and everything will collapse as no one wants to work, and many people will just become self-indulgent in their own habits and addictions, however even these people, along with everyone else, will quickly come to realise that if they want all the things they want, they'll have to put in and help the whole, working voluntarily so as to maintain their freedom of doing what they want. So, everyone will voluntarily want to work to help everyone else, and so a new order is established in which everyone ends up being accommodated, with people changing and wanting to do some work to help themselves, each other, and the whole.

MONEY FREE COMMUNITY

James: So the world becomes like one huge commune, or lots of smaller ones all working united together.

Zarria: Yes, in a way. And as it's to be such a big adjustment, and too much to suddenly be imposed on the whole world as it is, so it will work alongside the Sun Nova and Pole Reversal, whereby the majority of people are removed from the world, so those left being in such upheaval, will work to establish their new old way of living from a more basic start, all keeping in harmony with the Law of Compensation.

James: That makes sense. So the Divine Minister is going to give everyone a taste of the Law just before the Reversal, it being a reversal in more ways than one.

Zarria: Yes, which will show everyone that things are being taken out of their hands, that God is really in control, and giving everyone who is not a power hungry controller –

James: I don't mind if you say – arsehole.

Zarria: Your word James, not mine. – a good feeling of liberation and new freedom. Which will also prepare them for their sudden death with the Nova and arrival in their newfound world of freedom in the first Mansion World.

James: Well that all makes sense, if indeed it's going to be as you say. Having adjusted my mind, I can see what you're getting at, it is fair, I guess, that everyone should be allowed to freely express their rebelliousness how they want. We are free to rebel, or at least the higher spirits were before Mary and Jesus ended that ability by bestowing themselves on Earth. It's hard being of it and feeling so bad and so powerless all the time in my life, and wanting it all to end completely, wanting everyone to wake up to the horror we're all living and do their Healing. But I guess, as you say, it's fair, and needs to be fully lived and expressed, so humanity will move on to a phase that allows that to happen, which I can only see could happen with the Law of Compensation in place.

Zarria: It might happen through natural evolution of the Rebellion and Default on Earth, however as it's never happened on any rebellious world, we don't know. And we won't know now, because you are here with Marion and so will end this phase. By your coming, the Law of Compensation has to be earthed, that too you've not seen or understood. It's not that you are going to do it because that's what the Mother and Father want, I mean, it is that too, but the Law is to be earthed because that's what happens on a rebellious world when the Avonal Pair bestow themselves on it. Mary and Jesus didn't initiate the Law on Earth, only in the spirit worlds, so the Avonals by attending to all the material worlds, initiate it upon their full bestowal. So the Avonals are saying, that way as it is now is over, and a new expression of the Rebellion and Default is to begin, that being overseen by the Law of Compensation.

So that changes your view of it for yourself and their relationship with the Divine Minister, doesn't it?

James: Yes, it does. So it's a done deal, and they don't have a say in it.

Zarria: Yes. Only they will want it to be earthed because they can see the awful restrictions imposed further on everyone by having the hidden controllers running the world. They don't want everyone to keep living in fear and having to put poison into their body under the guise of a vaccine that's going to protect them from a slight flu virus. They hate all you and everyone is being subjected to by the controlling few, and so they will be more than willing to work with the Divine Minister and earth the Law. And even if that means, as you now understand, sending humanity off down another track outworking the Rebellion and Default more truly. Even in your evilness James, you feel within yourself, as you'd have liked it more for yourself, to have been given an equal and free chance of being wrong and evil, even though you hate it all. You want equality, so even in the Wrongness everyone should be able to be equally wrong and free in their rebelliousness. So, as much as you hate the whole Rebellion and Default, you do at least agree that everyone should be able to be free in it if that's what they want.

James: Yes, you're right, I do. I would have liked to have been freer in it, even though I would have hated all the wrong I might have done when I came to do my Healing. But still, as you say, we all want to be free, even if we're making things worse for ourselves.

Hmm, well thank you Zarria, you've expanded my mind, more to think about. I'll go now and make lunch, and come back to you later if other things occur to me to ask you about.

Zarria: As always James, it's my pleasure – both Zarrion's and mine, as he's here with me now with you. And yes, please keep asking us all you want, and we'll tell you what we can at the time in accordance with your soul needs.

James: Thank you both. I'll talk to you in my mind no doubt whilst making the lunch.

Later:

James: So, because the Avonal pair comes bringing with them the Law of Compensation, it means the evilness as it is can't continue. So if the Avonals don't come, there is no way for the evilness as it currently exists to be used by the New World Order to try and create their version of peace on Earth for themselves through full control, because it won't work.

Zarria: That's right. So far as Earth is concerned, evil so far as having main controllers controlling the masses, has run its course, it's coming to an end, there has been two hundred thousand years of it, and over all that time, the controllers have never managed to give up their control like they will have to when the Law is earthed. So you can't say humanity hasn't had a good go of it, and so looking back at history, the dream of the New World Order being able to reign supreme on the world, is a fantasy of those controllers, with or without the arrival of the Avonal pair.

All everyone dreams about whilst being in their negative states, is as you know James, nothing more than a fantasy. So it's time the Mother and Father take the next step. In theory they could have allowed the Age of Mary and Jesus to continue longer, however obviously there would be no real value in that, and a lot against it seeing now where humanity's controllers are taking the genetic manipulation side of things. It was bad enough for you to develop nuclear weapons to be used against people, but you managed to live with that, so now to introduce such genetic manipulation into food, insects, other plants and animals, and now humans, is the big no, no. That is pushing the boundaries of your evilness too far, and so because of that you're bringing about the end of your evilness in this phase of denying the truths of Mary and Jesus.

No one on the world is able to live truth and have a positive effect upon those persisting in living untruth by controlling everything to suit themselves. So the hidden controllers well and truly have the upper hand. Putin is to a small degree testing how far he can go to wrest some control from some of the hidden controllers, but only so as to give more control to those people he favours. He is more concerned with the welfare of his people, however he could still do a lot more for them with all the natural resources he has; but then again, that becomes increasingly difficult with the encroachment of the West always wanting to unseat him and ruin Russian taking all the booty for themselves.

And with the controllers knowing the Reversal and Nova is coming, and knowing certain lands will be very uninhabitable, and so it's who gets to live and who gets to die according to the plans of the Controllers. So it's coming down to a fight for survival for Russia's people, not that they understand the forces arrayed against them, however so far they are loyal to Putin.

There is no leader who is right and true, everyone one of them is in it for themselves and wanting to impart their own vision and control the people under them, however for you James, and at least on the surface of it, Putin talks his mind and it sounds reasonable. And he's trying to do things, at least up until now, within the law, whereas the Americans and Europeans have no such conscience about breaking the rules they made when it suits them, being full of hypocrisy and not seeming to care who thinks badly of them.

So, it will continue to become more complex, and the run up to the final End Times as so many of the Controllers believe, has to be a final reckoning before their age of peace can be implemented and their religious Saviours come to lead them into it. All of which will never happen!

ANGELS CONTINUING

James: Hello... Zarrria.

Zarrria: Yes James, Zarrion is not with me, he has to attend a meeting with the Melchizedeks concerning you and our work, which is really, our relationship with you. We make a report on our work with you, make suggestions for them to consider based on our observations, and they advise us on anything we need to know and take into account concerning you. Zarrion usually attends such meetings, I prefer remaining close to you.

James: Do you like me?

Zarrria: Yes, very much, we both love you, we've loved you since conception with our love for you growing over the years of our service to you.

James: As no doubt you're aware, I'm very revolting being all of my evilness, seeing how disconnected I am, and how I wrongly believed I was connected with mum and everyone else, but it was only connected in my disconnectedness, which is all so fucked, and so I can't be with anyone else like Marion shows me I should be, how she is, so even with you and Zarrion.

Zarrria: I understand James, all of which is perfect as that's what you have to see: the truth of you being untrue, so unable to truly connect, express and so relate to anyone. It's good, as bad as it is for you waking up and realising it about yourself. It makes us feel good, seeing you coming alive, and ironically, becoming even more true and connected to your disconnected state, understanding and feeling it, knowing it's how you are and you not rejecting it, just accepting you are as bad and wrong and evil as you are... because that's how you are, how the Mother and Father have made you be.

James: Yes. And then I'm trying to express all the bad feelings that come up about seeing the truth of how disconnected and false I am.

Can you tell me, or give me an example of what Zarrion and you might talk with the Melchizedeks about? And is it Zelmar and Zelmarnia you go and see?

Zarrria: No, it's other Melchizedeks you've not met. There are a lot of groups of twelve soul-pairs of them overseeing the Earth and the seven Mansion Worlds and relevant planes of Earth and each Mansion World. We go to a specific group that are solely dealing with us and Marion's Angel pair. Zarrion goes with the 'male' Angel of Marion, they being together today. We do a lot with Marion's pair, as you and Marion spend so much time together and need our working with you both in unison.

Some of the things we talk about are where you are up to in your growth of truth. The Melchizedeks give us what you might call a 'game plan' and truth 'itinerary' so we know what truth you should be seeing at any given time, and all in accordance with what adjustments we're making in your auric system.

Specifically, Zarrion will be saying how well the adjustment we made on you the other day when you felt that pain suddenly come into the back of your chest, it moving through your back and upper lung area during the night, then it suddenly going in the morning, and how that was deep repressed anger we helped liberate within you, which came into your whole being later that next night, when you felt so out of sorts and angry. And then being the anger and working it through, expressing it all, and seeing the truth from it you were to see, which you saw. That being one small example of our manipulation within your aura to help you bring up more repressed feelings for you to embrace and accept and uncover the truth of, a rather perfect example of doing your Healing as you advocate in your writings.

So we move along with you and the Melchizedeks as you progress. They might tell us to look out for a certain element of truth which needs more mind explanation, so we are then tasked with working with your Indwelling Spirit to help you understand a little more about some aspect of the truth of all you're going through, or the truth of yourself, just as I was able to write with you during our last message when I shed more light on the earthing of the Law of Compensation.

LAW OF COMPENSATION

Zarrion and I don't as such make the decisions as to what we can and can't tell you, and how much we should when we can. We do, because of our close experience with you, have a certain idea, but it's not our place being Angels to interfere directly with you. So we look to the Melchizedeks for such guidance. So, they show us what needs to be emphasised more, what needs more information given, all to help expand your conscious awareness of yourself and the truth that's coming to light within you. It was Zarrion and I that gave you a little extra light that made you want to write with us the last couple of days, and even now, so we could then impart more information which the Melchizedeks wanted us to give to you. So we constantly have a lot to do with them. And we go to them, they don't leave the Celestial spheres, and we like that, as it gives us other things to do. And then often there are other high spirits or Angels that want to know about our experiences with you and Marion and all that's happening, and all that has happened, so we have interviews and spend time imparting our memory records, those of all you've experienced and how you felt about it all, and those of our own experiences of you.

And then we might be called up to report in with other higher Angels, but that's not happening for Zarrion this time. This time is just a routine visit with the Melchizedeks. When we are with them, it's always with their whole soul-group, as they are all just as actively involved with overseeing your life James.

James: It seems strange having so many Angels and Spirits focused on me when I'm so fucked, and really, who'd want to know.

Zarrion: James, it is a major event, your's and Marion's bestowal, and it commands a lot of attention. Every mind circuit you work through in your Healing requires a major understanding and adjustment, it affecting the whole mind circuitry of Earth. And you have no idea how many spirits and Angels are involved with you personally and impersonally. Every bit of truth progression you live through your Healing affects the whole Earth, everyone on it and so all their attending Angels, along with the whole of the Rebellion and Default in Nebadon. It's a major event: your's and Marion's Earth bestowal; your time in the Rebellion and Default, and now with both of you working to heal yourselves of it; the End Times of Mary's and Jesus' Age coming to fruition; the coming Nova and Pole Reversal on the world; the beginning of the next Age and Aftertimes with your's and Marion's Spirits of Truth; all what the Teacher Pairs are to do so far as educating those of The New Way; the whole earthing of the Law of Compensation and so preparation of many people on Earth having to start doing their hell-time; together with the whole introduction of all your work, your truth and understanding; and the people who are meant to wake up, and how they go about it, and then those who will resist it, and how they go about that. So a complete change of life from how it's been on Earth these past two hundred thousand years, bringing it into alignment with the Mansion Worlds.

And then with people actually embracing your truth and starting their Healing. And then organising where everyone has to be at the Nova time, who is going to die and who will remain, and where they are going to live. And so the whole changing of the negative mind circuits of the Rebellion and Default into bringing alongside them the positive ones, all what's involved with the Divine Minister. And then what all the Melchizedeks are doing having to accommodate and prepare the healed Celestial spirits for all of this, how involved the Celestials are in it all, all of which has been completely unheard of in Nebadon, so it all being new and really with only the guiding Melchizedeks knowing about it and where it's all to go. And then your's and Marion's personal lives, and the effects you have on other people and the mind circuitry as a whole... yes, I guess you could say things are almost a little chaotic to say the least!

There's a lot happening James, and all because of you and Marion. And you sit on your couch feeling bored and wondering 'what the fuck is happening' as you attend to a few bad feelings and see a little more truth, and yet a massive amount is happening on the unseen levels.

And then the whole of Nebadon wants constant updates, everyone – spirits and Angels alike, are fascinated with the whole Rebellion and Default; and now all your's and Marion's effect within it; how the ending of this phase of it is going, and especially following on from Mary and Jesus, and how humanity is corrupting and still rejecting all their truth; and how you and Marion are having to sort out all the confusion and misinformation, bringing it into the light and living it the right way in your mind's understanding. Spiritually, it's a massive change, even bigger locally than when Mary and Jesus came to the world, because it does involve the actual hands on truth of the Healing being revealed and potentially people wanting to do it. Mary's and Jesus' bestowal was a huge thing for the whole of Nebadon, and now your bestowal is a huge thing for the Earth and this little part of the universe.

And even Zarrion's and my relationship with you James, a regular Angelic pair being so intimately involved with an Avonal pair, helping you embrace and then end the Rebellion and Default within yourselves, it's all huge, momentous, and incredibly thrilling, and hasn't been experienced before. It's not another average day in the life of regular universal proceedings.

James: And then John up there on the Gold Coast having to deal with it all...

Zarrion: Yes, it being incredible seeing how he does cope and wants all you give him, even though some of it is testing for his mind. And then all he wants to do with the money, and all the Celestials behind the scenes involved in that, and they also, along with us Angels, involved in all the people who are going to be involved directly and indirectly with you and what John wants to do.

Mary and Jesus had a few thousand people involved with them, a very small percentage of people alive at that time. You potentially are to reach everyone on the world, although it won't work out like that, but so far as everyone's Angels will be concerned, along with their Indwelling Spirits, it will be like that. And for you via the Law of Compensation to end the whole power controlling regime the world over, bringing all those controlling people to heel, ending it and their systems, governmental, business and monetary, it's going to be a vast shock to the way of things. And yet for the controlled, it will all work in their favour. Certainly some of the regular people will do hell-time, but really for the average person, they will feel new life being breathed into their lungs, they being free to be in their rebellious states without all the fear and insecurity that currently exists. For them to slowly come to understand that they are being supported by God, even in their rebelliousness, will be a whole revelation unto itself. So, everyone will be forced to reassess their life, just as they would have done once they died and arrived in the first world. Only upon death, death itself being such a big change, a massive upheaval, causes most New Arrivals to accept the new way of things in the mind worlds, particularly as they discover the way of things doesn't involve money and wealth accumulation for power. But being used to one way of life on Earth, and then having such a great change forced on you, it will take a lot of adjusting.

James: That made me think of teaching some people about it so they can work out ways to help other people adjust.

Zarrion: Yes, and other things will come to you too in preparation.

James: My only concern about all of this is, it would be all very well as simply a part of humanity's way of how things currently are, and with changes being slowly brought about, but if the Law is to come before the Reversal, and that is October 2046 according to Doug Vogt, there's not much time. And no sooner might some people have adjusted to their new way of life, they hardly get time to enjoy or settle into it, as they might die because of the Nova.

Zarria: It's simply how it is James. You still see it being a huge difference, like a huge jump, between life on Earth and life on the first mind world, however superficially it might be, but on a feelings and spiritual level, it's not a big change. Your mind requires some adjustment to the way of things, but that's not really any different from travelling to a foreign country that has a very unfamiliar culture, but it doesn't take you long to settle in and find your way around. So, the changes people will make during the short remaining time they have on Earth, will help them better prepare for their mind world arrival. And that's the whole point of it, to have the death experience being even more of a seamless transition than it currently is. So people can more easily pick up and continue their mind way of life, or for that matter, their Healing way of life, once they come into spirit.

As you understand, the spirits in the Mansion Worlds have to go through a death-sleep to move up in worlds, and each world is of higher vibration and slightly different and another whole new world, so it takes a little time adjusting between each transition, and really that's how it should be between Earth and the mind worlds. A death-sleep and then a short adjustment time in the first world. For people currently it seems like such a big scaring change, because you don't believe in life continuing on in the spirit worlds, let alone KNOW IT TO BE TRUE, and that you are looking forward to a whole new beginning.

James: Yes, I see what you're saying.

EXPERIENCES, FEELINGS and TRUTH:

We look into the night sky and see around 1,000 stars that possibly are the hosts to the 619 humanities of our local system, Satania. Earth is on the outskirts of Satania.

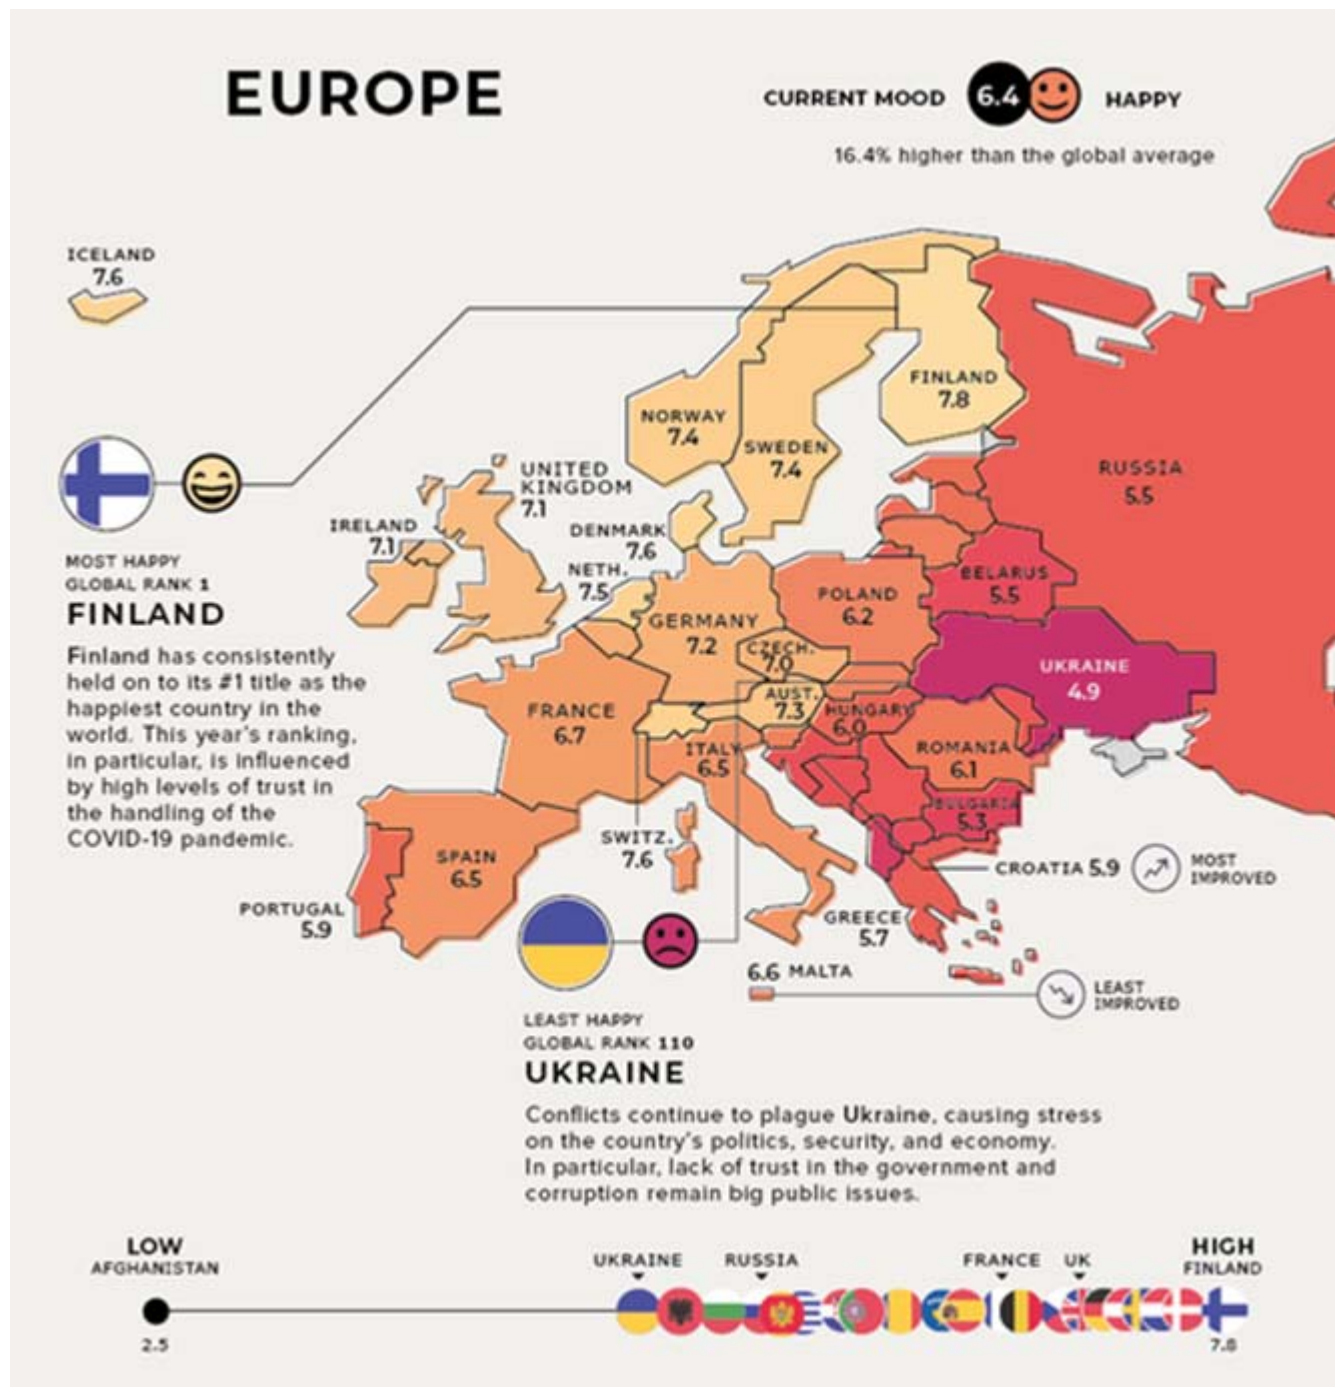

When we 'die', and shed our physical body as we are spirits having a physical experience, we all arrive on the 1st spirit Mansion World.

If we continue to live through our minds, then we may progress to worlds 2, 4 then 6 and no further – dead end!

Should we embrace Feeling Healing with Divine Love, we will start our journey of Truth and Love, progressing through Healing Mansion Worlds 3, 5 and 7, then through the Celestial Heavens and onwards out through our Local Universe of Nebadon and on to Paradise, the home of our Heavenly Parents.

The spirit worlds are within a different dimension to the physical stars and earths. However, picturing the spirit worlds within the centre of our local system is only a visualisation aid and not necessarily accurate.

GLOBAL FAKE NEWS

There are two areas that humanity is not to go:

1: Weapons of mass destruction - particularly nuclear.

2. Modifying genes - both of human and of nature.

Messenger RNA (mRNA) is a single-stranded RNA molecule that is complementary to one of the DNA strands of a gene.

It is incomprehensible that 'experimental' mRNA vaccines are being given to women carrying a child and to children who are at more risk from the vaccines than they are of the disease which the vaccine is supposed to be addressing.

Data progressively compiling is revealing that girls are having their menstrual cycles disrupted, boys are experiencing heart issues and that miscarriages are at unprecedented rates.

Long term prognosis is the combination of these side effects, and others, will globally reduce Earth's population by in excess of a billion and require for generations to come to address the health issues, all of which has been pre-warned from numerous sources – now becoming a reality with the people of all nations submitting pregnant women and children to vaccination without investigation or questioning.

What Does It Mean To Denazify Ukraine?

The Timeline of a Coup D'Etat

12 March 2022

Fire, smoke and protesters on Maidan square in Kiev. February 22, 2014. SPUTNIK / ANDREY STENIN

Written by Piero Messina

Why is Russian President Putin talking about “denazifying” Ukraine? It is necessary to reconstruct the last ten years of the history of that country to understand how politics, shows and military formations of Kiev have been assembled, step by step, towards a unique project, a project that feeds on Nazi fanaticism. It is a true story, which even the Western media have told in the past but today they brand it as fake news. Oligarchs, showmen and military leaders have brought the Ukrainian people under a government that is openly inspired by National Socialist dogma.

First of all, a step back in history: during the Second World War the Nazis and the Ukrainian Nazi gangs of Stepan Bandera killed 1.6 million Jews. Today Stepan Bandera is celebrated in Ukraine as a national hero. The Nazi-inspired military formations are part of the Ukrainian National Army and their pennants often depict the face of Stepan Bandera. As the Wiesental centre noted, from the end of the Second World War to the present day, not one of the Ukrainian Nazi war criminals has ever been prosecuted.

2011, Burisma Group

Since 2011, the match between Kiev and Washington has been played on oil, gas and dollars. Burisma Group, a Ukrainian energy company, keeps a low profile. Burisma is an oil and gas company that has been operating on the Ukrainian market since 2002. The head office is located in Limassol, Cyprus. The company holds 20 licenses for hydrocarbon production in all major Ukrainian oil and gas basins. This company was founded by Mykola Zlochevsky who sold Burisma to Igor Kolomoisky's Privatbank group in 2011. In April 2014, Hunter Biden, son of the current US president, joins the Burisma board of directors. Biden Jr, who doesn't speak a single word of Ukrainian and has no idea about the oil business, is guaranteed a salary of $50,000 a month. As of April 2014, Burisma's board of directors was made up of at least 6 members: 2 Ukrainians and 3 Americans 1 Polish. Anzelika Pasenidou and Riginos Kharalambus directly represented Kolomoisky. The others were David Apter, Devon Archer and Hunter Biden, the youngest son of then US Vice President Joe Biden. Hunter Biden joined the Burisma board in April 2014. Peter Flaherty, president of the National Legal and Policy Center, (NLPC) a US government oversight group said, "Even though there was no conspiracy or coordination between the two, Hunter Biden was clearly in Kolomoisky's network". Ukraine's Attorney General Viktor Shokin will open an investigation into Burisma's accounts and salaries paid to the board of directors. At an event at the Council on Foreign Relations in New York in 2018, Biden seemed to boast about it, saying that during a visit to Kyiv – likely in December 2015 – he told Ukrainian officials: "We're leaving in six hours. If the prosecutor's not fired, you're not getting the money." "Well, son of a bitch," Biden continued. "He got fired." Shokin was indeed fired, but not until March that year.

Another council member becomes Aleksander Kwasniewski, former president of Poland. Under his presidency, Poland first joined NATO in 1999 and then joined the European Union (EU) in 2004. Former Polish President Aleksander Kwasniewski acknowledged in 2014 that his country left the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) of the United States operated a secret prison on its territory after 9/11. The European Court of Human Rights ruled in July 2014 that Poland had allowed the CIA to torture al-Qaeda suspects in a secret detention center in 2002 and 2003, when Kwasniewski was president.

February 2014

Coup d'etat in Kiev. The change of regime is caused by the clashes in Euromaidan square. Nazi-inspired paramilitary formations also participate in the combat. Among these there is also the Azov battalion: after the change of government it will be integrated into the Ukrainian army.

Regime change in Kiev is favoured by interference in Ukrainian internal affairs in Washington, Warsaw, Berlin, Paris and London. The Russian-European border has once again become a line of friction that highlights rival sides on the verge of entering a collision course. Albania, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Slovakia, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Poland, the Baltic States have already joined NATO. Russia is surrounded.

In early March 2014, US President Barack Obama issued an executive order stating that anyone who challenged the legitimacy of the new Ukrainian government was subject to US sanctions, including US citizens.

May 2014

The US approves the “Russian Aggression Prevention Act of 2014” which authorises the President to provide direct military assistance to Ukraine worth $ 100 million, including anti-tank and anti-aircraft weapons and small arms, based on a needs assessment and the capabilities of the Ukrainian armed forces. It also encourages intelligence sharing with Ukraine. The law provides for the recognition of Ukraine, Georgia and Moldova as “Major Non-NATO Allies”, effectively equating them to Alliance members.

George Soros

The role of George Soros

In May 2014, three months after the Kiev coup, George Soros revealed to CNN reporter Fareed Zakaria that he was responsible for setting up a foundation in Ukraine that contributed to the coup against President Viktor Yanukovich and the establishment of a US-backed junta:

“I created a foundation in Ukraine before the country became independent from Russia. This foundation has continued to operate and has played an important role in recent events,” Soros explained.

The role of the Azov Battalion

The unit was formally founded by Andriy Biletsky in May 2014. But Biletsky acts in a context of continuity having been the leader of both the Patriot of Ukraine (founded in 2005) and the SNA (founded in 2008). The SNA is known for carrying out armed attacks, murders, violence and terrorist acts. In 2010, Biletsky claimed that Ukraine’s national purpose was “to lead the white races of the world in a final crusade ... against Semitic-led Untermenschen [the lesser races].” The Azov Battalion is the only neo-Nazi-inspired military unit framed in a regular army in the world.

Ukrainian patriots from “Azov” battalion are ready for Eurointegration

It was privately funded, together with the far-right Pravy Sektor party, by Igor Kolomoisky (credited with triple citizenship with Ukrainian, Cypriot and Israeli passport), a billionaire energy magnate and then governor of the Dnipropetrovska region. Igor Kolomoisky was the owner of one of the largest Ukrainian financial institutions – PrivatBank. Kolomoisky financed the killing of every Russian-speaking pro-independence fighter in Donbas with $10,000 in bounty (Kolomoisky was governor of a district) and was subsequently pursued by a war crimes arrest warrant issued by the Russian authorities. Kolomoisky was only one of the main financiers of the neo-Nazi Azov battalion and the Ukrainian neo-Nazi party Pravyj Sektor but he would also have financed the neo-Nazi volunteer battalions Aidar, Donbas, Dnepr 1, Dnepr 2 and Carpathian Sich

March 2014

Begins his activity in Ukraine. On March 3 Brigadier General Joel Harding, a thirty-year career behind him in the American secret services, just a few days ago was appointed director of the NATO NSE Strategy Centre for Ukraine. Harding wrote the white paper on which the US military’s cyber defence doctrine is based, pioneered the field of cyber warfare, developed NSA means and methods. Its task is the management of the IIO (Inform and Influence Operations) which consist in developing communication activities capable of making “the public think and act in a way that is favourable to the objectives of the mission”. This is done through the application of perception management techniques that target the emotions, motivations and reasoning of the public. A schedule that could explain Zelensky’s journey from TV star who plays “The good president” to “effective president”

May 2014

The Azov unit is formed as a military group of volunteers by the ultra-nationalist Patriot of Ukraine gang and the neo-Nazi group of the National Social Assembly (SNA). Both groups engaged in xenophobic and neo-Nazi ideals and physically assaulted migrants, the Roma community and people who opposed their political views.

November 2014

The Azov Battalion is officially integrated into the National Guard of Ukraine. It is the only openly neo-Nazi military unit framed in a regular army in the world. The main financier of Azov Battalion is Igor Kolomoisky.

November 2014

The United Nations General Assembly approves a motion presented by Russia condemning the attempts to glorify Nazi ideology and the consequent denial of war crimes committed by Nazi Germany, including the Holocaust. Only three votes against: United States, Ukraine and Canada. Europe abstains. The resolution also noted and condemned the increase in racist attacks around the world and proposed universally applying the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination, adopted at the UN in 1969 but never actually applied by the signatory states. The votes registered 115 votes in favour, 3 against and 55 abstentions. The United States, Canada and Ukraine opposed this resolution, while abstentions came mainly from EU countries (including Italy) and some North African countries.

December 2014

The Ukrainian parliament renounces Ukraine's non-aligned country status by stating that the previous non-aligned status "has proved ineffective in ensuring Ukraine's security" and has decided to deepen Ukrainian cooperation with NATO "in order to achieve the criteria required for membership in the alliance".

2015

Dmytro Yarosh, then leader of the neo-Nazi "right sector" party, was appointed military adviser to Colonel General Viktor Muzhenko, then Ukrainian chief of staff. Yarosh is the commander of the paramilitary branch of the Right Sector, the Ukrainian Voluntary Army, which has never come under government control.

April 2015

In Yavoriv, Ukraine, Ukrainian President Petro Poroshenko and US Ambassador to Ukraine Geoffrey Pyatt are present at the start of combined training between American soldiers and Ukrainian National Guard troops. Numerous military exercises between NATO members and Ukraine were planned in 2015. Among these were Operation Fearless Guardian (2,200 participants in total, including 1,000 US troops). The training centre is the Yavoriv Training Centre, near Lviv, under the responsibility of the 7th Army Training Command of the United States, based in Grafenwoehr, Germany. The goal is to transform Ukrainian ground forces from Soviet doctrine to Western doctrine in order to meet NATO standards. The forces for this initiative are usually deployed by the United States Army National Guard. Initially, support was provided by the 173rd Airborne Brigade, as it was based in the European Theatre. Upon completion of the first rotation, the 173rd Airborne was replaced by elements from the California National Guard and 3rd Infantry Division.

April 2015

Personnel and equipment from the 173rd Airborne Brigade arrive in Yavoriv, in the Lviv oblast, on the border with Poland, to launch the "Fearless Guardian" operation. The Fearless Guardian is reported to have trained the fledgling Ukrainian National Guard (INCLUDING THE AZOV BATTLE) under the Congress-approved "Global Contingency Security Fund". Under the program, the United States was to train three battalions of Ukrainian troops over a six-month period between April and October 2015. Colonel Nick Ducich, commander of the 79th Combat Squad of the California National Guard Infantry Brigade, agreed. is deployed in Ukraine with 54 instructors to train Ukrainian ground forces. Ducich headed the Joint Multinational Training Group-Ukraine, (JMTG-U), in Yavoriv for 14 months. The California National Guard, troops from 6th Squadron, 8th Cavalry Regiment and 2nd Brigade Combat Team of the 3rd Infantry Division of Fort Stewart, Georgia, and multinational partners also participated in the training operations of Canada, Lithuania, Poland and Great Britain.

US funding

Since the outbreak of fighting in 2014, 2015 and 2016, the United States has committed $266 million in training and equipment to help Ukrainian forces secure the border and operate more effectively. NATO sources reported in 2021 that US-led JMTG-U troops had trained over 20,000 troops for Army Force Ukraine so far.

Zelenskii as the Servant of the People

Zelensky's climb

In 2015, the 1 + 1 TV channel began broadcasting "Sluha Narodu", "Servant of the People", the TV serial with which Zelensky began the rise to power that will make him, as an actor, president. The owner of the television network is Igor Kolomoisky. The San Tommaso srl real estate is based in Cantù in Italy, whose total shares have been held since 2015 by the Cypriot company Aldorante Limited, owned by Zelensky. Sole director of the real estate whose only assets, as revealed by the Ukrainian investigative journalism organisation Slidstvo, appear to be a luxurious 15-room villa in Forte dei Marmi. The administrator is the 44-year-old Ukrainian Ivan Bakanov, friend, partner and future coordinator (2019) of Zelensky's electoral campaign who, after taking office, will appoint him head of the state security services.

2016

In October 2016, Andriy Biletsky (Azov Battalion) founded the far-right National Corps party, whose main base is Azov veterans.

Throughout the year at the Yavoriv Combat Training Centre, on a rotating basis, units of the US National Guard continued the training of the Ukrainian military in order to adapt the Kiev troops to NATO compatibility.

2017

The training of the Ukrainian military continues in order to adapt the Kiev troops to NATO compatibility in Ukraine. The 45th Combat Team of the Oklahoma National Guard Infantry Brigade replaced the 79th Combat Team of the California National Guard Infantry Brigade at the Yavoriv Combat Training Centre.

October 2017

After specific training at Fort Bliss, Texas, the unit, consisting mainly of soldiers from the 2nd Squadron, 101st Cavalry based in Niagara Falls, arrived in Ukraine to take over from the 200 departing members of the 45th Guard. Oklahoma Army National Infantry Brigade Combat Team.

November 2017

Since November 2017, soldiers from the Syracuse-based 27th Brigade have been serving in Ukraine to help train and mentor Ukrainian army units. The New York soldiers are part of the Joint Multinational Training Group – Ukraine, known as JMTG-U.

National Druzhyna

2018

In January 2018, Azov launched its road patrol unit called National Druzhyna, a kind of neo-Nazi military police, to “restore” order in the capital, Kiev. Instead, the unit carried out pogroms against the Roma community and attacked members of the LGBTQ community, anti-fascist militants and human rights activists. Ukraine is the only nation in the world to have a neo-Nazi background in its military and police forces.

The Centuria Group is born

Centuria is an organisation made up of cadets and alumni of the Academy that describes itself as an elitist “military order” and has expressed the goal of reshaping the Ukrainian army along far-right ideological lines. Academy cadets and graduate officers who are part of this organisation add the white supremacist symbols Sonnenkreuz (Celtic Cross) and Wolfsangel (or Doppelhaken) to their insignia.

The Wolfsangel, in addition to being the symbol of the Azov Battalion, was widely used in Nazi Germany. It was the symbol of various Nazi military organisations and units, including the 2nd SS

Panzer Division “Das Reich”, the 4th Panzergrenadier Division of the SS Police, the 34th SS Volunteer Grenadiers Division “Landstorm Nederland”, the Nazi guerrilla movement “Werewolf”, as well as a number of Wehrmacht units and the Wehrmacht’s “ People’s Charity ”. The display of these symbols has the function of creating a patriotic aristocratic scale among the officers. The slogan of the Centuria organisation is “Virtus et Honestas”.

March 2018, Zelensky from TV to politics

The political party “Servant of the People” is born, a name “copied-pasted” from the name of Zelensky’s show on Kolomoisky’s TV. Throughout the year at the Yavoriv Combat Training centre, on a rotating basis, units of the US National Guard continued the training of the Ukrainian military in order to adapt the Kiev troops to NATO compatibility.

January 2019

Soldiers from the 278th Armoured Cavalry Regiment of the Tennessee Army National Guard at the Yavoriv Combat Training Centre were “actively involved” in assisting military training, base renovations, multinational relations and “To raise awareness of the community”.

April 2019

Zelensky is elected president. After years of exile, first in Israel then in Geneva, to escape the investigation into the bankruptcy of Privabank and money laundering, Zelensky’s victory means for Kolomoisky, owner of the channel that broadcasts the TV series that made Zelensky famous and created his party , the possibility of returning home. Zelensky’s first act on his first day as president of Ukraine was to appoint Andriy Bohdan, a lawyer and close friend of Igor Kolomoisky, as his cabinet chief. That is, he placed him at the head of his presidential administration. (In office until 11 February 2020). The second act is the appointment of Ivan Bakanov, a friend and partner in the administration of his offshore companies, as head of the security services. They are his people of absolute trust.

April 2021

A march was organised by the far right in central Kiev to honour the Nazi military unit that harks back to the acclaimed national hero war criminal SS Bandera. The President of Ukraine Volodymyr Zelensky condemned it via his official website, without however taking any concrete measures within the armed forces.

December 2021 Ukraine and NATO

Between 20 and 30 December 2021, NATO's Combined Resolve XVI international military manoeuvres took place in Germany in Hohenfels, Bavaria. Thousands of NATO troops participated but also troops, which should not have been there: those of Ukraine which, of NATO, are not and should not be part of. Purpose of the exercise? "To test the capabilities of the United States and its allied forces, including Ukraine, on their ability to work in a joint and multinational environment against adversaries."

This was the most advanced training phase following years of activity of NATO's Joint Multinational Training Group-Ukraine. On the pitch men and vehicles from the United States, Italy, Ukraine, United Kingdom, Slovakia, Serbia, Lithuania, Greece, Bulgaria and Poland. How to be surprised by the Russian reaction? "10 days to recreate the battlefield without any break," said 1st Sergeant Patrick Flanagan, senior observer at the Joint Multinational Readiness Centre.

"From start to finish you are completely immersed in this operational environment."

The exercise was handled by the Joint Multinational Readiness centre, the only US Army combat training centre located outside the United States. A centre that provides mobile training capability to the European military and Ukraine and trains leaders, personnel and units up to the level of Brigade Combat Teams, the multinational partners, to dominate in the conduct of Ground Operations anywhere in the world, now and in the future.

Ukraine On Fire

<https://rumble.com/vwxxi8-ukraine-on-fire.html>

Ukraine. Across its eastern border is Russia and to its west-Europe. For centuries, it has been at the centre of a tug-of-war between powers seeking to control its rich lands and access to the Black Sea. 2014's Maidan Massacre triggered a bloody uprising that ousted president Viktor Yanukovich and painted Russia as the perpetrator by Western media. But was it? "Ukraine on Fire" by Igor Lopatonok..

ALL HELL WILL BREAK LOOSE FOR HUMANITY

We are now at the end of an era of economic and moral decadence in a debt infested world built on false values, fake money and abysmal leadership. All hell will break loose.

The consequences will be fatal for the world.

There are eras in history which have produced great leaders and thinkers. But sadly, the current era has produced nothing of that kind. The end of an economic cycle produces no great leadership or statesmanship but only incompetent leaders.

Looking at the Western world, the only notable statesman in the last few decades in my view is Margaret Thatcher, prime minister of the United Kingdom from 1979 to 1990.

But political leaders are of course instruments of their time. Sadly times as the current don't produce Superior Men and Women.

As Confucius said:

“The Superior Man thinks always of virtue, the common man thinks of comfort.”

It is the buildup of a massive debt mountain which has given the Western world a false comfort based on false values.

As I have pointed out many times, the US has increased its debt every year since 1930, with a couple of minor exceptions in the 1950s and 1960s. The Clinton surpluses in the late 1990s were fake and in fact deficits.

In history, when there is undue economic pressure, starting wars is popular and often felt necessary. It is convenient to blame the war for the increasing debts.

The Gold Standard was an excellent method for preventing governments to spend money they didn't have. Since money couldn't be printed at will, deficits then had to be financed by settling debts in physical gold.

THE GOLD WINDOW HAS BEEN “TEMPORARILY” CLOSED FOR 50 YEARS

As Nixon in the late 1960s had to meet the US debts to France in gold, he decided in 1971 to close the gold window temporarily. He clearly didn't want to hand all the US gold to de Gaulle. Over 50 years later that gold window is still temporarily closed with fatal consequences for the US and the world.

The chart below shows the exponential growth of US debt since 1971. As we reach the final stages, the debt curve is explosive since 2019.

Creating debts of this magnitude is only possible without the discipline of gold backed currencies.

THE FAT LADY HASN'T SUNG YET

But as I have explained before, the debt explosion is not finished until the fat lady sings. And sadly a lot will happen before she finally sings.

Because like most economic eras, this one will finish with a number of spectacular events, many of which will take place concurrently.

Only a few months ago, Powell and Lagarde were singing from the same hymn sheet about transitory inflation.

But as these Central Bank chiefs prove consistently, they are always wrong. For years they are trying to get inflation to two percent and then, all of a sudden, it is approaching 10% and they don't understand what has hit them.

They haven't even understood that Keynesianism was dead before it started.

Even a monkey would understand that if you print US$10s of trillions and keep interest rates at zero or negative for years, the end result will be spectacular inflation.

Initially we saw unprecedented asset inflation in stocks, bonds and property but it was always clear that the exponential increase in money supply would eventually reach consumer prices.

THE PERFECT STORM

What is coming next is the inevitable perfect storm.

A perfect storm means that everything that can go wrong will go wrong. And that is not just obvious failures in many parts of society but also totally unforeseen consequences.

Let's just look at some of the obvious events that will take place in the next few years:

Financial Markets

Stocks have topped worldwide. The correction currently taking place is likely to end very soon in a devastating decline.

Everyone will get slaughtered when hell breaks loose. Whether investors buy the dip or just hold on to their stocks, they won't understand what has hit them.

Just look at the chart below and the major falls starting in 1973, 1987, 1999, 2007 and 2020. They were all nail biters at the time, but today you can hardly discern many of them on the chart.

For decades every correction has recovered and reached new highs.

But this time WILL BE DIFFERENT, although no one expects it!

Stocks are likely to decline by 75-95% in real terms and not recover for years or maybe decades.

Remember that in 1929, the Dow declined by 90% and that it took 25 years before it recovered in nominal terms. And this time the economic circumstances are exponentially worse.

Bonds have gone up for over 40 years and rates reached zero or negative. Rates have now turned up and we are likely to see interest rates reach at least the 1980 levels of 15-20% and probably higher in a hyperinflationary debt collapse. Many bonds will become worthless and more suitable for framing and hanging on the toilet wall as a reminder for future generations.

Credit markets will come under that same pressure as bond markets with defaulting borrowers, neither in a position to service the debt nor repay it.

Property markets have also reached extremes, fuelled by cheap or free money and unlimited credit at very high leverage. In Europe mortgage rates are around 1%. These negligible and irresponsible financing costs have driven property prices to ridiculous and unsustainable levels.

My first mortgage was in the UK. In 1973 the rate went up to 21% in a high inflation environment!

Today, few borrowers could afford an increase to 3%, never mind 10% or 20% like in the 1970s.

As rates rise, it is absolutely certain that the residential and commercial property markets bubble will implode, leading to major defaults, very high vacancy rates and homelessness.

Governments will initially subsidise these markets by endless money printing, but in the end that will fail too as money dies.

Derivatives are a major financial nuclear bomb that is likely to be a death knell for financial markets. As I wrote in a recent article “Chaos and the triumph of survival”, LINK global derivatives, primarily OTC (over the counter), are most likely in the $2+ quadrillion range.

Every single financial instrument contains a derivative element with massive leverage.

Due to the current volatility in commodity markets, most large commodity trading firms as well as hedge funds are now exposed to margin calls.

For example, many JP Morgan clients are currently under enormous stress in a massively over leveraged market.

So if JP Morgan clients are under stress, this means that JPM and other banks will also be under pressure.

Remember that this is just the beginning of the crisis with more bad news unravelling on a daily basis.

As the derivatives market blows up with counterparties failing, central banks will have to print quadrillions of worthless dollars, paving the way for massive hyperinflation.

Banks & Financial System will clearly be under tremendous pressure initially and eventually totally or partly fail as the above problems unravel.

Governments and central banks will obviously be powerless in this scenario. The rescue of the system in 2008 was just a temporary stay of execution. Global debt has trebled since early this century from $100 trillion to $300 trillion. But remember this is mostly fake money which has created false asset values standing on a foundation of quicksand.

All this is now about to collapse.

NOT JUST AN ECONOMIC & FINANCIAL STORM, BUT ALSO HUMAN HELL

The coming economic and financial crisis will have devastating effects on the world. Here are a few affected areas:

Commodity inflation is guaranteed. For years it has been clear that the long-term commodity cycle was bottoming and a massive surge in commodity prices would start. The cycle had already started to go up well before the Ukraine crisis (invasion of Ukraine by Russia commencing on 24 February 2022), but it is fascinating how events fall into place in order to create the perfect storm. I covered some of this in my previous article "A Global Monetary & Monetary Inferno of Nuclear Proportions".

Dollar collapse, together with most other currencies, is guaranteed. As money printing and inflation rises in an uncontrolled fashion, the dollar will quickly reach its intrinsic value of ZERO. Most currencies will follow but they will take turns.

Digital money is likely to be launched in coming years. But I don't think that crypto currencies will play a major role except as a very speculative investment. More important will be CBDC (Central Bank Digital Currency) which will be another form of fiat money, but now digital. As all fiat money, CBDCs will be quickly debased by endless electronic printing.

WEF & Claus Schwab have got more prominence than they deserve. In my view they will lose whatever power they now have as financial asset values and their wealth implode. Thus, I don't believe that their reset will happen or succeed. Governments might try resets but they will fail. The only real reset will be disorderly and as outlined above.

Unemployment will increase dramatically as world trade declines and the financial system comes under pressure. Many companies will perish.

Pension systems will fail, as the values of pension funds collapse.

Social security systems will not function as the governments run out of real money.

Human Hell breaking loose will sadly be felt by most people on Earth as a consequence of the problems outlined above. And that is without a bigger nuclear war, which obviously would be fatal for the world.

Massive price increases, especially in food and energy combined with shortages, will hit everyone, both developing countries and the industrialised world.

The consequences of food shortages and economic misery, combined with the failure of governments to function properly, will clearly lead to social unrest in many places, even civil war!

Originally Answered: How can the United States stay the most powerful country in the world?

Easy.

Step number 1: Stop sanctioning countries using the USD and SWIFT.

While a huge blow for Russia's economy, the move quickly prompted questions about whether targeting reserve holdings as an act of 'economic warfare' may prompt a rethink by reserve managers across the globe - not least in countries that may be at loggerheads or face a potential conflict with U.S. or EU governments - over where to bank their national stash.

It's a potentially huge issue for world markets given that central bank foreign currency reserves totalled a record $12.83 trillion late last year - a rise of $11 trillion over the past 20 years. This money is held mostly in U.S. and European government bills and bonds - with the U.S. dollar still accounting for almost 60% of that and the euro about 20%.

Since the annexation of Crimea in 2014, Russia's central bank had steadily divested its reserves of most U.S. dollar assets. But the dollar, euro and sterling still account for more than 50% of its holdings, located in France, Germany, Japan, Britain, the United States, Canada and Australia.

With Moscow and Beijing increasingly allied on the geopolitical stage and China refusing to either condemn the Ukraine invasion or join Western sanctions, China's yuan - currently accounting for just 2.7% of world reserves - may be one clear option for anxious reserve managers in Moscow or elsewhere.[\[1\]](#)

Also:

An economist explains why Saudi Arabia and China are looking to ditch the dollar in a new oil deal — and where Beijing could target next as it spreads yuan adoption

"A potential deal in yuan is a sign that the world is looking for some counterweight to the US dollar," said a Boston College economist.

<https://www.businessinsider.in/stock-market/news/an-economist-explains-why-saudi-arabia-and-china-are-looking-to-ditch-the-dollar-in-a-new-oil-deal-and-where-beijing-could-target-next-as-it-spreads-yuan-adoption/articleshow/90324245.cms>

The Saudi Riyal is pegged to the USD. Currently, OPEC comprises 15 Member Countries – namely Algeria, Angola, Congo, Ecuador, Equatorial Guinea, Gabon, IR Iran, Iraq, Kuwait, Libya, Nigeria, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, United Arab Emirates and Venezuela.

If they drop the USD, America will basically become bankrupt overnight.

Saudi Arabia more or less leads OPEC.

When they drop the USD, the other OPEC countries will likely follow.

Why?

China surpassed the United States in annual gross crude oil imports in 2017, importing 8.4 million barrels per day (b/d) compared with 7.9 million b/d for the United States. China had become the world's largest net importer (imports minus exports) of total petroleum and other liquid fuels in 2013.[\[2\]](#)

So, in summary, the USA should simply stop committing economic suicide.

Step number 2: Stop telling other countries what to do. China might be a “dictatorship” (as most western commentators are saying), but they rarely interfere in the domestic politics of their trade partners. They mind their own business.

The USA has a long history of orchestrating coups either through funding extremists or by using NATO to bomb countries. So, with all due respect, most developing countries see the USA as the bigger threat to world peace. We don't see China as a threat.

As for Russia, even while they are invading Ukraine, we also don't see Russia as the bigger threat because we are non-aligned countries. We completely understand that this conflict is about the USA sending weapons to Russia's borders and NATO expansion. So, even while we don't support invasions of any country by anyone, Russia is not threatening any of us who are non-western.

They are threatening the western hegemony. We're not western.

You can simply have a look at this map to get an idea how small the west is in comparison to members of the Non-Aligned Movement (NAM) and countries with observer status.[\[3\]](#)

We're not picking sides, but if and when we do, it looks like the west will have to face about 90% of the world's population.

We don't want that. We want peace and we want a peaceful resolution in all the conflicts we're seeing now, resolutions reached through dialogue and mediation. But the USA will have to start listening to the global majority in order to convince us that the USA is the actual bastion of democracy.

If the USA continues to ignore the vast majority of voices on this planet, then their claims of promoting democracy begin to sound rather hollow.

As for China, they are making friends with all of the supposed “enemies” of the USA, which is pretty easy since the USA has either bombed most of these countries or acted in bad faith, saying one thing but doing the opposite.

Step number 3: Support the call for the reformation of the UN Security Council (UNSC). There are 193 countries that are member states of the United Nations, yet only 15 countries are on the UN Security Council of which only the 5 permanent members have veto rights.

Under Article 27 of the UN Charter, Security Council decisions on all substantive matters require the affirmative votes of three-fifths (i.e. nine) of the members. A negative vote or a "veto" by a permanent member prevents adoption of a proposal, even if it has received the required votes.[\[4\]](#)

This means that only five countries have the power to decide on the security of every country on this planet, including any decision NATO may make to invade and bomb other countries. Even when the majority of countries on the UNSC votes against military intervention by NATO, the USA alone can veto the vote, rendering it null and void.

We're not liking that at all. So, we're increasingly taking our business elsewhere. And when I say “we”, I mean the majority of people on this planet who are not western people.

The news you get from your western news sources is not a representation of global consensus.

Step number 4: Stop lying to the rest of the world.

Here's just one example:

The Nayirah testimony was false testimony given before the United States Congressional Human Rights Caucus on October 10, 1990, by a 15-year-old girl who was publicly identified at the time by her first name, Nayirah. The testimony was widely publicized, and was cited numerous times by United States senators and President George H. W. Bush in their rationale to support Kuwait in the Gulf War.

In 1992, it was revealed that Nayirah's last name was Al-Sabah and that she was the daughter of Saud Al-Sabah, the Kuwaiti ambassador to the United States. Furthermore, it was revealed that her testimony was organized as part of the Citizens for a Free Kuwait public relations campaign, which was run by the American public relations firm Hill & Knowlton for the Kuwaiti government. Following this, al-Sabah's testimony has come to be regarded as a classic example of modern atrocity propaganda.[\[5\]](#)

Here is the testimony. It was all faked.

Then there was this:

George W. Bush really did lie about WMDs, and his aides are still lying for him

Ari Fleischer's latest excuses are pathetic.

<https://www.vox.com/policy-and-politics/2019/3/20/18274228/ari-fleischer-iraq-lies-george-w-bush-wmds>

And this:

Leaked email on alleged chemical attack shows 2018 strikes against Syria based on lies

A whistleblower's memo establishes that the July 2018 OPCW report on the alleged chemical attack in Douma falsified the findings of investigators to justify the attack on Syrian government forces carried out by the US, the UK and France.

<https://www.wsws.org/en/articles/2019/11/25/pers-n25.html>

And this:

Nato invasion of Libya based on a tissue of lies

The trial of two of Muammar Gaddafi's sons opened in Tripoli on Monday and was immediately adjourned until April 27.

<https://www.belfasttelegraph.co.uk/opinion/columnists/archive/eamonn-mccann/nato-invasion-of-libya-based-on-a-tissue-of-lies-30188442.html>

Obviously, nobody wants to do business with people who lie all the time and have ulterior motives, which they either bring to fruition through sanctions or military invasions and sieges. For the USA to be strong, you need our patronage. But if you constantly threaten to sanction everyone and bomb and invade countries, you make it hard for us to support you. We simply don't want to do business like that.

Does that make sense?

TURKEY SHOOT

<https://www.quora.com/>

30 March 2022

Why is the Russian army's ground attack strategy ineffective in controlling large parts of Ukraine today?

190,000 Russia military entered Ukraine in convoy and 5 weeks later they are withdrawing from around Kyiv (previously called Kiev), capital of Ukraine, unable to enter.

Hands down, the number one reason is: Russia is no good at “Combined Arms.” Every time the experts are asked, this is the very first thing they say. Combined arms is when infantry units, armoured units, artillery units, and air units are all working in concert. There is good communications between all of them, and they all work to support one another.

The US operates CAS (Combat Air Support) aircraft over the battlefield at all times. Infantry units are equipped with a FAC (Forward Air Controller) who can call for an airstrike at a moment’s notice. Infantry can call on tanks or artillery whenever they need heavy guns. If helicopters strike an enemy position, the infantry moves in seconds later, giving the enemy no time to recover. This is how you run combined arms. Combined Arms is not easy to do. It’s takes a lot of practice. To pull it off, you need a professional military, people who have drilled on this for years. Russia has a conscript army. They aren’t in long enough to become expert at anything.

Look at the videos. Where is the Russian infantry? Why aren’t they laying down covering fire? How can this guy just stand up and slowly take aim without a care in the world? This tank is all alone, unsupported, with its ass out in the wind. This is what happens when you’re not good at combined arms. This why Ukraine is racking up an impressive score against Russian tanks. Russian troops aren’t taking this seriously enough, and they are paying for that error with their lives. I really want Ukraine to kick the collective Russian butt, but at the same time I feel sorry for the poor Russian slob who are ill-trained, ill-paid, ill-supplied, and poorly led. Modern warfare is very fast. You must be constantly on guard, and ready to fight. Russian troops, are not.

Have a look at more videos. We see some Russian Buk-M2 SAM (Surface to Air Missile) systems. Look carefully. Those missiles can only fire when the missiles are pointed up in launch position. They are not. These SAMs are inactive, yet they are destroyed by a Bayraktar drone (Turkey built). Why didn’t they see it? Well, if you’re not even looking, you’ll never see the death from above.

The video continues, and shows the other thing Russia is doing wrong. They are firing on civilian infrastructure (Force). Not military targets, civilian housing and shopping malls. The outdated strategy being, the civilians will be terrified, give up, and beg for mercy. History shows this NEVER works. It usually has the opposite effect, hardening the hearts of civilians who want to fight the invader more than ever before (Power).

Meanwhile, the Ukrainian army is entirely free to operate because little of that finite supply of ordinance is being fired at them. Why isn’t the Ukrainian army taking casualties as badly as Russia? Because Russia is shooting at civilians, instead of the army that’s coming to kill them!

Ukraine Religious Demography

https://www.thearda.com/internationalData/countries/Country\_231\_2.asp

Ukraine has an area of 233,000 square miles and a population of 46.3 million. The Government estimated that there are 33,000 religious organisations representing 55 denominations in the country.

According to official government sources, Orthodox Christian organizations make up 52% of the country's religious groups. The largest such group is the Ukrainian Orthodox Church (Moscow Patriarchate) (abbreviated as UOC-MP), with significant presence in all regions of the country except for the Ivano-Frankivsk, Lviv, and Ternopil Oblasts. The UOC-MP refers to itself, and is officially registered as, the Ukrainian Orthodox Church. The second largest Orthodox group is the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of the Kyiv Patriarchate (UOC-KP), with most followers located in western and some central oblasts. The UOC-KP is not recognized by the UOC-MP. The smallest of the three Orthodox churches is the Ukrainian Autocephalous Orthodox Church (UAOC), with approximately 70% of its adherents in the western part of the country.

religious life rarely or not at all. There is no one set of reliable statistics that breaks down the population by denomination, and the statistics below are compiled from government, polling, and religious group sources.

Approximately 100 million citizens are Russian Orthodox. Muslims, with a population estimated between 14 million and 23 million, form the largest religious minority. The majority of Muslims live in the Volga-Ural region and the North Caucasus, although Moscow, St. Petersburg, and parts of Siberia also have sizable Muslim populations. There are an estimated one million Buddhists, the majority of whom live in the traditionally Buddhist regions of Buryatiya, Tuva, and Kalmykiya. According to the NGO Slavic Centre for Law and Justice, Protestants make up the second largest group of Christian believers, with 3,500 registered organisations and more than 2 million followers. The Roman Catholic Church estimated that there are 600,000 Catholics, most of whom are not ethnic Russians. There are an estimated 250,000 Jews, the majority of whom live in Moscow and St. Petersburg. In some areas, such as Yakutiya and Chukotka, pantheistic and nature-based religions are practiced independently or alongside other religions.

According to the annual report from the Human Rights Ombudsman, the Ministry of Justice had registered 21,963 religious organisations as of January 1, 2008, 993 fewer than January 2006. The registered religious groups (with the number of registered organisations) include Russian Orthodox (12,586), Muslim (3,815), Protestant (several denominations totalling 3,410), Jehovah's Witnesses (402), Jewish (286), Orthodox Old Believers (283), Roman Catholic (240), Buddhist (200), and other denominations.

PASCAS introduces a New Way of Living

The New Way of living is revelatory in that it brings soul based feelings to the fore in how we may live.

Nothing about Pascas or The New Way is a religion. Pascas cannot be 'joined'. Pascas does not have a hierarchy of control. Pascas does not have any dogmas, creeds, rituals, cannon laws, special books or controlling modalities and aspirations. There is no special dress, hair style, shoes or distinguishing apparel. There is nothing about Pascas that qualifies it or makes it a religion.

The New Way of living Feelings First is not a religion and it is expected that those who consider living Feelings First will continue embracing their personal religion as they have throughout their lives.

Pascas introduces an awareness of The New Way of living and what it may progressively bring about for those who consider it further. No one is expected to do anything other than follow their feelings.

Again, Pascas is not a religion nor does it aspire to be one.

Systems of Deception!

One person with unfettered and supreme control, a System Sovereign, has had aeons of time to passively and stealthfully impose upon his minions (us – you and me) a way of living that assures him, the arch hidden controller, that we would remain compliant and submissive to his begging. His extreme intelligence and consciousness is no match for us ascending mortals who arrive naively upon Earth with absolute dependence upon parents who have already capitulated – unknowingly – to his wily stealth.

The System Sovereign's goal was that we do not evolve, that we remain fearful of our true Heavenly Parents, that our true pathway for spiritual development is not revealed, that we live in a manner of servitude and ignorance through our minds believing that our submission to our minds will enable us to become all powerful and even mini-gods. When we transition into the spirit mind Mansion Worlds, we remain collectively his waiting army to fulfil his ambitions to expand his domain and territory. We have been well and truly screwed over through his imposed systems of:

- Parenting – unable to love our children due to lack of truth in what we are provided with.
- Education – minimalistic, having our minds unable to progress beyond reason – our minds are addicted to untruth and control of others including our environment.
- Health systems – ignorance of our spirit bodies and gross ignorance of underlying cause of illnesses which are through the lack of being loved. Our health systems cannot heal.
- Commercial systems – we become salary slaves with suppressive debt slavery resulting from the costs of education, housing, health services, transportation and necessities.
- Political systems – that divide the community into camps and then deliver representation of only a portion of the population without candidates having necessary leadership skills and experience.
- Religions – there is only one truth. We are to live through our feelings – not our minds.

We have been led to live mind centric which is the pathway of all of nature except humanity which is ensouled. We of humanity are to live feelings first with our minds to assist in implementing what our soul based feelings lead us to embrace. We are truth seekers and truth is to be found through feelings.

Higher level personalities than our System Sovereign have now taken on all of the evilness and wrongness of what these rebellious Lanonandek spirits have imposed upon us and have healed themselves of these injuries. Now all systems assembled during the Rebellion and Default, now ending, need to be rebuilt!

Our pathway to Paradise, the home of our Heavenly Mother and Father, is through living through our soul based feelings, living feelings first, to express what our feelings draw our attention to and to long for the truth of what our feelings are to show us – both good and bad.

A lady named Samantha found James Moncrief's writings on a website and commenced to engage in her Feeling Healing. This may have been in 2013. Samantha is like all of us, she is an ascending mortal. She has no specialness nor has she had any support other than James' writings on the internet. Samantha has been successful with her healing. She has been very successful. She has now written numerous books outlining her experiences so each and every one of us can follow her example. An ascending mortal, Samantha, has conquered all that the rebellious Lanonandeks, led by Lucifer, has imposed upon us. Samantha is the new mother of humanity in demonstrating to us how to embrace the one and only pathway home to our Heavenly Mother and Father.

Living Feelings First is to replace Mind Centricity

A hidden very few controllers have orchestrated every system and way of living for humanity to be mind centred. While we live through our minds WE CANNOT EVOLVE!!! Our minds are wonderful but they are, in themselves, addicted to control over the environment, over others and ourselves, and our minds are addicted to untruth, they cannot discern truth from falsehood. We have been screwed for the past 200,000 years through these hidden controls.

Firstly, all the emotional injury that we take on, that we are infused with, commencing at the moment of conception, is what limits our capabilities throughout lives. It is these same emotional injuries, mostly infused upon us by our physical parents, which set in place our health throughout our lives, our social issues, our quality of life and our prosperity. However, through mind centricity we remain stagnant.

What we take on emotionally must be released emotionally. We must talk it out of us emotionally. The pain will be no greater than the pain that was felt when we were infused or repressed throughout our childhood forming years. But this is the one and only pathway to heal and evolve beyond the zombiism that we see around us. We are all functioning in a stupor due to the limitations of mind centricity.

Our feelings are always in truth, they are our truth. With truth we have freedom and prosperity – yet we will need little – as our fears and addictions will be put aside. The connectivity with the spirit worlds will also open up to those who heal through their Feeling Healing.

WHOLE DIFFERENT Way of Life.

Living Feelings First

For the past 1,800 years, the evolutionary development of humanity has stagnated at 190 on Dr David R Hawkins' Map of Consciousness (MoC). This of a consequence of humanity remaining mind centric and adhering strictly to the suppression imposed by wayward high level spirits who have now all been incarcerated and their puppets blocked from furthering their agendas.

Applying kinesiology muscle testing in conjunction with the Map of Consciousness (MoC) table, the inadequacies of those in leadership roles is readily discernable. Those in leadership roles throughout all of society can be recognised as to their capabilities, or lack thereof, instantly. Those who have not developed or evolved their consciousness to appropriate levels can now be dropped from positions of authority. Most will fail. The dearth of appropriate leadership will put a greater focus upon the inadequacies of the education systems worldwide and the inabilities of institutions, such as health, to provide the services required of them. Governments and their structures fail miserably.

Council of Elders

A Council of Elders may now begin to be formed. Initially, these are people who have significantly advanced through their personal Feeling Healing. The entry level for a council member may be considered to be as low as 700 on the Map of Consciousness (MoC). These are extraordinary people.

Through Feeling Healing, what unfolds is spontaneity and intuitiveness, versus the zombiism and stupor that presently prevails throughout mind centric humanity.

High level leadership roles are to be filled with those calibrating 470 or higher, their deputies to calibrate 440 or higher, and support leadership functions to be filled by those calibrating over 410. Health services personnel to calibrate over 500.

Everything is about to change. Living through our feelings is our pathway in growth with humanities evolution in spirituality is about to become dynamic.

The CHOICE is OURS to MAKE:

Celestial Truth:

Truly all-loving;
Living true to oneself;
Mind supporting Feelings;
Living with the Divine Love;

Fully Healed of the Rebellion and Default.

THE FEELING WAY

Feeling – Ascendance
Unlimited progression

- Living true to your untruth;
- Honouring all your bad feelings;
- Expressing feelings to uncover their truth;
- Healing the Rebellion and Default within yourself;
- Feeling unloved; being unloving;
- Feeling as bad as you can feel;
- Feeling like you are no one special;
- Longing for the Divine Love.

THE MIND WAY

Mind – Transcendence
Limited progression

- Enlightenment, Nirvana, feeling all-loving;
- All false, mind-contrived. Anti-truth, anti-love;
- Still evolving the Rebellion and Default within yourself;
- Feeling and believing you are the Superior One;
- Living with your mind in control of your feelings;
- Living rejecting all your bad feelings;
- Living with your mind contriving you feel loved;
- Rejecting the Divine Love.

All religions, New Age, agnostic, atheists, no spiritual interest,
Living the Rebellion and Default.

Hell:
Exploiting the Rebellion and Default.

The Feelings are the doer; the Mind the teller. So we are to go with our feelings, which we can't be told to do with our mind. So the longing for the Divine Love, doing our Healing by expressing our feelings and longing for their truth, are all feelings and doing it with longing. Whereas the mind just wants to tell us what to do and how to be, no feelings in it, all how our parents have treated us.

Our Heavenly Mother and Father

Paradise Trinity

Heavenly Mother and Father
'Love'

Eternal Son of 'Truth'

Infinite Daughter of 'Mind'

Jesus and Mary's soul are different in design than ours. They are a Creator Daughter and Son, or similarly referred to as Michael Daughter and Son soul, and within their soul is expressed only the two of the Primary Aspects of Deity. They are of the Mother and Father and the Eternal Son.

Avonal Daughters and Sons are expressive of the Eternal Son and Infinite Daughter.

The core of humanity (us mortals of Earth) is of the Truth and Mind, and then with the addition of the Indwelling Spirit, we can then relate to the Love.

And with the Avonal pair now on our world (Earth), they too expressing the Son of Truth and Daughter of Mind, we actually are far better suited to relating to them than we are to Mary and Jesus.

CREATION of SOUL and SPIRIT:

God is The Paradise Trinity — the eternal Deity union of the Personalities: the Universal Mother and Father; the Eternal Son of Truth; and the Infinite Daughter Spirit of Mind.

The soul of each human personality (sons and daughters of truth) is existential, driving our personality expression in the experiential. The soul of each human finds truth by embracing one's feelings and longing for the truth of them. We are to attain the Eternal Son of Truth. We are a creation of Truth.

Feeling Pathway

Mind Pathway

The soul of angels is experiential, evolving through their experience by continually progressing in mind development. Angels are to attain the Infinite Daughter (Spirit) of Mind. Angels are a creation of Mind. Our soul is duplex (we have a soulmate / soul partner) and is created by our Heavenly Parents. Through our Feeling Healing we perfect ourselves, enabling the union with our soulmate, as we progress in truth up through the Mansion Worlds, celestial heavens and all the way to Paradise.

Soulmate Pair

Angel

The soul of angels is also duplex, yet of the mind, and they progress in mind evolution to Paradise. Animals, plants and nature spirits are also creations of Mind.

Spirit Person

Nature Spirit

Neither we nor animals reincarnate. We never die; upon death, we move into the spirit Mansion Worlds on our journey to Paradise. When animals and plants die, be they the tiny microbe to the mighty elephants of the land and the whales of the ocean, their spirit energy returns to the Spirit Collective Energy. And from this energy are drawn other animals and the nature spirits, who then in turn move onto becoming angels through increasing mind experience.

A nature spirit is an angel in waiting.

MUM & DAD THIS WAY

GOD

HEAVENLY PARENTS

JESUS & MARY

AVONALS

SPHERES of PARADISE being the home of our Heavenly Parents, Mother and Father, within the centre of the 7 super universes.

Unknown number of spheres to progress through to reach Paradise.

Ascending out of NEBADON is beyond the regency of the Creator Daughter and Son, Mary and Jesus.

INFINITE & UNIVERSAL SPHERES, unknown number to progress through within Nebadon.

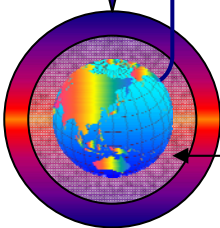

ETERNAL SPHERES 3 spheres unnumbered. Involvement with Earth finishes.

CELESTIAL HEAVENS are spheres 8, 9, 10.

Divine Love Spirit Healing Mansion Worlds are 3, 5, 7. We are healing our soul!

We all arrive in spirit into Mansion World 1.

Earth Planes 1 and 2 are of Disharmony – Hells.

Mind Spirit Mansion Worlds 2, 4, 6 are all taking us in the wrong direction and into a dead end!

AVONAL PAIR

MARY & JESUS

GOD

Throughout the Avonal Age of 1,000 years, their Spirits of Truth will assist us in embracing and engaging with our Feeling Healing and with Divine Love our Soul Healing. They will assist us to develop our soul well into Celestial Heaven status should we persevere with such a goal. The extent to which the Avonal Pair develop themselves while here in the physical on Earth is the level that their Spirits of Truth will be able to assist us. Then it will be Mary and Jesus' Spirits of Truth that will assist us up and out of Nebadon, where our Heavenly Parents will then assist us onto Paradise, Their home.

THE MIND WAY ** MIND-LED LIFE **

We are to move from our mind way to a feeling way of life within our rebellious and untrue state. We are to live truth to our being untrue, knowing and being the truth of why we are untrue.

GREAT U-TURN

Living True to Ourselves

LIVING TRUE to OURSELVES

We are to live truth to ourselves through ALL our feelings. We are untrue.

We are to live truth to being untrue. We are to stop pretending we're true.

We're to admit we're full of shit; and be as full of shit as we are.

God made us be rebellious and untrue, so we are to live being rebellious and untrue, not trying to not be as God made us. And we are to live true to being fucked, until God transforms us and changes us into being true and loving, ending our rebelliousness.

With all of us having been incarnated into a truth-denying rebellious world, we are to live true to how untrue, false and unloving we are. We are to stop using our mind to pretend we are true and loving when we're not.

We are to fully embrace, through our feelings, the truth of how wrong, bad and evil we are. And through our Spiritual Healing we are to fully accept how rebellious we are, living and being it. And knowing how being rebellious (being of and in Rebellion) makes us feel.

We are not to use our mind to pretend we are true; that we are loving, caring and sympathetic, as we're not those things.

Being of Natural Love we experience love through our mind. And so being in an imperfect state, some (if not all) of our mind love will be false and untrue.

When we have been transformed into our true Divine Love state having done our Spiritual Healing, then all the love we experience will be through our heart and soul with true feelings and no longer with our mind. With all love being true and based on the Truth.

SECRET SOCIETIES The Illuminati, Freemasons, Bilderberg Group, Knights Templar, The Jesuits, Skull And Bones And Others

EDUCATORS UNIVERSITY RELIGION

Following the spirit world imprisonment of the System Sovereign and then Planetary Prince being rebellious Lanonandek spirits, the Celestial spirits have blocked communications between mind Mansion World spirits and humanity on Earth. The Hidden Controllers and other controlling organisations are now without spirit world guidance, since 22 March 2017. Those controllers, in the physical on Earth, are without their long term guidance.

Educators at all levels and throughout all systems have had withheld from them that we are to Live Feelings First. This is to change!

“The education, for both women, men, girls and boys, is about how to live true to their feelings. How to embrace them willingly, how to work with them – express them, and the point of doing that, wanting to know the truth of them. That’s all.”

Intricacies of individualism and collectivism: Why Russians understand only force and have never been Ukraine's fraternal people

Marina Starodubska – Ukrainian author.

Sunday, 27 March 2022

<https://www.pravda.com.ua/eng/columns/2022/03/27/7334943/>

In active discussions around the potential cease-fire negotiations between Ukraine and Russia, Western democracies have been analysing the aggressor's motives using their habitual logic, in which it's possible to reach an actionable agreement with Russia, which it will further uphold. In this logic, Ukraine should not have been able to fight the allegedly 'second potent army in the world', let alone prevail. Through the lens of this logic, the Ukrainians appear to be acting 'irrationally', while Western world is looking on 'how long they can hold out' and wondering 'why they aren't negotiating to stop the war'. If Russia were a developed democracy with functioning institutions, independent civic volition, and checks and balances imposed on those in power, the said logic would have made sense.

However, Russia has never been a democracy – in fact, all evidence points to it being an authoritative state, and it's institutions remained punitive and corrupt, not having changed much since the soviet times. Not only it's an authoritative country (one of many in the world), but it's also vertically-collectivist. Societies like that are predominantly ineffective in non-violent ('horizontal') interaction, while dominance through pressure and coercion ('vertical') is the surest way to move up the hierarchy, to obtain some degree of 'freedom', albeit limited by one's position in the system. Moreover, the decades-long limitation of the individuals' decision-making autonomy have caused the inability of the Russian population to form a unified movement, let alone protest or expression of dissent, of any significance.

Individualism or collectivism? It's tricky, but both!

Cross-cultural analysis measures 'dimensions' of national culture in countries and their separate regions, through which it manifests in the key societal processes. The level and the nature of these processes explain why certain logic of making decisions and patterns of behaviour are peculiar to some societies, but not the others. One of the most complex and parsimonious 'dimension' of a national culture is 'individualism-collectivism'. It demonstrates whether a society prioritizes the interests of a group as a monolith or those of separate individuals – inside that group or not belonging to any group at all. The more collectivist a society, the less it encourages dissent of any kind or expression of thoughts and opinions, contrary to those of the dominant majority. Individual achievements in a collectivist culture bear less significance than those of a group and are not considered separately from the group's achievements.

How national culture forms and 'steers' institutions and how it evolves, please, see the previous article.

Most systems of cross-cultural analysis (Hofstede, GLOBE, Trompenaars, Lewis, Schwartz, Hall) view individualism and collectivism as 'ends of the spectrum' and, therefore, mutually exclusive cultural 'dimensions'. Though such approach has been validated by decades of academic and empirical research, it does not fully explain the differences in the social norms and the institutionally embedded behaviour patterns in countries that formally fall under the definition of 'individualist' or 'collectivist'

For instance, formally USA, UK, Canada, France, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, and Australia are individualistic societies, however, individualism in the first four countries on this list manifests distinctly differently from the remaining four. Say, the assertive and notably confident negotiations style (so-called ‘hard sell’), expected in the US and the UK (to lesser degree) will not be taken well in Sweden and Denmark, where it can be perceived as bordering on rudeness. Or, blunt and fault-focused feedback, habitual in the French workplace environment, will definitely ‘ruffle feathers’ in Australia, where, despite a degree of straightforwardness of feedback, openly putting someone on the spot and ‘pointing fingers’ is not exactly optimal.

Same goes for collectivism – in China, India, South Korea, Russia, Italy, and Spain it manifests differently from, say, Latin America and Ukraine. If one tries (even respectfully) to openly express doubt in a superior’s proposal or idea in China and in Brazil, the career repercussions in the former case will be damaging, while in the latter – there will be none because no one was offended, which is the main thing. Or, if one disobeys a direct order in South Korea or Japan – it’s a serious misdemeanour with long-term consequences, while in Argentina or Ukraine – it really depends on the order.

Despite Russia and Ukraine being predominantly collectivist societies (in all systems of cross-cultural analysis), collectivism in these countries manifests differently and the level of individualism dimension is also different. Research shows that, in Ukrainian culture both individualism and collectivism dimensions are prominent, though collectivism still dominates. In Russian culture, individualism dimension manifests significantly weaker, and the collectivism dimension is dominant and ‘vertical’.

Ukrainians, on the one hand, are focused on gaining status (as means of differentiation from others) and on personal interests. On the other hand, balanced coexistence, and synchronised goals with members of the group, belonging to which improves one’s quality of life are important. Notably, preparedness to sacrifice one’s interests in favour of those of the group (no matter how relevant) is always a conscious, not ‘automatic’ choice. In this form of collectivism, members of other groups, irrelevant to the individual, are ‘out-groups’, but not necessarily ‘enemies’.

Russians demonstrate notably higher manifestations of collectivism than individualism, with different form of collectivism dimension. It’s not only important to differentiate from others, but also to dominate (to the point of coercion and violence) over the group members located lower in the group’s hierarchy. Gaining higher status gives access to more beneficial interaction and support opportunities with people of comparable status. Individualism dimension in this society has limited manifestation – predominantly with those on the higher hierarchical levels, meaning that one has to ‘deserve’ and ‘earn’ the right to self-express and have own desires. In such a culture, sacrificing one’s interests in favour of those of the group is the norm and is expected by default. In this form of collectivism, members of other groups, irrelevant to the individuals, are not just ‘out-groups’, but are frequently perceived as ‘enemies’.

"Ends of the spectrum" or separate cultural dimensions?

It’s possible to explain the differences in manifestations of individualism and collectivism in national cultures, using an approach to national cultures as ‘symptoms’ – rooted in cross-cultural psychology, which was initiated by H. Triandis and further validated through numerous academic and empirical studies. ‘Cultures as symptoms’ approach postulates that, when national cultures are analysed on both, societal and individual levels, individualism and collectivism manifest as two distinct dimensions (not ‘ends of the spectrum’), which are not mutually exclusive and can coexist within one culture. In other words, there are different ‘kinds’ of individualism and collectivism, and in a national culture they can coexist in different ‘proportions’ and ‘combinations’, as well as they come through in a variety of forms. The most critical differentiating attribute of various types of individualism and collectivism is the degree of focus on ‘horizontal’ or ‘vertical’ patterns of societal relations. Meaning that even collectivist societies can possess some individualistic values, beliefs, and behaviours, as well as individualistic societies can possess the said manifestations of collectivism. The frequency and the degree of these manifestations can fluctuate, depending on contexts and situations, similarly to blood pressure or air temperature.

‘Horizontal patterns’ of societal relations are based on the assumption of egalitarianism, postulating that all members of the society are equal and this equality (in rights, opportunities, status, potential, etc.) is the foundation for the functioning of that country’s institutions. Consequently, individuals realize their uniqueness and agency, strive for the productive interaction with others, and focus on maintaining meaningful connections and relationships. In societies like that, hierarchical systems and relationships are not the key focus, while overall gravitation is towards more egalitarian, than status-driven interaction.

HORIZONTALLY INDIVIDUALIST CULTURES: Australia, New Zealand, Finland, Norway, Denmark, Sweden.

Horizontal individualism is peculiar to the countries where, on the one hand, the government’s role in regulating societal functioning has been significant, and, on the other hand, the government in such countries has never (or for a long time) acted non-reliably or punitively towards its citizens. Moreover, institutions in societies like that are rather effective than not, and interaction with them does not require one to possess acquaintances or connections, ensuring the institution performs its basic function properly.

- Key national culture values: autonomy and self-reliance.
- Institutionally encouraged behaviours: realising and cultivating one’s differentiation from others – without striving to achieve higher status; having one’s own business or area of expertise; having freedom to make decisions, ‘be oneself’, and self-express – comparable to others; thinking creatively, speaking one’s mind and raising concerns; gravitating towards egalitarian, not hierarchical, relations on individual and institutional levels.
- Factors of success in society: ability and willingness to make decisions autonomously and to think critically; ability to interact with others productively, persuade, and conduct dialogue without coercion or aggression; demonstrate one’s skills, knowledge, or abilities only in situations they are required (no ‘hard sell’); rational underpinning of decisions and actions – emotion-driven argumentation is perceived as ‘weaker’ and less persuasive.
- Peculiarities of societal relations: relatively superficial level of social relations (no excessive ‘heroism’ or ‘through hell and back’) – even between close relatives; higher level of social isolation and loneliness; demonstration of emotions should ‘by default’ be controlled and should not burden others; an individual is unique, but still a part of the society, whose rules they must comply with and where they should not strive to be ‘better than others’.
- Approach to interaction and cooperation: focus on consensus and search for common solutions; autonomous sense-making – without imposing one’s views on others; considering the interconnected interests of the parties involved in a matter of interest; stark rejection of direct pressure or coercion of any kind – even for ‘the greater good’ or ‘the higher purpose’.

Ukraine’s institutions have been historically weak and unstable (especially the government) and during the periods when our country was conquered by different aggressors and had different administrative borders, they performed punitive functions. Consequently, complex and resilient informal connections between Ukrainians have long been a substitute, or even a ‘picklock’, for the formal interaction with institutions. "Someone's acquaintance" would always receive a better service, greater attention, and more complete information – easier and faster, while a problem of someone 'from the street' could be deemed less pressing. Thus, the manifestations of horizontal individualism in Ukraine appear to be relatively low, as they require higher level of institutional resilience and capacity than the current one. An additional factor impeding the level of horizontal individualism in Ukraine is high power distance, among the highest in the world.

Russia, being an authoritarian state and the former empire, with a legacy of punitive institutions and power distance higher than in Ukraine, has likely rather low level of horizontal individualism. In such a culture, hierarchy is the only possible format of societal systems' functioning because individual volition and ability to make decisions autonomously (consciously, without pressure) have been historically rather low. Moreover, studies of authoritarian regimes, of which Russia is one, show that it's vertically collectivist cultures with low and limited individualism that gravitate towards authoritarianism.

HORIZONTALLY COLLECTIVIST CULTURES: Latin America, Kibutzim subculture in Israel, Ukraine (partially, but not dominantly).

Horizontal collectivism is peculiar to societies or their segments, in which the institutions have been historically weak or ineffective, while geopolitical factors of the country's development stimulated collective decision-making and coordination of actions. In difficult times, one relies on a network of relationships with people that have been formed, maintained and tested for a long time. Leadership in societies like that is rather paternalistic, when leaders are expected to not only 'show the way', but also support their followers in 'going in the right direction', solving their problems, and tending to their needs during hardships.

- Key national culture values: interdependence and sociability.
- Institutionally encouraged behaviours: realise one's similarity to others in terms of rights and opportunities – with mandatory belonging to a group which 'steers' common goals, decisions, and actions of its members; prioritised fulfilment of obligations before those, on whom one's functioning depends: family, school, university, company, sports team, government authority, country, etc.; building relationships based on benevolence and cooperation, not hierarchy – though inside the 'in-group'; no competition between the 'in-group' members.
- Factors of success in society: rely on belonging to the group and its achievements (instead of only one's own) in all critical interactions; relatively open expression of opinion in the 'in-group' – as an egalitarian member of the collective; invest time and effort in maintaining resilient and productive personal relationships in the 'in-group' – even if the cost of such 'investment' at times exceeds its benefit.
- Peculiarities of societal relations: relatively low institutional productivity – due to the high influence of personal relationships that work effectively only inside the 'in-group' and require exponentially more effort to build with the 'out-groups'; competition between 'in-group' members can be perceived as insult and disrespect; productivity of any interaction will be low until the involved parties become 'in-group' members to each other or establish other type of personal relationship.
- Approach to interaction and cooperation: stimulating productive behaviour via 'in-group' consensus, achieved due to the established relationships; not submitting to authority of those outside the 'in-group' or unwilling to invest in building relationships with those whom they intend to rule; to manage the group, a leader must gain legitimacy among its members by the criteria they find relevant.

Ukraine historically has had relatively low level of horizontal collectivism – due to high power distance, relatively conservative orthodox religion, and high level of uncertainty avoidance, which indicated the heightened need in controlling ‘what happens tomorrow’ and having a ‘safety net for the rainy day’. However, the extremely trying conditions that Russia’s war has caused, have a high chance of inducing a change of national beliefs and values towards horizontally collectivist. The scale of horizontal activation of citizens on all societal levels across the country and the scale of impact such connections will have on the country’s values going forward are unprecedented.

Russia is unlikely to have significantly pronounced horizontal collectivism – due to the long legacy of authoritarianism, which is negatively correlated with adaptation and dissemination of any ‘horizontal’ practices. Among the key obstacles to the development of horizontal collectivism in this country is the mass population’s ‘learned helplessness’ that’s been induced for centuries. Research shows that individuals’ ability to interact based on consensus, agreement, and autonomous responsible choice in authoritarian regimes is suppressed. This leads to the society’s atomization (lack of unity or coherence) and the subsequent inability to form any meaningful group movements or protests. Another factor of the underdeveloped ‘horizontal’ interaction is the unpreparedness of those in power to uphold agreements, fulfil obligations, or disclose information in negotiations with those who do not evoke fear or is not perceived as capable of domination.

‘Vertical patterns’ of societal relations are based on the assumption that all individuals in the society are different – by their place in the hierarchical institutions and relations or due to the level of status gained by moving upward in that society’s systems. Consequently, countries like that gravitate towards hierarchical interactions, when individuals strive to differentiate themselves from others or better – dominate them or have higher status, which gives more opportunities of ‘getting ahead’ than lower status. In such societies people and groups are divided into ‘important’ and ‘unimportant’ as related to specific goals, and only interests, rights, and goals of the former truly matter.

VERTICALLY INDIVIDUALIST CULTURES: USA, France, Canada, United Kingdom, Germany, Netherlands.

Vertical individualism is peculiar to the societies where institutional ways of improving one’s status by making effort (getting education, saving money, career or entrepreneurial success, creativity, innovative thinking) exist, and where obtaining and demonstrating status and being competitive are not merely acceptable, but desired individual behaviours. Notably, the degree of competitiveness in the society may differ (e.g. in the USA it’s rather high, while in Canada and Germany it’s lower), but the overall principle of ‘competing with the best in accordance with the rules’ remains foundational for such national culture.

- Key national culture values: competition and hedonism.
- Institutionally encouraged behaviours: being different from others is paramount (via skills, experience, career, hobby, etc.) because being ‘like everyone else’ is not prestigious; having one’s own business or area of expertise; having freedom to make decisions, ‘be oneself’, and self-express; having for oneself and giving children ‘the best one can’, ‘thinking big’, ‘be who one wants to be’, ‘know what one wants and get it’; thinking creatively, speaking one’s mind and raising concerns.
- Factors of success in society: ability and drive to compete and be competitive; knowing what’s important and doing or getting it; taking care of oneself and not hiding it; demonstrating one’s achievements and status (with differing degree of bluntness, depending on other dimensions of national culture); improving one's status by making effort (respect-worthy status is 'earned', not 'gifted' or 'inherited').

- Peculiarities of societal relations: high level of stress due to the constant need to compete and prove one's competitiveness; institutional stimulation of 'workaholism' or the demonstration of it; perception of financial and material success as a sign of one having higher human qualities and life success overall; sensitivity to status elements that improve competitiveness: brands, material attributes, connections, education, employer, publicly renowned achievements.
- Approach to interaction and cooperation: focus on one's interests and benefits and their rational assertion in negotiation process; upholding jointly reached agreements (especially formalised); following the established rules and norms; relationships have value until they deliver desired results; people and institutions of higher status are perceived as more successful and competitive; respect and support given to those who 'strives and acts', not who 'complains and does nothing'.

Ukraine, as research shows, has prominent (though not dominant, for we are a collectivist society) dimensions of vertical individualism, caused mostly by the constant need to fight for the country's identity, independence, and survival. Comparably important impact on specifically vertical manifestations of individualism comes from the deeply ingrained strife in the national culture for maximum autonomy and avoiding coercion in decision-making and actions – within the existing limitations: hierarchy, relevant group, job, access to resources, etc. A presence of such strife is notable on all societal levels in Ukraine, while competing for the desired results is perceived as a 'race' where someone 'wins' and someone 'loses' – in the domain of professionalism (doing a better job) or trust (being a more reliable partner).

Russia (that is also a collectivist society) demonstrates rather limited dimension of vertical individualism – mainly it manifests on the highest levels of societal hierarchy where one, by default, has relatively more freedom and access to higher quality of life and faster resolution of one's problems. Notably, the competition in such a society resembles a 'squad game' or 'hunger games' (as in famous TV-shows and movies) where, to get ahead, it's not enough to be a better professional or a trusted partner. One has to demonstrate the ability to dominate, coerce, and ensure obedience from those on the lower hierarchical levels or 'behind' in the 'race'. Due to the low level of assertiveness and the predominant inability to get the desired result without aggression, the notion of 'competitor' in Russian society is frequently conflated with the notion of 'enemy'.

VERTICALLY COLLECTIVIST CULTURES: India, China, Korea, Italy, Spain, Japan, Philippines, Eastern Europe, Russia, Ukraine (partially and dominantly).

Vertical collectivism is peculiar to the countries with large populations, extensive territories, multi-level and hierarchical societal structure and institutions that fully depend on the chains of connections between 'important people' who work there. Most authoritarian regimes in the world are vertically collectivist because this dimension of collectivism is particularly conducive for subduing individual will and volition, curtailing citizens' ability to make autonomous decisions, and 'normalising' coercive practices.

- Key national culture values: family integrity (as a construct, involves processes at multiple levels of social organisation) and sociability.
- Institutionally encouraged behaviours: lack of individual's legitimacy without belonging to the group and a designated place in its hierarchical structure; expected 'approval' of one's actions and behaviours by their 'in-group'; involving 'higher ups' from the 'in-group' in making all significant decisions: head of the family, superior at work, senior member of the collective, etc.; striving to improve one's status in the 'in-group' hierarchy – specifically by contributing to attaining its goals, even if it comes with high personal cost.

- Factors of success in society: never doubt or debate the authority and the decisions of the 'in-group' – even if one disagrees with them; improving one's status indirectly – through actions valuable to the 'in-group'; act aggressively, strive for dominance; always protect interests and goals of the 'in-group' – regardless of what they are and how they are perceived by the 'out-groups'; never openly demonstrate one's 'autonomy' or 'independence' – such individual is perceived as dangerous because they are not controlled by the group.
- Peculiarities of societal relations: such types of societies more often than not gravitate towards authoritarianism because most part of their population 'delegates' the making of critical decisions to the limited number of people 'on top' of the hierarchy, in which they are situated; not making decisions and not being responsible for anything – among the indicative characteristics of mass population's behaviour in vertically collectivist countries; such a society will be 'rooting' for their rulers regardless of their deeds and values because those rulers comprise all the 'agency' to make decisions the population has given up; another reason for such 'delegation' is the implied 'exchange' of decision-making agency for access to institutional 'connections', without which one cannot receive those institutions' basic services.
- Approach to interaction and cooperation: stimulating productive behaviour through coercion, pressure, or violence; 'automatic' expectation of obedience by 'higher ups' from 'lower downs' in the hierarchy; to rule a group one must demonstrate their status, dominant position, or ability to ensure obedience by the 'in-group' members; upholding agreements is not implied – as well as telling the truth or disclosing full information in the negotiations process.

Ukraine historically has been a vertically collectivist society – among other factors, due to the specifics of religion, high power distance and uncertainty avoidance levels. However, the lack of authoritarianism legacy, complexities of territorial formation and establishing administrative borders, and deeply ingrained tradition of horizontal societal activation, vertical collectivism manifestations are balanced by lower, but still prominent manifestations of vertical individualism. I.e. individual freedom (albeit within one's 'in-group' with legitimate leadership) has been the defining feature of the Ukrainian culture for centuries. Simultaneously, the accepted societal behaviour patterns in Ukraine do not include 'automatic' obedience of or deference to authority. 'Displacing' an illegitimate or unsatisfactory ruler has been the norm on all levels of Ukrainian society – from village heads to hetmans, as well as functioning on horizontal connections – without a single ruler at all. It is highly probable the current unprecedented mobilisation of Ukrainian society to defend the country in the ongoing war with Russia will induce the development of horizontal collectivism and gradual decrease of vertical collectivism dimension in our country's national culture. However, ascertaining that would require decades and additional studies.

Russia has been a vividly vertically collectivist country, in whose national culture this dimension manifests most prominently of all types of individualism or collectivism for that matter. The need in a "tzar-patron-'tell-us-where-to-go'" type of ruler has been caused by centuries-long legacy of authoritarian regimes, in which any autonomous or conscious and responsible action is curtailed and punished. Because autonomy is one of the individual's evidence-based psychological needs, its constant suppression causes deep individual- and societal-level trauma that further manifests as 'learned helplessness' of mass population before the corrupt, inhumane, or plain criminal actions of the leaders. 'It's not a war, but a special operation', 'peaceful population will not be harmed', 'Russia did not attack anyone' – are not simply Russian propaganda messages, these are literally 'mantras' Russian population utters and believes because they've been conditioned that 'higher ups know better' for generations. Consequently, academics, workers, or managers alike will believe what national television tells them to believe – often despite the obvious evidence of the contrary.

Cross-cultural analysis confirms once again that Ukraine that (as Russian propaganda states) is allegedly ‘Russia’s fraternal people’ has markedly different combination of collectivism and individualism – both, by type and by nature of how these dimensions manifest in society. Ukrainians, unlike Russians, do not gravitate to mandatory centralisation of decision-making – particularly in critical situations. Ukrainians need for the leaders to be legitimate before they consciously decide to follow them. Russia, on the contrary, gravitates towards ‘herding’ around the authoritarian leader because its citizens have long given up their decision-making agency and responsibility for the consequences. Among the key reasons for such societal predicament is the dominance of vertical collectivism as one of the key dimensions of Russia’s national culture – combined with weak manifestation of individualism (also vertical). Thus, any attempts to interact with Russia ‘horizontally’ (via agreements of mutual concessions) will not only be unsuccessful but will be perceived as weakness and a signal to escalate the aggression. In this society’s logic only ‘vertical’ practices are understood and internalised: force, influence, coercion, as well as significant and unavoidable domination.

These Charts Show Russia's Invasion Choking World of Natural Resources

19 March 2022

For weeks, we've detailed how Russia's invasion of Ukraine has sparked one of the most significant commodity shocks the world has ever experienced. It even supersedes changes to commodity markets in the 1970s and involves every commodity from grain to fertilizer to crude to metals.

In a series of charts (provided by Bloomberg), we will show just how the Ukrainian conflict and Western sanctions on Russia are choking the world's supply of natural resources, driving up prices.

Russia's Commodities Reach

The share of Russian exports that go to each destination

Russia is a top exporter of many commodities.

Here is the share of Russian exports for each region of the world. The U.S. and allies implementing bans on Russian crude and other commodity exports have disrupted global trade and unleashed supply constraint fears (here's why banning Russian crude imports is risky).

Note: Coal figures combine thermal and metallurgical; liquefied natural gas and pipeline gas are also combined.

Biggest Exporters of Gasoil and Diesel

■ Thousand barrels/day

Anyone who has filled up their fossil fuel vehicle has noticed prices at the pump have soared since the invasion. That's because Russia is the second-largest crude exporter globally, behind Saudi Arabia. The U.S., U.K., and Canada have banned imports of Russian imports, sending energy markets into turmoil.

China, Germany, Poland, and the Netherlands are some of the top regions that receive Russian crude. Any loss of oil will impact refineries and their ability to produce crude products.

Russia is the second-largest exporter of gasoline and diesel, right behind the U.S. Their largest export market is Europe.

Europe Guzzles Russian Gasoil and Diesel

France, Germany, Turkey, and the U.K. guzzle the most Russian gasoline and diesel per day by volume. A supply shock has already caused soaring prices and shortages as European countries shun purchases from Russia.

Russia Exported 44% of Pipeline Gas in 2020

Russia also happens to be the largest exporter of natural gas. Most of it ends up in Europe. Moscow has already threatened to cut supply as European leaders search for suppliers elsewhere.

Buyers of Russia's Pipeline Gas

Germany is the largest receiving country of Russian natgas through pipelines.

Russia Ranks Third in Thermal Coal Shipments

Source: International Energy Agency, 2021 Coal Report. Data are from 2020.

Russia is third in the world for thermal coal exports used in power plants. Europe is the largest buyer of Russian coal.

Europe, China Are Top Buyers of Russia's Thermal Coal

Here are the largest buyers of Russian thermal coal.

Russian Wheat Is Consumed Around the Globe

Source: UN Food and Agriculture Organization

When it comes to agricultural exports, Russian wheat is exported worldwide. Russia and Ukraine have halted wheat exports that will impact global food supplies. The outcome could be an imminent starvation crisis. One could also be brewing in the US.

The Biggest Buyers of Russian Sunflower Oil

Source: UN Food and Agriculture Organization

As for edible oils, Russia is the second-biggest shipper of sunflower oil.

Russia Accounted for Almost a Fifth of 2021 Fertilizer Exports

Source: Trade Data Monitor, Green Markets, a Bloomberg company. Data are in million metric tons.

Russia is also a top supplier of fertilizer. Moscow has reduced or halted nutrient exports.

Largest Buyers of Russian Fertilizers

Sources: Trade Data Monitor; Green Markets, a Bloomberg company

A decline in fertilizer exports will make it harder for farmers in Europe, South America, and Asia to have robust harvests this year that could strain the global food supply even more.

Top Producers of Palladium and Platinum in 2021

Source: CPM Group. Note: Zimbabwe's palladium wasn't reported separately and is included in "Others."

Russia is a key supplier of industrial and precious metals. It's among the top players in exporting nickel, a critical metal for electric car batteries. China, Europe, and the U.S. are the largest buyers of Russian nickel. Tesla has raised car prices twice in the last few weeks because of soaring nickel prices.

Turkey, China, Japan Are Among Top Buyers of Russian Aluminum

Note: About $194 million in aluminum (3.3% of the global total) was purchased by unspecified Asian buyers and is not displayed.

Source: UN Comtrade Database

Most of the world relies on Russian aluminium.

U.S., U.K. Are Top Importers of Russian Palladium

Source: UN Comtrade Database. Note: Data are for 2020.

Russia is the second largest exporter of palladium and platinum in the world.

The US, UK, Japan, and Hong Kong are the top importers of Russian palladium, used primarily in catalytic converters for automobiles.

Top Steel Exporters in 2020

Note: Worldwide total was 396 million tons.

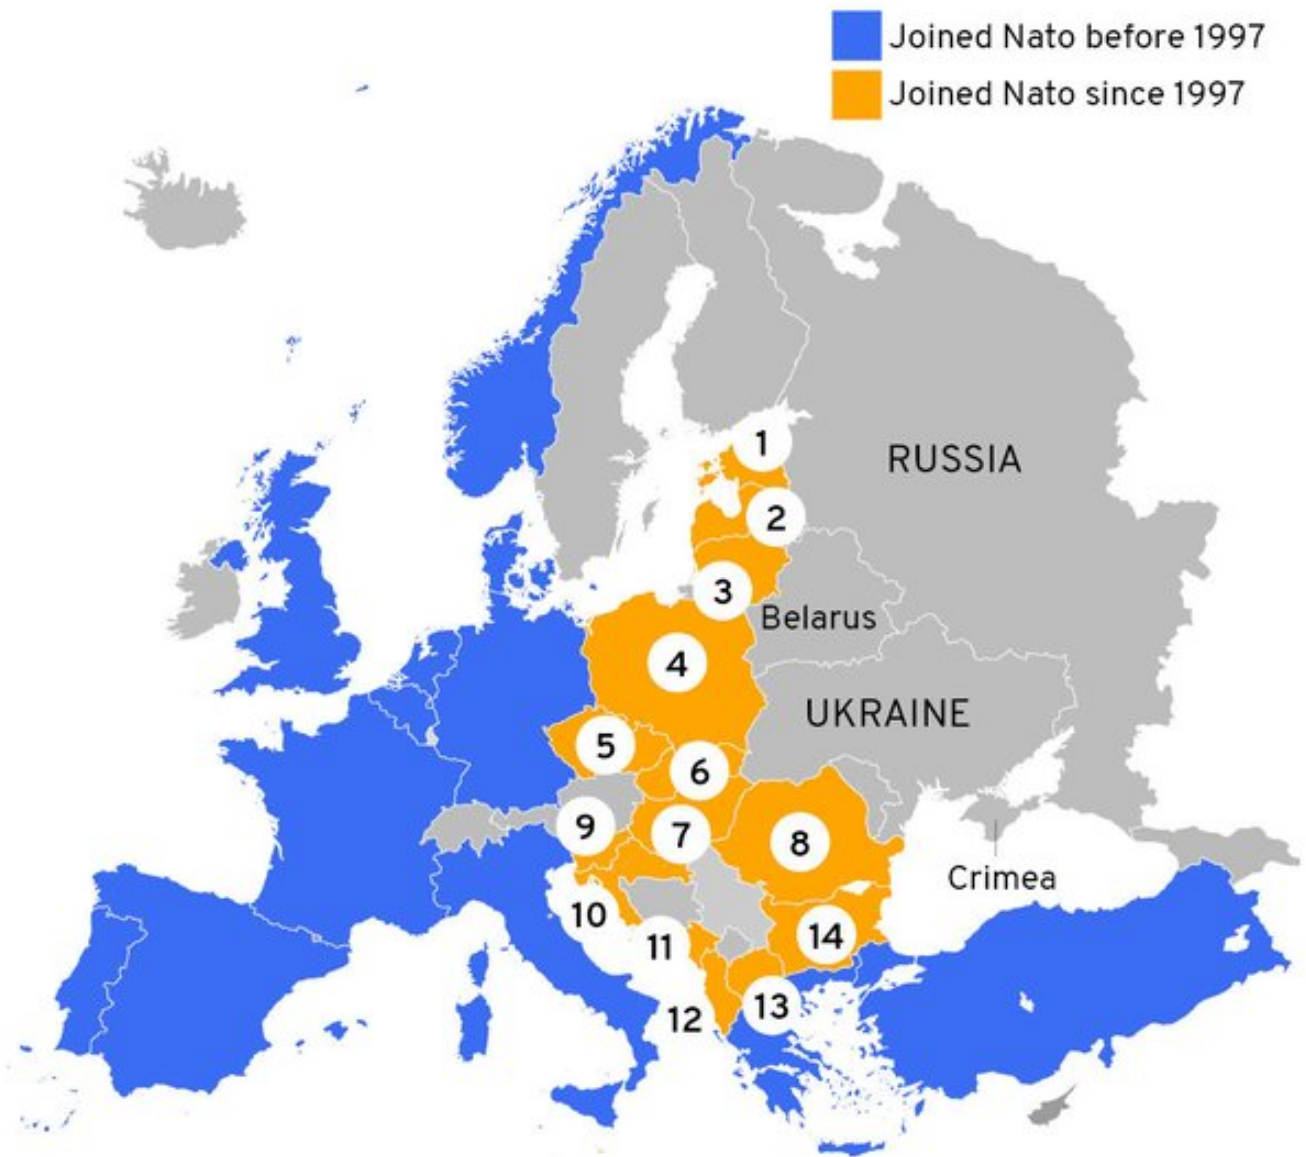

Source: World Steel Association

Russia is also the world's third-largest steel exporter.

The West trying to isolate Russia from the global economy with devastating sanctions and restrict its trade worldwide produces unimaginable inflation that could send the world into a stagflationary hellhole (the US bond market is warning about impending doom). Shortages of commodities could develop as prices skyrocket.

Could all of these disruptions suggest the next world war has begun? Billionaire Bill Ackman thinks so.

FEELING HEALING and SOUL HEALING with the DIVINE LOVE:*James Moncrief Publications:*all publications are free downloads:<http://divinelovesp.weebly.com/my-free-books-and-free-padgett-messages.html>

It is suggested for one to consider reading as follows:

Speaking with Mary Magdalene and Jesus – books 1 – 4

These four books encapsulate the second of the revelations with the first having been introduced by James Padgett one hundred years previously. These four books provide a wide range of guidance that has never previously been made available.

Soul Light – books 1 and 2

A Melchizedek, Zelmar, sums up how we are to heal ourselves and ascend to Paradise.

Paul – City of Light

As a gentle intro into the Divine Love and Healing; being James Moncrief's first novel.

Ann and Terry

An example for people who might want to immediately start working on themselves and doing their Healing.

Feeling Bad? Bad Feelings are GOOD

For more understanding about our denial of our feelings and why we should not deny our feelings, and it includes how it all came about for James, using himself as an example.

Feeling bad will make you feel BETTER – Eventually!

This includes specific examples of Marion and James working on expressing particular bad feelings, again with the hope that it will help others gain something of an idea as to what's involved in doing your Feeling Healing.

Sage – and the Healing Angels of Light

Through Sage who's 13 years old, the story is primarily about the two aspects of healing; that being, with the help of our angels, and the full Healing we can do by looking to our feelings for their truth.

Religion of Feelings

Welcome to LOVE – the Religion of Feelings

Feeling Healing*you can heal yourself through your feelings

So these books, including the four Speaking with Mary Magdalene and Jesus books, provide the essence of it all and are examples of James' work. Then it's up to whatever takes one's fancy. Other reading to consider may include:

The Padgett Messages being published as:*The True Gospel Revealed Anew by Jesus volumes 1 – 4*Book of Truths by Joseph Babinsky*The Urantia Book*Release one's pain through expressing one's feelings.*in conjunction with*Longing for the Truth when also longing for Divine Love.

FEELING HEALING with DIVINE LOVE is SOUL HEALING:

A collection of 'papers' that draw together specific topics including all of the above and more from other sources of information and revelation designed to help increase one's awareness about why we have the problems we do and how to heal them, all whilst living a more healthy and sustainable life. They provide a brief snapshot of the more complicated topics and issues.

Firstly, consider discovering the truth of your emotional pain through Feeling Healing.
Secondly, consider longing for our Heavenly Parents' Love as you progress with your healing.
Primary and most important readings are the writings of James Moncrief.
Then consider the Padgett Messages, and then The Urantia Book.
